Hegemony Of Homogeneity An Anthropological Analysis Of Nihonjinron:

Hegemony of Homogeneity Harumi Befu, 2001 Nihonjinron is the Japanese term for Japanese national character or the way the Japanese characterize themselves Befu a bilingual anthropologist who has studied Japan for 40 years examines hundreds of original Japanese sources and argues that Nihonjinron is a civil religion for the Japanese and that it responds to the country's political and economic environment Befu is professor emeritus at Stanford University and has taught at universities in Japan Europe and Latin America The book is distributed by ISBS c Book News Inc Japan's Diversity Dilemmas Soo im Lee, Stephen Murphy-Shigematsu, Harumi Befu, 2006 Japan's Diversity Dilemmas Ethnicity Citizenship and Education reveals how Japanese society is now in the midst of dramatic transformation brought on by demographic change and globalization Foreigners are coming to Japan and many more will come in the near future to meet the demands of an economy that needs workers to compensate for an extremely low birth rate The ramifications of this influx of foreigners into a society that has based its identity on a mythical ethnic purity are enormous This book examines the effects of globalization on both new and older ethnic communities It shows the ways in which minorities in particular Koreans are changing their conceptions and practices regarding nationality It explores issues of human rights and emerging conceptions of citizenship in Japan It also looks at how forces of globalization are affecting the state ideology of homogeneity and how a new image of diversity and multiculturalism is slowly developing Several authors focus their attention on implications for education in citizenship education ethnic education and international education Japan's Diversity Dilemmas is not just about minorities but addresses issues of diversity that impact Japan as a nation in three areas ethnicity citizenship and education As the population diversifies the linking of ethnicity and citizenship is being challenged and education is a battleground where these struggles occur This collection of papers by an interdisciplinary group of authors helps readers to understand Japan's evolving conceptions of the nation and its attempts to balance tensions of unity and diversity Japan's Diversity Dilemmas looks at precisely the kind of issues that need examination and discussion as Japan stands on the cusp of potentially huge demographic and social changes This collection of studies will enrich and inform classroom and public discourse and those who follow these issues will find this book essential Sharon Noguchi San Jose Mercury News and former Fulbright Fellow University of Tokyo Japan's Minorities Michael Weiner, 2009 Examining the ways in which the Japanese have manipulated historical memory the contributors reveal the presence of an underlying concept of Japaneseness that excludes members of the principal minority groups in Japan The Cambridge Companion to Modern Japanese Culture Yoshio Sugimoto, 2009-06-30 This Companion provides a comprehensive overview of the influences that have shaped modern day Japan Spanning one and a half centuries from the Meiji Restoration in 1868 to the beginning of the twenty first century this volume covers topics such as technology food nationalism and rise of anime and manga in the visual arts The Cambridge Companion to Modern Japanese Culture traces the cultural transformation that took place over the course of the twentieth century and paints a picture of a nation rich in cultural diversity With contributions from some of the most prominent scholars in the field The Cambridge Companion to Modern Japanese Culture is an authoritative introduction to this subject

The Making of Modern Japan Myles Carroll, 2021-10-18 In The Making of Modern Japan Myles Carroll offers a sweeping account of post war Japanese political economy exploring the transition from the post war boom to the crisis of today and the connections between these seemingly discrete periods Carroll explores the multifarious international and domestic political economic social and cultural conditions that fortified Japan's post war hegemonic order and enabled decades of prosperity and stability Yet since the 1990s a host of political economic social and cultural changes has left this same hegemonic order out of step with the realities of the contemporary world a contradiction that has led to three decades of crisis in Japanese society Can Japan make the bold changes required to reverse its decline

Language-in-education Policies Anthony J. Liddicoat, 2013-04-08 This book examines the ideological underpinnings of language in education policies that explicitly focus on adding a new language to the learners existing repertoire It examines policies for foreign languages immigrant languages indigenous languages and external language spread Each of these contexts provides for different possible relationships between the language learner and the target language group and shows how in different polities different understandings influence how policy is designed The book develops a theoretical account of language policies as discursive constructions of ideological positions and explicates how ideologies are developed through an examination of case studies from a range of countries Each chapter in this book takes the form of a series of three in depth case studies in which policies relating to a particular area of language in education policy are examined Each case examines the language of policy texts from a critical perspective to deconstruct how intercultural relationships are projected

