Heavenly Love? Gabriele Griffin,1993 Poems Between Women Emma Donoghue,1997 Emma Donoghue illustrates the ways in which women present their affections for each other as childhood playmates romantic friends and lovers With poems by over 100 women from all over the world Poems Between Women collects four centuries of poetry between women writing in English They are married and single young and old lesbian heterosexual or romantic friends whose words reveal a wide range of experiences and emotions but also chart the evolution of women s poetic expression Gendering the Nation Christopher Whyte,2019-08-08 Too often seen as a ghost from the past nationalism has resurfaced as a major factor in European politics and culture A powerful commitment to national autonomy has marked Scottish writing throughout the twentieth century How has the emergence of new voices from feminist gay and lesbian critics transformed that commitment How critical and pluralistic can the new nationalisms be This collection serves notice that the tradition is being read in new and disruptive ways Five women and four men examine the relationship between gender and nationality how male and female authors portray women the treatment of sexuality in Scottish writing the construction of Scottish masculinity and its relation to class and homophobia Covering modern fiction and theatre poetry film and television it is a provocative reassessment of the gender and culture of a stateless nation Romance Fiction and American Culture William A. Gleason,Eric Murphy Selinger,2017-05-15 Since the 1970s romance novels have surpassed all other genres in terms of popularity in the United States accounting for half of all mass market paperbacks sold and driving the digital publishing revolution Romance Fiction and American Culture brings together scholars from the humanities social sciences and publishing to explore American romance fiction from the late eighteenth to the early twenty first century Essays on interracial inspirational and LGBTQ romance attend to the diversity of the genre while new areas of inquiry are suggested in contextual and interdisciplinary examinations of romance authorship readership and publishing history of pleasure and respectability in African American romance fiction and of the dynamic tension between the genre and second wave feminism As it situates romance fiction among other instances of American love culture from Civil War diaries to Bob Dylan s Blood on the Tracks Romance Fiction and American Culture confirms the complexity and enduring importance of this most contested of genres Identity and Form in Contemporary Literature Ana María Sánchez-Arce,2013-10-08 This ambitious and wide ranging essay collection analyses how identity and form intersect in twentieth and twenty first century literature It revises and deconstructs the binary oppositions identity form content form and body mind through discussions of the role of the author in the interpretation of literary texts the ways in which writers bypass or embrace identity politics and the function of identity and the body in form Essays tackle these issues from a number of positions including identity categories such as dis ability gender race and sexuality as well as questioning these categories themselves Essayists look at both identity as form and form as identity Although identity and form are both staples of current research on contemporary literature they rarely meet in the way this collection allows Authors studied include Beryl Bainbridge Samuel Beckett John Berryman Brigid Brophy Angela Carter J M Coetzee Anne Enright William Faulkner Mark Haddon Ted Hughes Kazuo Ishiguro B S Johnson A L Kennedy Toby Litt Hilary Mantel Andrea Levy Robert Lowell Ian McEwan Flannery O Connor Alice Oswald Sylvia Plath Jeremy Reed Anne Sexton Edith Sitwell Wallace Stevens Jeremy Reed Jeanette Winterson and Virginia Woolf The book engages with key theoretical approaches to twentieth and twenty first century literature of the last twenty years while at the same time advancing new frameworks that enable readers to reconsider the identity and form conundrum In both its choice of texts and diverse approaches it will be of interest to those working on English and American Literatures gender studies queer studies disability studies postcolonial literature and literature and philosophy Unmanning Modernism Elizabeth Jane Harrison, Shirley Peterson, 1997 Arguing for a radical re evaluation of the modernist aesthetic the essayists consider how women writers created their own version of modernism through the use of sentimental and domestic subject matter by writing about maternal concerns and through experiments with plot voice and points of view What is She Like Rosa Ainley, 2016-10-06 In What Is She Like Rosa Ainley looks in depth at how lesbians see themselves and at the questions of identity that have defined and divided the lesbian community Covering the period from the 1950s with its repressive influence on sexuality in general through so called sexual liberation in the 1960s to the freedoms and limitations of lesbian feminism in the 1970s she brings exciting and illuminating perspectives to bear on lesbian lives in the 1990s when lipstick lesbians were the darlings of the mainstream media Ainley deconstructs the bizarre popular myths and stereotypes which often surround the twilight world of lesbianism substituting for them a celebration of the multifarious nature of the lesbian subculture which evolved during the late 20th century In a series of fascinating interviews interspersed with the text over 20 women of varying ages races and backgrounds talk frankly about their lives and lifestyles as lesbians focusing on their own identity in terms of politics leisure pursuits fashion and affiliations Sisterhoods Deborah Cartmell, 1998-03 Sisterhoods concentrates on portrayals of female relationships communities friends lovers sisters daughters mothers and enemies and examines the positioning of the subject in different media for both male and female consumption Tomboys and bachelor girls Rebecca Jennings, 2017-10-03 Using a rich array of oral histories and archival sources Tomboys and Bachelor Girls provides the first detailed academic study of lesbian identity and culture in post war Britain Described by psychiatrists as immature and neurotic and widely ignored as taboo by mainstream society lesbians nevertheless recognised and accepted their same sex desire and sought out women like themselves Challenging the conventional picture of the post war decades as years of austerity and conservative femininity this book traces the emergence of a vibrant lesbian social scene in Britain centred on the metropolitan nightclubs of post war London but also developing across the country through lesbian magazines and social organisations This fascinating book brings to life the rich history of post war lesbian culture for the scholarly and general reader alike Race, Sex, and Gender in Contemporary Women's Theatre Mary F

