Heeding The Call A Missionary Memoir:

Heeding the Call Grace L. Ingulsrud,1999-10-01 The Norwegian-American Lutheran Experience in 1950s Japan Kate Allen,John E. Ingulsrud,2015-12-15 Stepping Up to the Cold War Challenge The Norwegian American Lutheran Experience in 1950s Japan describes the events that led to the Evangelical Lutheran Church ELC an American Christian denomination to respond to General MacArthur s call for missionaries This Church did not initially respond but did so in 1949 only after their missionaries had been expelled from China due to the victory of communist forces on the mainland Because they feared Japan would also succumb to communism in less than ten years the missionaries evaded ecumenical cooperation and social welfare projects to focus on evangelism and establishing congregations Many of the ELC missionaries were children and grandchildren of Norwegian immigrants who had settled as farmers on the North American Great Plains Based on interview transcripts and other primary sources this book intimately describes the personal struggles of individuals responding to the call to be a missionary adjusting to life in Japan learning Japanese raising a family and engaging in mission work As the Cold War threat diminished and independence movements elsewhere were ending colonialism missionaries were compelled to change methods and attitudes The 1950s was a time when missionaries went out much in the same manner that they did in the nineteenth century Through the voices of the missionaries and their Japanese coworkers the book documents how many of the traditional missionary assumptions begin to be questioned MEMOIRS OF Missionary Priests Richard Challoner,1741 Memoirs of Missionary Priests and Other Catholics of Both Sexes Richard Challoner,1803 Memoirs of Missionary Priests and Other Catholics of Both Sexes that Have Suffered Death in England on Religious Accounts from the Year of Our Lord 1577 to 1684 Richard Challoner,1880 Memoirs of Missionary Priests as Well Secular as Regular and of Other Catholics of Both Sexes Richard Challoner,1924 Memoirs of Missionary Priests, ... and of other Catholics, ... that have suffered death in England, on religious accounts, from ... 1577 to 1684. By R. Challoner, Bishop of Debra Richard Challoner,1842 The Missionary Herald ,1895 Vols for 1828 1934 contain the Proceedings at large of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions The Missionary Herald at Home and Abroad ,1895 Nā Kahu Nancy J. Morris,Robert Benedetto,2019-04-30 Tracing the lives of some two hundred Native Hawaiian teachers preachers pastors and missionaries N Kahu provides new historical perspectives of the indigenous ministry in Hawai i These Christian emissaries were affiliated first with the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions and later with the Hawaiian Evangelical Association By the mid 1850s literate and committed Hawaiians were sailing to far reaches of the Pacific to join worldwide missionary endeavors Geographical locations ranged from remote mission stations in Hawai i including the Hansen s disease community at Kalaupapa the Marquesan Islands Micronesia fur trade settlements in Northwest America and the gold fields of California In their reports and letters the pastors and missionaries pour out their hopes and discouragements their psychological and physical pain and details of their everyday lives The first part of the book presents the biographies of nineteen young Hawaiians studying as messengers of Christianity in the remote New England town of Cornwall Connecticut along with heathen from other lands The second part the core of the book moves to Hawai i tracing the careers of pastors and missionaries as well as recognizing their intellectual and political endeavors There is also a discussion of the educational institutions established to train an indigenous ministry and the gradual acceptance of ordained Hawaiians as equals to their western counterparts Included in an appendix is the little known story of Christian ali i Hawaiian chiefs both men and women who contributed to the mission by lending their authority to the cause and by contributing land and labor for the construction of churches The biographies reveal the views of pastors on events leading to the overthrow of the Hawaiian Kingdom which brought about great divisions between the haole and Hawaiian ministry Many Hawaiian pastors who sided with the new Provisional Government and then the Republic were expelled by their own congregations loyal to the monarchy During the closing years of the century alternate forms of Christianity emerged and those pastors drawn to these syncretic faiths add their perspectives to the book Perhaps the most illuminating biographies are those in which the pastors give voice to a faith that blends traditional Hawaiian values with an emerging ecumenical Christianity Memoirs of Missionary Priests and Other Catholics of Both Sexes Richard Challoner,1877 Memoirs of