Divided Fates Kazuko Suzuki, 2016-05-12 Winner ASA Book Award on Asia Transnational 2017 This book compares the Korean diasporic groups in Japan and the United States It highlights the contrasting adaptation of Koreans in Japan and the United States and illuminates how the destinies of immigrants who originally belonged to the same ethnic national collectivity diverge depending upon destinations and how they are received in a certain state and society within particular historical contexts The author finds that the mode of incorporation a specific combination of contextual factors rather than ethnic culture and race plays a decisive role in determining the fates of these Korean immigrant groups In other words what matters most for immigrants integration is not their particular cultural background or racial similarity to the dominant group but the way they are received by the host state and other institutions Thus this book is not just about Korean immigrants it is also about how contexts of reception including different conceptualizations of race in relation to nationhood affect the adaptation of immigrants from the same ethnic national origin

Japan in Crisis B. Youngshik, T. Pempel, 2013-09-18 This volume stemming from the Asan Institute for Policy Studies observes that for Japan to rise again would mean recovery not only from the triple disaster the March 2011 earthquake tsunami and nuclear meltdown but from 20 plus years of economic stagnation political fumbling and deterioration in Japan's regional and global influence Crafting Rural Japan Shilla Lee, 2024-10-22 This book discusses the place of creative village policy in the revitalisation of rural Japan highlighting how rural Japan is moving from a state of regional extinction to regional rejuvenation Using the case study of Tamba Sasayama in Hyogo Prefecture where collective initiatives by local government and the role of the local traditional potters are invested in fostering an aura of creativity in the region the book examines the complex social relations and the intertwining values of different actors to illustrate how a growing outlook on creativity rurality and rural creativity requires a renewed perspective on and of rural Japan Based on extensive field research this book will be a valuable resource for students and scholars of Japanese studies rural studies and anthropology A Transnational Critique of Japaneseness Yuko Kawai, 2020-12-10 In this book Yuko Kawai departs from the common conception of Japan as an ethnically homogenous nation A Transnational Critique of Japaneseness Cultural Nationalism Racism and Multiculturalism in Japan investigates the construction of Japaneseness from a transnational perspective examining ways to make Japanese nationhood more inclusive Kawai analyzes a variety of communicational practices during the first two decades of the twenty first century while situating Japaneseness in its longer historical transformation from the late nineteenth century Kawai focuses on governmental and popular ideas of Japaneseness in light of local global historical and contemporary contexts as well as in relation to a diverse array of Others in both Asia and the West Asian Migrations Tony Fielding, 2015-07-16 This textbook describes and explains the complex reality of contemporary internal and international migrations in East Asia Taking an interdisciplinary approach Tony Fielding combines theoretical debate and detailed empirical analysis to provide students with an understanding of the causes and consequences of the many types of contemporary migration flows in the region Key features of Asian Migrations Comprehensive coverage of all forms of migration including labour migration student migration marriage migration displacement and human trafficking Text boxes containing key concepts and theories More than 30 maps and diagrams Equal attention devoted to broad structures e.g. political economy and individual agency e.g. migration behaviours Emphasis on the conceptual and empirical connections between internal and international migrations Exploration of the policy implications of the trends and processes discussed Written by an experienced scholar and teacher of migration studies this is an essential text for courses on East Asian migrations and mobility and important reading for courses on international migration and Asian societies more generally Insight Turkey / Winter 2024 - Asia Anew Revisited Alaeddin Tekin, Ali Can Yenice, Arshad Islam, Blerim Sallahu, Burhanettin Duran, Ensar Kıvrak, Ferhat Çağrı Aras, Firdan Fadlan Sidik, Gökhan Kavak, Gürol Baba, H. Sönmez Ateşoğlu, Hasan İlkbahar, İshak Turan, K. Ali Akkemik, Kemal İnat, Kohei Imai, Mehmet Ali Şengil, Mujib Alam, Nancy Snow, Neslihan Tezcan, Nkosi Zwelivelile Mandlesizwe Dalibhunga Mandela, Norma Hashim, Nuh Yılmaz, Reena Marwah, Soner Doğan, Swaran Singh, Yunhee Kim, Since the early 2000s almost every great middle and even small power has developed a tendency to deepen their relations in the Asia Pacific region This tendency is also valid regarding international and regional organizations In addition to state actors non state and even sub state actors have assigned a certain value to this region in their strategic calculations With such a tilt Asia Pacific actors have become a focal point of global politics The increasing significance of the region has been boosted by the rising Asian powers such as China India Japan Australia South Korea and Indonesia With all this dynamism extra regional actors have increased their economic political strategic and cultural investments in Asia Pacific This rise in the region s multileveled value has led regionalism oriented IR researchers to develop the concept of the Asian Century T rkiye has a peculiar position and significance in this regard combining the West and the non West in many respects Unlike the Cold War and early post Cold War times the world especially the Asia Pacific world is not composed of only two vectors the West and the non West but several spanning into a variety of directions This multi vectorial reality of inter non state affairs fits into T rkiye s ambitions in its foreign policy The Cold War label of T rkiye i e the staunch ally of the