Hegemon Chinas Plan To Dominate Asia And The World:

Hegemon Steven Mosher, 2002 For centuries China had not only the largest population but also the most advanced economy and the strongest army on earth It saw itself as the Hegemon the ever expanding central power around which the world revolved Steven Mosher believes that China still sees itself in these terms In Hegemon Mosher shows how the quest for domination has been something like an art form in Chinese statecraft an enduring feature on the country s mysterious face that is often hidden from the west Hegemon is a masterly inquiry into the ideas at the heart of Chinese culture and history It is also as timely as today s headlines about Chinese efforts to influence U S elections and steal U S nuclear secrets and to establish China as a global superpower A major work of scholarship and analysis Hegemon reinforces Steven Mosher s reputation as one of our most thoughtful and provocative China Watchers Maps index biography China Goes Global David Shambaugh, 2013-01-18 Eminent China scholar David Shambaugh s China Goes Global is the sweeping synthesis of that nation s growing prominence on the world stage that we have been waiting for Thirty years ago China s role in global affairs beyond its immediate East Asian periphery was decidedly minor Its military was extremely weak and it had little geostrategic power As Shambaugh charts though China s expanding economic power has allowed it extend its reach and influence virtually everywhere After establishing the main precondition the astounding growth of the Chinese economy Shambaugh turns his focus to the manifestations of China s global ambitions its growing military power characterized best by its current pursuit of a blue water navy its increasing cultural influence i e soft power and its new prominence in global governance institutions like the G 20 He is no alarmist however Rather he will draw on his extremely deep knowledge of the subject to offer a balanced and well reasoned account of where China is now and where he thinks it is headed Chinese Foreign Relations Robert G. Sutter, 2010 A third edition of this book is now available This comprehensive and thoroughly updated introduction to Chinese foreign relations discerns the opportunities and limits China faces as it seeks increased international influence Tracing the record of twists and turns in Chinese foreign relations since the end of the Cold War Robert G Sutter provides a nuanced analysis that shows that despite popular perceptions of its growing power Beijing is hampered by both domestic and international constraints This text s balanced and meticulous assessment shows China s leaders exerting more influence in world affairs but remaining far from dominant Facing numerous contradictions and tradeoffs they move cautiously as they deal with a complex global environment Historical Dictionary of Chinese Foreign Policy Robert G. Sutter, 2011-05-05 The foreign relations of the People s Republic of China have gone through dramatic change since 1949 The strong man rule of Mao Zedong and the Chinese Communist Party leader s dominance of Chinese foreign policy decision making for three decades witnessed dramatic swings in alignment repeated and strong commitments to revolutionary goals and ideals and spasms of destructive mass campaigns within China that spilled over to impact Chinese foreign relations Contrastingly as China emerged in the 21st century as an economic and military power second only to the United States the new generations of Chinese leaders followed collaborative and consultative patterns of foreign policy making at home and abroad seeking to sustain into the coming decades the generally favorable recent international circumstances seen as providing a prolonged period of strategic opportunity for China's economic and broader national development

China Stands Up David Scott, 2007-05-21 Using a rich tapestry of sources and imagery ranging from governmental, media, academic, and popular settings, China Stands Up looks at relations and perceptions between the People's Republic of China and the international system since 1949 and into the future.

Geopolitics and the Great Powers in the 21st Century C. Dale Walton, 2007-06-11 This book argues that in the twenty-first century, Eastern Eurasia will replace Europe as the theatre of decision in international affairs, and that this new geographic and cultural context will have a strong influence on the future of world affairs. For half a millennium, the great powers have practised what might be called world politics; yet during that time, Europe and small portions of the Near East and North Africa, strategically vital to Europe, were the centres of gravity in international politics. This book argues that the unipolar moment of the post-Cold War era will not be replaced by a US-China Cold War, but rather by a long period of multipolarity in the twenty-first century. Examining the policy goals and possible military-political strategies of several powers, this study explains how Washington may play a key role in eastern Eurasian affairs if it can learn to operate in a very different political context. Dale Walton also considers the rapid pace of technological change and how it will impact on great power politics. Considering India, China, the US, Russia, Japan, and other countries as part of a multipolar system, he addresses the central questions that will drive US policy in the coming decades.

Geopolitics and the Great Powers in the 21st Century will be of interest to students of international security, military history, geopolitics, and international relations.

The End of Earth Philip N. Moore, 2024-11-01 In this eye-opening exploration, discover how Moses' ancient prophecies on Israel, the coming of Jesus, and the End Times have striking connections to modern-day events. Prepare to be astonished as you uncover the undeniable threads that tie together history's greatest mysteries with prophetic foresight. Is it coincidence, or is there a higher plan at work?

