CHALLENGES TO BOLD DISCIPLESHIP

Herschel H. Hobbs, pastor emeritus, First Baptist Church, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, is well known by pastors, teachers, and other Bible students. In this exposition, he states that Hebrews is basically a sermon, meaning that the author's purpose in writing is best revealed in his exhortations or applications rather than his arguments. The writer urges his readers to move from where they are to the achievement of the purpose for which God called them. Hobbs believes that the "author's exhortations had nothing to do with apostasy back into Judaism or a loss of redemption. They were challenges to go on in the fulfillment of their divinely given mission—to be a people of evangelism and missions. Thus this book did not speak merely to an ancient people about a problem of their time alone. It speaks to the followers of Christ in every age. It is a call to a world-mission today."

Akers, 2014-03-18 There are many devotional books available containing brief daily inspirations that benefit all who read them This book is different in two respects The first is obvious it contains two readings per day 732 in all The second more important difference is that the author wanted to do more than offer inspiration this would make this book no different than so many others The messages in the book are study sketches in that the content is not only inspirational but also educational challenging and encouraging Most of these writings were based on author Michael J Akers s teaching of adult Bible studies for more than thirty years and learning what really brought adults to want to deepen their knowledge and application of the Word of God ,