Brewer,1999-01-01 Focusing on dramatic works by contemporary British and American playwrights in conjunction with feminist political and theoretical texts this book discusses feminist constructions of the category Woman Beauvoir in Time

Meryl Altman,2020-11-23 Beauvoir in Time situates Simone de Beauvoir's The Second Sex in the historical context of its writing and in later contexts of its international reception from then till now The book takes up three aspects of Beauvoir's work more recent feminists find embarrassing bad sex dated views about lesbians and intersections with race and class Through close reading of Beauvoir's writing in many genres alongside contemporaneous discourses good and bad novels in French and English outmoded psychoanalytic and sexological authorities ethnographic surrealism the writing of Richard Wright and Franz Fanon and in light of her travels to the U S and China the author uncovers insights more recent feminist methodologies obscure showing that Beauvoir is still good to think with today Countering the Culture Margaret-Anne Hutton,1998 This is a study of the nine prose fiction works of Christiane Rochefort written between 1958 and 1988 Despite establishment recognition and a popular mass market following Christiane Rochefort has hitherto received little critical attention Her fiction forms an approachable learning tool for all students of post war French politics and culture the bestseller Les Petits Enfants du Siecle is a set text in schools and universities in the UK and the USA This novel of growing up in the working class high rises of Paris written in the language of the streets provides a child centred view of a young girl's social political and sexual awakening The study looks at each novel in turn and applies close attention to the narrative sophistication and political subversion of the books Certain contemporary themes run through her work the status of children language as an instrument of oppression and subversion homosexuality incest and child abuse Each chapter of this book provides cultural and socio political background material Lesbian Ex-Lovers Esther D Rothblum,Jacqueline Weinstock,2014-06-11 We have earned a certain place in each other's lives and in the best of times we can rest on what we have made together Lesbian Ex Lovers The Really Long Term Relationships examines the need for the development of better understanding and more critical analysis of lesbian ex lover relationships This eye opening look into the minds and hearts of women offers personal insight into the possibilities for and potential pitfalls of lesbian ex lover relations This book contains personal stories fictional accounts poetry and theoretical analyses of the frequency and significance of ex lovers at different stages in a relationship Topics of interest in Lesbian Ex Lovers include the roles ex lovers play in our lives ex lovers as contexts for change and development how we continue to be influenced by ex lovers letting go and moving on ex lovers as current friends and family themes of betrayal and loss of faith reconstructing friendships and community the mystique of the ex lover friend family connections among lesbian ex lovers Rather than totally scrap a relationship we recycle it from lover to ex lover to friend in a relatively short half life Lesbian Ex Lovers is the only book in print that explores how a lesbian's ex lovers impact her subsequent romances and lifestyle This special collection adds a new dynamic to the current literature for and about the lesbian community Lesbian Ex Lovers offers advice anecdotes and interpretations from such authors poetesses and artists as Michelle Gibson PhD educator and editor of Femme Butch New Considerations of the Way We Want to Go who says goodbye to her lover in a sad passionate elegy Marny Hall Psychotherapist editor of the anthology Sexualities and author of several books including The Lavender Couch A Consumer's Guide to Psychotherapy for Lesbians and Gay Men who muses on the unique bonding between lesbians and their ex lovers lending a mystique that surrounds the lesbian lifestyle Alison Bechdel creator of the comic strip Dykes to Watch Out For who presents a humorous comic strip thanking her former lovers for teaching her about herself Jane Fatcher newspaper reporter and author of three novels who uses a chapter in her novel to illustrate the tensions that can occur when ex lovers choose to remain friends especially when those bonds provoke jealousy in both current and ex lovers Renny Christopher educator and award winning poetess who expresses her love loss and regret in three poems about her ex lover and much more

