The Columbia Guide to the Literatures of Eastern Europe Since 1945 Harold B. Segel, 2003 The Iron Curtain concealed from western eyes a vital group of national and regional writers Marked by not only geographical proximity but also by the shared experience of communism and its collapse the countries of Eastern Europe Poland Hungary Albania Romania Bulgaria and the former states of Yugoslavia Czechoslovakia and East Germany share literatures that reveal many common themes when examined together Compiled by a leading scholar the guide includes an overview of literary trends in historical context a listing of some 700 authors by country and an A to Z section of articles on the most influential writers

Lithuanian Philosophy Jurate Baranova, 2000 In-Between Empire Raymond Patton, 2024-10-17 Exploring how Polish writers positioned themselves as neither colonized nor colonizers In Between Empire analyses their literary works on empire during the 19th and 20th centuries to explore how they negotiated their in between position in the global imperial hierarchy Leveraging this vantage point they claimed the unique ability to represent the South to the West constructing a Polish national identity in conversation with both imperial and anti imperial currents and influencing international discourse on colonialism and its legacy Written at the nexus of historical and literary studies of imperial and colonial discourse Patton centres Poland and Eastern Europe in debates that have frequently excluded these perspectives Showing how these Polish writers attempted to portray anticolonial solidarity with non European victims of colonialism yet also employed European colonial tropes each writer demonstrated a distinctive ability to identify the tensions and flaws of imperialism whilst simultaneously reconciling those tensions to themselves as exceptional Europeans innocent of colonialism by alternating between metropolitan and peripheral perspectives In doing so they informed transnational discourses and policies on colonialism decolonization the Cold War and beyond