Joseph Sturge Henry Richard,1865 The Routledge History of Italian Americans William Connell,Stanislaw Pugliese,2017-09-27 The Routledge History of Italian Americans weaves a narrative of the trials and triumphs of one of the nation s largest ethnic groups This history comprising original essays by leading scholars and critics addresses themes that include the Columbian legacy immigration the labor movement discrimination anarchism Fascism World War II patriotism assimilation gender identity and popular culture This landmark volume offers a clear and accessible overview of work in the growing academic field of Italian American Studies Rich illustrations bring the story to life drawing out the aspects of Italian American history and culture that make this ethnic group essential to the American experience Literary Memoirs José Victorino Lastarria,2000-02-10 Jos Victorino Lastarria was of the first rank of Chilean and Spanish American intellectual and political figures of the nineteenth century Statesman novelist scholar activist and a leading figure of Chile s Generation of 1842 a significant intellectual movement of the last century so named for the founding of the National University he was at the center of all the intellectual struggles of his times Recuerdos Literarios or Literary Memoirs opens a window on the nineteenth century Chilean mind At once a chronicle a narrative an analysis and critique of literature and a deeply personal memoir Literary Memoirs is one man s testament to the process of cultural nation building In its pages which range from a detailed study of conditions that encouraged the launching of the Generation of 1842 to a record of the intellectual debates of mid nineteenth century Chile readers have found the genesis of Chilean literature and historiography For this new edition of Literary Memoirs Frederick Nunn s introduction provides informative historical background and R Kelly Washbourne s translation preserves intact the essence of Lastarria s form and content Beyond the Pulpit Lisa J. Shaver,2012-01-22 In the formative years of the Methodist Church in the United States women played significant roles as proselytizers organizers lay ministers and majority members Although women s participation helped the church to become the nation s largest denomination by the mid nineteenth century their official roles diminished during that time In Beyond the Pulpit Lisa Shaver examines Methodist periodicals as a rhetorical space to which women turned to find and make self meaning In 1818 Methodist Magazine first published memoirs that eulogized women as powerful witnesses for their faith on their deathbeds As Shaver observes it was only in death that a woman could achieve the status of minister Another Methodist publication the Christian Advocate was America s largest circulated weekly by the mid 1830s It featured the Ladies Department a column that reinforced the canon of women as dutiful wives mothers and household managers Here the church also affirmed women in the important rhetorical and evangelical role of domestic preacher Outside the Ladies Department women increasingly appeared in little narratives in which they were portrayed as models of piety and charity benefactors organizers Sunday school administrators and teachers missionaries and ministers assistants These texts cast women into nondomestic roles that were institutionally sanctioned and widely disseminated By 1841 the Ladies Repository and Gatherings of the West was engaging women in discussions of religion politics education science and a variety of intellectual debates As Shaver posits by providing a forum for women writers and readers the church gave them an official rhetorical space and the license to define their own roles and spheres of influence As such the periodicals of the Methodist church became an important public venue in which women s voices were heard and their identities explored

Missionary Men in the Early Modern World Ulrike Strasser, 2025-10-01 How did gender shape the expanding Jesuit enterprise in the early modern world What did it take to become a missionary man And how did missionary masculinity align itself with the European colonial project This book highlights the central importance of male affective ties and masculine mimesis in the formation of the Jesuit missions as well as the significance of patriarchal dynamics Focusing on previously neglected German actors Strasser shows how stories of exemplary male behavior circulated across national boundaries directing the hearts and feet of men throughout Europe toward Jesuit missions in faraway lands The sixteenth century Iberian exemplars of Ignatius of Loyola and Francis Xavier disseminated in print and visual media inspired late seventeenth century Jesuits from German speaking lands to bring Catholicism and European gender norms to the Spanish controlled Pacific The age of global missions hinged on the reproduction of missionary manhood in print and real life

Pacific Futures Warwick Anderson, Miranda Johnson, Barbara Brookes, 2018-11-30 How when and why has the Pacific been a locus for imagining different futures by those living there as well as passing through What does that tell us about the distinctiveness or otherwise of this sea of islands Foregrounding the work of leading and emerging scholars of Oceania Pacific Futures brings together a diverse set of approaches to and examples of how futures are being conceived in the region and have been imagined in the past Individual chapters engage the various and sometimes contested futures yearned for unrealized and even lost or forgotten that are particular to the Pacific as a region ocean island network destination and home Contributors recuperate the futures hoped for and dreamed up by a vast array of islanders and outlanders from Indigenous federalists to Lutheran improvers to Cantonese small business owners making these histories of the future visible In so doing the collection intervenes in debates about globalization in the Pacific and how the region is acted on by outside forces and postcolonial debates that emphasize the agency and resistance of Pacific peoples in the context of centuries of colonial endeavor With a view to the effects of the slow violence of climate change the volume also challenges scholars to think about the conditions of possibility for future thinking at all in the midst of a global crisis that promises cataclysmic effects for the region Pacific Futures highlights futures conceived in the context of a modernity coproduced by diverse Pacific peoples taking resistance to categorization as a starting point rather than a conclusion With its hospitable approach to thinking about history making and future thinking one that is open to a wide range of methodological epistemological and political interests and commitments the volume will encourage the writing of new histories of the Pacific and new ways of talking about history in this field the region and beyond

Grace Jantzen Professor Elaine L. Graham, 2013-06-28 Grace Jantzen was an internationally renowned feminist philosopher of religion whose work has transformed the way we think about the interactions between religion culture and gender in Western culture Jantzen's aim was to redeem the present via a critique and reconstruction of staple concepts of the Western imaginary This unique book brings together many of Grace Jantzen's colleagues and former students in a wide ranging exploration of her enduring influence ranging across philosophy of religion to literature psychoanalysis theology ethics and politics Part I assesses the ramifications of Jantzen's affirmation that Western culture must choose life in preference to a prevailing symbolic of violence and death Part II explores some of the key voices which contributed to Jantzen's understanding of a culture of flourishing and natality Quaker thought and practice medieval mysticism and feminist spirituality Further essays apply elements of Jantzen's work to the politics of disability development and environmentalism extending her range of influence into new and innovative areas

Tender Violence in US Schools Natalee Kēhaulani Bauer, 2022-11-23 Within educational research the over disciplining of Black and Indigenous students is most often presented as a problem located within pathologized or misunderstood communities That is theories and proposed solutions tend toward those that ask how we can make students of color from particular backgrounds more suited to US educational standards rather than questioning the racist roots of those standards Tender Violence in US Schools takes as a provocation this discipline gap in exploring a thus far unconsidered stance and asking how white women the majority of US teachers have historically understood their roles in the disciplining of Black and Indigenous students and how and why their role has been constructed over time and space in service to institutions of the white settler colonial state
