Sally Goes to Heaven ,2014 All Dogs Go to Heaven Suzanne Elizabeth Anderson, 2019-11-15 Henry was the first Newfoundland dog I adopted from rescue Then there was Georgie Charlie Kiki and now Buddy With Henry's passing Kiki and Buddy are a new generation of adopted Newfoundland dogs sharing my home Ten years of rescued dogs who have actually rescued me more times than I can count I never quite decided to write a book of essays about my dogs That is until I realized they were often central characters in the faith column I write for the Summit Daily News Which makes sense since living alone isn't a valid description of life with two or more 150 pound dogs This insight made me think more about what my dogs have taught me over the years and how they've made me a better person And they've helped me to understand what God wants me to know about being a better person There Are No Sad Dogs in Heaven Sonya Fitzpatrick, 2013-09-03 Our pets are part of the family For many they're as close as children for some they may be our only children And while most of us can expect that our children will outlive us sadly our pets almost never do Losing a pet can be as difficult as losing any other family member we grieve we miss them and mostly we want closure to know that our furry feathered or scaled friends are okay wherever they are For years animal communicator Sonya Fitzpatrick has helped pet owners cope with the loss of their beloved companions Many of them ask the same questions Is my pet happy Why did this happen Is it okay to get another pet Using her personal experiences as well as the stories of the families she s worked with Sonya sheds some light on the questions that every grieving pet owner has and assures the reader that there are in fact no sad dogs or cats or birds or turtles or horses or cows in heaven