West is no longer completely valid T rkiye of today is much more than that The Western alliance is only an aspect of T rkiye whose substance has been amalgamated by Ankara s developing relations with other regions and sub regions of the globe including Asia Pacific T rkiye s search for political strategic clout in other regions has led Ankara to conceptualize and announce the most comprehensive and official foreign policy approach towards the Asia Pacific region yet known as the Asia Anew Initiative This shows that T rkiye is not an exception to the above stated powers that gave this region a central place in their strategic calculations The initiative is predominantly multifaceted at its core which aims to eliminate the asymmetries between T rkiye and Asian actors in both strategic and commercial terms By increasing the engagement and cooperation with these actors T rkiye aims to utilize its advantage in the sectors that it has considerable advantages in such as tourism conventional defense technology and construction together with the ones in which it has emerging improvement such as high tech finance infrastructure and energy transport T rkiye s additional connotation regarding Asia Pacific is in geocultural terms Due to its historical and religious background T rkiye has many ties with Pakistan Bangladesh South Korea Muslim communities of India and to an extent Afghanistan This has been an important channel that Turkish state and non state actors have experienced in deepening their relations in the region T rkiye s soft power and diplomacy have also utilized such cultural affinity Links tracing back to the 15th century of the Ottoman era has aided T rkiye s influence in South and Southeast Asia A clear empirical indication of such influence is the popularity of Turkish culture history oriented television serials within these communities Thus geocultural impact not only boosts T rkiye s visibility and weight in the region but also helps it to be relevant in the non Western and multiple directional vectors of the Asia Pacific politico economic fabric An additional element of T rkiye s engagement in the region is that it tries to utilize almost any type of lateralism i e multilateralism minilateralism and bilateralism Ankara is trying to be a member of the Shanghai Cooperation Organization and has put forward its intention to join the Association of Southeast Asian Nations It has also created MIKTA a transregional partnership grouping with its like minded partners from the region More importantly it has been developing a whole range of bilateralisms with Asia Pacific countries regardless of their power statuses Another very significant element of T rkiye s engagement with the region is its focus on Asia Pacific communities Various Turkish state institutions the Turkish Cooperation and Coordination Agency T KA the Presidency of Religious Affairs Diyanet and the T rkiye scholarships program of the Presidency for Turks Abroad and Related Communities YTB have been developing T rkiye s people to people links through strategic and sustainable communication and promoting the country s national brand Although there is an obvious increase in T rkiye s engagement with Asia Pacific it is still early to assert its prominence in the region However this is not only a result of T rkiye s current capabilities but the parameters of competition that must be navigated with the global powers competing and cooperating in the region T rkiye in this sense would require more cooperative patterns with like minded powers to increase its influence and boost its partners strength Asia Pacific is not a hassle free region and currently T rkiye has a limited impact in this challenging ecosystem On the other hand developing multifaceted relations especially with culturally and historically proximate sub regions will increase T rkiye s visibility and impact With the above stated awareness and engagements T rkiye s visibility and economic significance in the Asia Pacific will significantly increase over time One very formidable catalyst for this would be its cultural and historical ties with Central Asia South Asia and Southeast Asia which have already been transforming into commercial and political strategic outcomes The current edition of Insight Turkey is dedicated to the exploration of bilateral relations between T rkiye and Far Eastern countries within the context of the Asia Anew Initiative The winter issue features a commentary and six research articles on this subject providing a comprehensive analysis of the topic Moreover the issue includes four off topic comments and two research articles that lie outside the main theme Among these two articles shed light on the current Gaza genocide ongoing since October 7 The commentary section opens with a perceptive analysis by Nuh Y lmaz on T rkiye s foreign policy toward Asia In his commentary Y lmaz examines T rkiye s general perspective on the Asian continent and discusses the basic dynamics of the initiative According to his analysis there has been a significant shift in the global balance of power with Atlantic Asia emerging as a rising force in politics military culture and especially in economy This transformation of the Asian continent prompted T rkiye to launch the Asia Anew Initiative in 2019 which presents a comprehensive and systematic vision for Asia Y lmaz delves into T rkiye s general perspective on the Asian continent and the key dynamics of this initiative Furthermore the initial research article authored by G rol Baba as the guest editor centers on T rkiye s strategies and its Asia Anew Initiative Through his work Baba endeavors to illustrate that within the Asian framework T rkiye has the capability to not only be pragmatic but also achieve efficiency by implementing a diverse foreign policy approach He argues that T rkiye s application of multi vectorism to its foreign policy in Asia is more successful than multilateralism or