Historical Dictionary of Chinese Foreign Affairs Lawrence R. Sullivan, 2018-09-18 In an act of totally unnecessary and wanton destruction British forces in China during the Second Opium War 1856-1860 looted and destroyed much of the Old Imperial Summer Palace Yuanmingyuan including three imperial gardens and hundreds of halls pavilions and temples stock full of ancient artwork antiquities and literary works More than a hundred years later President Xi Jinping 2013 of the People's Republic of China PRC proclaimed the rejuvenation of the Chinese nation with the economic and especially military power to prevent any such recurrence of national humiliation Though not yet a superpower equal in global stature to the United States the PRC is undoubtedly poised to become the equal if not the superior power in the Asia Pacific region expanding its territorial claims in the South China Sea and asserting undisputed economic dominance With government business and academic leaders debating how regional and global powers should respond to a rising China Historical Dictionary of Chinese Foreign Affairs contains a chronology an introduction a glossary appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 300 cross-referenced entries on major events national institutions foreign nations and personages impacting Chinese foreign affairs along with the many institutions of the post World War II international order that the PRC has engaged especially since the 1970s This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Chinese foreign affairs

China's Foreign Aid and Investment Diplomacy, Volume I John F. Copper, 2016-04-29 Today by many accounts China is the world's foremost purveyor of foreign aid and foreign investment to developing countries This is the product of China's miracle economic growth over a period of more than three decades together with China's drive to become a major player in world affairs and accomplish this through economic rather than military means This three-volume work is the first comprehensive study of China's aid and investment strategy to trace how it has evolved since Beijing launched its foreign aid diplomacy at the time of the founding of the People's Republic of China in 1949 Volume I examines the definitions origins nature and scope of foreign aid and investment by other countries Using that background John F Copper then traces China's financial assistance to developing countries from the Mao period when China gave meaningful foreign aid despite its own economic struggles through the beginning of China's post 1978 economic boom and during subsequent decades of rapid economic growth Copper shows that China has a more salient history in giving foreign assistance than any other country in the world while China's objectives in giving foreign assistance have changed markedly over time China has always been driven by efforts to realize its foreign policy objectives and expand China's external influence

Good-Bye Hegemony! Simon Reich, Richard Ned Lebow, 2014-03-23 Many policymakers journalists and scholars insist that U S hegemony is essential for warding off global chaos Good Bye Hegemony argues that hegemony is a fiction propagated to support a large defense establishment justify American claims to world leadership and buttress the self esteem of voters It is also contrary to American interests and the global order Simon Reich and Richard Ned Lebow argue that hegemony should instead find expression in agenda setting economic custodianship and the sponsorship of global initiatives Today these functions are diffused through the system with European countries China and lesser powers making important contributions In contrast the United States has often been a source of political and economic instability Rejecting the focus on power common to American realists and liberals the authors offer a novel analysis of influence In the process they differentiate influence from power and power from material resources Their analysis shows why the United States the greatest power the world has ever seen is increasingly incapable of translating its power into influence Reich and Lebow use their analysis to formulate a more realistic place for America in world affairs

China's Military Modernization Richard D. Fisher, Jr., 2008-09-30 China's rise to global economic and strategic eminence with the potential for achieving pre-eminence in the greater Asian region is one of the defining characteristics of the post-Cold War period This work offers a basic understanding of the military strategic basis and trajectory of a rising China provides background and outlines current and future issues concerning China's rise in strategic military influence The next decade may witness China's assertion of military or strategic pressure on Japan the Korean Peninsula India the South China Sea the Taiwan Strait Central Asia or even on behalf of future allies in Africa and Latin America While conflict is not a foregone conclusion as indicated by China's increasing participation in many benign international organizations it is a fact that China's leadership will pursue its interests as it sees them which may not always coincide with those of the United States its friends and allies Until now no single volume has existed that provides an authoritative comprehensive and concise description of China's evolving geo strategy or of how China is transforming its military to carry out this strategy Fisher examines how China's People's Liberation Army (PLA) remains critical to the existence of the Chinese Communist government and looks at China's political and military actions designed to protect its expanded strategic interests in both the Asia Pacific and Central to Near Asian regions Using open sources including over a decade of unique interview sources Fisher documents China's efforts to build a larger nuclear force that may soon be protected by missile defenses modern high technology systems for space air and naval forces and how China is now beginning to assemble naval air and ground forces for future power projection missions His work also examines how the United States and other governments simultaneously seek greater engagement with China on strategic concerns while hedging against its rising power Although China faces both internal and external constraints on its rise to global eminence it cannot be denied that China's government is pursuing a far-reaching strategic agenda

China's Maritime and Other Geographic Threats United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs. Subcommittee on Europe, Eurasia, and Emerging Threats, 2014

Chinese State Owned Enterprises in West Africa Katy Ngan Ting Lam, 2016-12-08 This book investigates the globalization process of Chinese state-owned enterprises (SOEs) in West Africa primarily in Benin and Ghana based on ethnographical studies It challenges the dominant vision of a powerful China in Africa and argues that the so-called Chinese business advantages monolithic Chinese state and Chinese low-cost advantages are non-viable for sustaining Chinese business development in the continent Considering the Chinese SOEs globalization process in a relational approach this book examines how the triple embeddedness Chinese African and managerial shapes the Chinese SOEs globalization process over time and space in diverse dimensions and among different entities the Chinese state

Chinese SOEs Chinese expatriates the African government African business partners African staff and the African society It illustrates that the Chinese central state has retreated deliberately from its SOE globalization in Africa The Chinese SOEs and Chinese expats are the major actors in initiating and inventing globalization strategies facing limited Chinese state support and the African neopatrimonial governance and social contexts Besides the personal trajectories from expatriation to social promotion of Chinese SOE expats interweave with the globalization turn localization of their SOEs in Africa Rejecting the linear static and binary vision of powerful China in powerless Africa the present study thus emphasizes power dynamics in Chinese SOEs globalization process are organic and pluralistic though in certain extent hierarchical second class Time and local relations are key elements constituting the real Chinese advantages for Chinese SOEs vis a vis their ultimate competitors not Western companies but other Chinese companies
