Heavenly Hospitality:

The Art of Heavenly Hospitality Becky Eisemann, 2021-08-12 Have you ever entertained angels? What would you do if one knocked on your door? Get ready! In this heartwarming true story, author Becky Cole Eisemann shares the importance of Heavenly Hospitality and why you need to practice it. She invites you in these pages to enjoy the warmth of her home, be it in her native Southern California, Sweden, Germany, or traveling Europe in a VW van. She will offer you nourishment from God's Word and encouragement through original songs from her heart, as well as introduce you to a variety of guests and hospitality experiences she has learned from. She would even like to give you the house key that may open your own door to more gracious and generous living, blessing others and being blessed yourself in the process. What are you waiting for? When my book arrives, find a comfortable seat and pour yourself some coffee or tea. The refreshments are here in this book. But if you hear a knock on the door, please answer it. You just might be greeting an angel unawares. Bound to Be Free Reinhard Hutter, 2004-07-20 Bound to Be Free explores the scriptural concepts of church, ekklesia, freedom, eleutheria, and truthful speech, parrhesia, showing not only that the proper meanings of these three concepts interpenetrate one another but also that rending them asunder lies at the root of Christian division today. According to Reinhard Hutter, the crucial interrelationship of these three concepts has long been obscured by ongoing church division. Separated from each other, many Christians assume that freedom can be maintained and truthful speech preserved only at the cost of unity. Others assume that Christian unity can be attained only if freedom and truthful speech are narrowly circumscribed in their proper exercise. Christian division issues from the all too familiar individualistic accounts of church, freedom, and speech that have haunted modernity and clouded the proclamation of the gospel. This book shows that here at the beginning of the twenty-first century, it is imperative that Christians attend to this crucial interrelationship and its source in the God of the gospel. Hutter discusses the meaning, role, and importance of each concept in turn, engaging along the way a wide range of classical and contemporary voices in theology, philosophy, and culture that reveal in different ways how church, freedom, and truthful speech support one another. Bound to Be Free is a groundbreaking work that challenges common approaches to ecumenism and points a fruitful new course ahead. Freestyle Michael W. Waters, 2014-01-16 Rev. Dr. Michael Waters identifies as a member of the hip-hop generation living in an urban context. His purpose in writing is to inspire hope in the promise of a new day in the assurance of victory over defeat and in the fulfillment of God's promises within the created order. Freestyle boldly confronts issues within the urban community such as addiction, education, incarceration, family issues, and absentee fathers. Based on his blogs from The Huffington Post, Waters speaks truth to relevant current events with his edgy but truthful perspectives. Sample chapters include Glory, A New Day for Family and Fatherhood in Hip Hop Culture, With Deepest Regret, A Letter to the Ancestors, An instruments fell silent and began to listen Those who had been walking alone in meditation met together in companies to talk And those who had been far away on errands to the Earth and other planets came homeward like a flight of swallows to the high cliff when the day is over It was not that they needed to be restored from weariness for the inhabitants of that country never say I am tired But there as here the law of change is the secret of happiness and the joy that never ends is woven of mingled strands of labour and repose society and solitude music and silence Sleep comes to them not as it does to us with a darkening of the vision and a folding of the wings of the spirit but with an opening of the eyes to deeper and fuller light and with an effortless outgoing of the soul upon broader currents of life as the sun loving bird poises and circles upward without a wing beat on the upholding air The Runic Hall in the Danish Old-northern Museum George Stephens,1868
