Heavyweight Championship:

The World Colored Heavyweight Championship, 1876-1937 Mark Allen Baker, 2020-08-25 For six decades the World Colored Heavyweight Championship was a useful tool of racial oppression the existence of the title far more important to the white public than its succession of champions It took some extraordinary individuals most notably Jack Johnson to challenge the color line in the ring although the title and the black fighters who contended for it continued until the reign of Joe Louis a generation later This history traces the advent and demise of the Championship the stories of the 28 professional athletes who won it and the demarcation of the color line both in and out of the ring When the Heavyweight Title Mattered John G. Robertson, 2019-06-11 The world heavyweight boxing championship once transcended the sport conferring global renown This book gives detailed coverage to five legendary championship bouts that captivated audiences worldwide Coaxed out of retirement by the press former champ James J Jeffries challenged black titleholder Jack Johnson universally despised by white audiences in 1910 in hopes of returning the title to the white race In 1921 dapper World War I hero and light heavyweight champion Georges Carpentier hoped to upset heavyweight champ Jack Dempsey widely considered a draft dodger in a fight that garnered the first million dollar gate In perhaps the most politically charged bout ever Brown Bomber Joe Louis popular with both white and black America faced Nazi Germany's Max Schmeling the first ever to win the title by disqualification at a sold out Yankee stadium in 1938 A relentless brawler undefeated Rocky Marciano in 1952 sought to bludgeon the title away from the more experienced and savvy Joe Walcott at 38 the oldest heavyweight champ in history In a monumental clash of two undefeated world champions Muhammad Ali on the comeback trail after his title was stripped from him for refusing to be drafted during the Vietnam War squared off with titleholder Joe Frazier in 1971 Focus On: 100 Most Popular WWE Hall of Fame Wikipedia contributors, Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. The Manly Art Keith G. Laufenberg,2014-05-19 The Manly Art is another collection of writer Keith G Laufenberg's short stories only this time with the defining factor being that they all involve the sport of boxing Having been in the sport himself beginning at age 17 when he entered Marine Corps boot camp and ending after seven years fought as a professional he is afforded a closer more intimate look into the boxers lives In Sonny Liston's Eyes the reader is taken into the Underworld of the sport when a writer interviews an ex mobster who is dying of lung cancer and claims to have killed Sonny Liston as well as JFK and Martin Luther King Jr He tells an incredible story but backs it up by saying he has absolutely verifiable evidence that he will produce for the writer In Frankenstein we see why a young amateur boxer should have picked boxing over football He has little say in the matter though as his father and uncle have trained him his entire life for football and it along with the other stories will keep you glued to the page Muhammad Ali Thomas Hauser,2016-06-04 Few global personalities have commanded an all encompassing sporting and cultural audience like Muhammad Ali Many have tried to interpret his impact and legacy into words Now Muhammad Ali A Tribute to the Greatest allows us to more fully appreciate the truth and understand both the man and the ways in which he helped recalibrate how the world perceives its transcendent figures In this celebratory volume New York Times bestselling author Thomas Hauser provides a compelling retrospective of Ali's life relying on personal insights interviews with close associates and other contemporaries and memories gathered over the course of decades on the cutting edge of boxing journalism Hauser explores Ali in colorful detail inside and outside the ring Muhammad Ali has attained mythical status But in recent years he has been subjected to an image makeover by corporate America as it seeks to homogenize the electrifying nature of his persona Hauser argues that there has been a deliberate distortion of what Ali believed said and stood for and that making Ali more presentable for advertising purposes by sanitizing his legacy is a disservice to history as well as to Ali himself Focus On: 100 Most Popular American