minilateralism policies This is because there is much more than the two traditional vectors West and non West due to the current intra regional fragmentations and deviations in Asia Baba embodied the success of bilateral relations in Asia by giving examples from some countries Following Baba s outline of T rkiye s approach to its Asian policy the second research article penned by Mujib Alam delves into the complex nature of T rkiye India relations between 2000 and 2023 Alam s analysis spans diplomatic economic scientific and cultural exchanges offering a comprehensive view of their bilateral engagements Despite different stances on issues such as Kashmir and Cyprus Alam points out a trend towards improvement in relations especially economic relations and cultural exchanges driven by the foreign policy trends of the ruling parties of the two countries The third research article by Kohei Imai examines the bilateral relations between T rkiye and Japan which will soon celebrate their 100th anniversary in 2024 Imai delves into the historical relationship between the two nations which while positive lacked a tangible cooperative partnership He carefully considers the diplomatic challenges and public perspectives that Japan encounters and identifies opportunities for both countries to pursue more practical collaborations moving forward In the next research article Alaeddin Tekin and Arshad Islam focus on Malaysia shedding light on T rkiye s relationship with another Southeast Asian country In research articles based on primary sources including Ottoman and Turkish archives as well as Bahasa Melayu and English materials Tekin and Islam aim to investigate historical and current relations between Turks and Malays Another research article on the subject written by Yunhee Kim tries to examine veteran diplomacy through the example of T rkiye and draws from the different historical examples of the Korean War Claiming that veteran diplomacy can be used as an opportunity to expand South Korea s soft power in the new public diplomacy era of the 21st century Kim also argues that this diplomacy paves the way for security cooperation in the context of T rkiye South Korea relations Ali Akkemik who deals with T rkiye s relations with East Asia from the economic dimension in the next research article states that their economic relations have undergone a significant structural change in the last twenty years According to Akkemik while Japan previously dominated T rkiye s trade with East Asia and the flow of direct foreign investment from East Asia to T rkiye recently both South Korea and China have surpassed Japan as T rkiye s main trading partners in East Asia and have caught up with Japan in terms of foreign investments in T rkiye Moreover in this issue we address the grave humanitarian crisis stemming from the conflict in Gaza Specifically two commentaries focus on the tragic events unfolding since October 7 Nkosi Zwelivelile Mandelsizwe Dalibhunga Mandela offers an analysis of South Africa s response to Israel s actions against the Palestinian people focusing on their legal recourse at the International Court of Justice He draws comparisons between Israel s treatment of Palestinians and South Africa s apartheid era underscoring the deep ties of solidarity between these communities and the essential role of global unity accountability and concerted efforts in promoting justice and equality Additionally Norma Hashim provides a unique perspective by focusing on the plight of prisoners and hostages in Gaza arguing that Palestinian prisoners are central to the narrative of the genocide initiated on October 7 She delves into their importance within the Palestinian national movement and shares the personal stories of some of these prisoners highlighting their significance in the context of the ongoing crisis in Gaza In other off topic commentary S nmez Ate o lu has written a commentary as a continuation of the research article Economic Power and International Security he previously published in Insight Turkey While Nancy Snow has provided a commentary in which she discusses the national brand of Japan where she lived for many years In his previously published research article Ate o lu explains in detail the impact of economic power on international security and the connection between economic and military power but claims that the security dimension is not sufficiently addressed Therefore in this commentary the author aims to explain the impact of military power on international security especially in the context of T rkiye and how a state can achieve its security goals by using military force On the other hand Nancy Snow explores the evolution of Japan s national brand analyzing the transition from historical isolation to its current global recognition especially under the influence of Shinzo Abe s policies The winter issue broadens its scope with two research articles that venture beyond the main theme Blerim Sallahu s contribution opens this segment with an in depth exploration of the modalities for acquiring citizenship in Kosovo Following this Kemal nat and Burhanettin Duran assess the Ukrainian war s profound repercussions on the global order scrutinizing the intricate position and consequential influence of T rkiye situated uniquely as both a neighbor to Russia and an ally of the U S within this complex geopolitical landscape This latest special edition of Insight Turkey meticulously explores the evolving dynamics of T rkiye s engagement with East Asia under the ambit of the Asia Anew Initiative This edition is distinguished by a series of foundational articles that provide a thorough overview of the initiative alongside in depth analyses of T rkiye s bilateral relationships with key Asian nations We trust that the comprehensive discussions and diverse perspectives presented in this issue will offer our readers valuable insights and deepen their understanding of the intricate geopolitical landscape Subverting Exclusion Andrea Geiger,2011-11-29