Difference In View: Women And Modernism Gabriele Griffin, 2003-09-02 This collection of essays challenges conceptions of high modernism its preoccupation with style at the expense of issues such as race class and gender and its exclusive focus both on predominately male writers poetry and prose fiction by highlighting the diversity of cultural production in the modernist period This book focusses specifically on women's cultural production covering a wide range of arts and genres including chapters on painting theatre and magazines The book investigates how women usually constructed as others themselves construct others in their work in a period prominently concerned with the construction of self as an issue This diversity offers a new format of reading modernism in a cross disciplinary context

Transforming the Disciplines Renee P Prys, Mary Jane Cherry, Susan Popham, Elizabeth L Macnabb, 2013-10-31 A jargon free non technical and easily accessible introduction to women's studies All too many students enter academia with the hazy idea that the field of women's studies is restricted to housework birth control and Susan B Anthony Their first encounter with a women's studies textbook is likely to focus on the history and sociology of women's lives While these topics are important the emphasis on them has led to neglect of equally important issues Transforming the Disciplines A Women's Studies Primer is one of the first women's studies textbooks to show feminist scholarship as an active force changing the way we study such diverse fields as architecture bioethics history mathematics religion and sports studies Although this text was designed as an introduction to women's studies it is also rewarding for upper level or graduate students who want to understand the pervasive effects of feminist theory Most chapters provide a bibliography or list of further reading of significant works Its clear jargon free prose makes feminist thought accessible to general readers without sacrificing the revolutionary power of its ideas In almost thirty essays covering a broad range of subjects from anthropology to chemistry to rhetoric Transforming the Disciplines exemplifies the changes achieved by feminist thought Transforming the Disciplines combines a high standard of writing and scholarship with personal insight includes both traditional academic arguments and alternative non agonistic forms of discussion embraces an international scope challenges traditional assumptions models and methodologies offers an inter and multidisciplinary approach strengthens readers understanding of the big picture not only for women but for all disempowered groups critiques feminism as well as patriarchal society Feminist theory is grounded in a questioning of traditional assumptions about what is right natural and self evident not just about the roles and nature of men and women but about how we think what we teach whose experience matters and what is important Transforming the Disciplines is the first textbook to show the consequences of those questions not the answers themselves but the consequences of the willingness to ask and the transformations that have occurred when the right answers changed Lesbian Configurations Renée C. Hoogland,1997 Library Journal

Constructing Feminine Poetics in the Works of a Late-20th-Century Catalan Woman Poet: Maria-Mercè Marçal Noèlia Díaz Vicedo,2014-03-12 This study focuses upon the work of the Catalan woman poet Maria Merc Mar al It analyses the interaction between body and language in her first five books of poetry Drawing on the Italian feminist thought of il pensiero della differenza sessuale it examines the ways in which Mar al s poetic images display her Catalan feminine subjectivity including the function of the poet the space of poetry and the representation of love It also explores the potentiality of the space of poetry to reconstruct female identity and reconfigure reality In addition it unravels the way in which the poet uses poetry to express the love for the other whilst also extending the boundaries of the self The central concern is to bridge the fissure between female experience and universal precepts on the art of poetry through the predominance of an embodied and natural iconography This study presents Mar al s poetic compositions within the international panorama of poetry and feminist studies and aims to open up new terrains of discussion in the field of language body and writing Literary Theory Julie Rivkin,Michael Ryan,2017-02-06 The new edition of this bestselling literary theory anthology has been thoroughly updated to include influential texts from innovative new areas including disability studies eco criticism and ethics Covers all the major schools and methods that make up the dynamic field of literary theory from Formalism to Postcolonialism Expanded to include work from Stuart Hall Sara Ahmed and Lauren Berlant Pedagogically enhanced with detailed editorial introductions and a comprehensive glossary of terms