Concerned with people called variously eta burakumin buraku jumin buraku people outcastes or the lowest of the low this book examines how their experience of caste status based discrimination in 19th century Japan affected their experience of race based discrimination in the West of the US and Canada in the 19th and early 20th centuries Immigrant Japan Gracia Liu-Farrer,2020-04-15 Immigrant Japan Sounds like a contradiction but as Gracia Liu Farrer shows millions of immigrants make their lives in Japan dealing with the tensions between belonging and not belonging in this ethno nationalist country Why do people want to come to Japan Where do immigrants with various resources and demographic profiles fit in the economic landscape How do immigrants narrate belonging in an environment where they are other at a time when mobility is increasingly easy and belonging increasingly complex Gracia Liu Farrer illuminates the lives of these immigrants by bringing in sociological geographical and psychological theories guiding the reader through life trajectories of migrants of diverse backgrounds while also going so far as to suggest that Japan is already an immigrant country Globalization and Development in East Asia Jan Nederveen Pieterse,Jongtae Kim,2012 East Asia is widely regarded as the main winner in contemporary globalization unscathed by the economic crisis of 2008 with its leading new industrializing nations and emerging economies While twentieth century globalization was mainly led by the West the twenty first century is ushering in different dynamics The re emergence of Asia involves alternative visions of the world and different perspectives on globalization This volume seeks to address these dimensions turning to local reflexivities notably in South Korea and China to explore the key debates in sociology and political economy within East Asia rather than from an outside view Focus: Music in Contemporary Japan Jennifer Milioto Matsue,2015-07-16 Focus Music in Contemporary Japan explores a diversity of musics performed in Japan today ranging from folk song to classical music the songs of geisha to the screaming of underground rock with a specific look at the increasingly popular world of taiko ensemble drumming Discussion of contemporary musical practice is situated within broader frames of musical and sociopolitical history processes of globalization and cosmopolitanism and the continued search for Japanese identity through artistic expression It explores how the Japanese have long negotiated cultural identity through musical practice in three parts Part I Japanese Music and Culture provides an overview of the key characteristics of Japanese culture that inform musical performance such as the attitude towards the natural environment changes in ruling powers dominant religious forms and historical processes of cultural exchange Part II Sounding Japan describes the elements that distinguish traditional Japanese music and then explores how music has changed in the modern era under the influence of Western music and ideology Part III Focusing In Identity Meaning and Japanese Drumming in Kyoto is based on fieldwork with musicians and explores the position of Japanese drumming within Kyoto It focuses on four case studies that paint a vivid picture of each respective site the music that is practiced and the pedagogy and creative processes of each group The downloadable resources include examples of Japanese music that illustrate specific elements and key genres introduced in the text A companion website includes additional audio visual sources discussed in detail in the text Jennifer Milioto Matsue is an Associate Professor at Union College and specializes in modern Japanese music and culture Revitalization and Internal Colonialism in Rural Japan Timo Thelen,2022-04-04 This book explores the decline of rural and peripheral areas in Japan which results from an aging population outmigration of the younger generations and the economic decline of the primary sector Based on extensive original research the book examines in detail the case of the Noto peninsula Allowing the locals to tell their stories describe their problems and come up with possible solutions the book demonstrates the serious impact of rural decline on their daily life and work and highlights the struggle to sustain rural living in the globalized age It argues that some recent innovations in global media economy technology and ideology offer scope for reversing the decline as some central government initiatives do but that these are not always noticed appreciated and made use of by local people The book also discusses the nature of the links between the peripheries and the centres regional national and global and how these often take the form of internal colonialism Global Historical Sociology of Race and Racism Alexandre I.R. White,Katrina Quisumbing King,2021-09-30 In this volume of Political Power and Social Theory a special collection of papers reconsiders race and racism from global and historical perspectives Together these articles serve as an entry point for sharpening our sociological understandings of how racism operates in current times Handbook of Asian Education Yong Zhao, Jing Lei, Guofang Li, Ming Fang He, Kaori Okano, Nagwa Megahed, David Gamage, Hema Ramanathan, 2010-11-30 Comprehensive and authoritative this Handbook provides a nuanced description and analysis of educational systems practices and policies in Asian countries and explains and interprets these practices from cultural social historical and economic perspectives Using a culture based framework the volume is organized in five sections each devoted to educational practices in one civilization in Asia Sinic Japanese Islamic Buddhist and Hindu Culture and culture identities essentially are civilization identities the major differences among civilizations are rooted in their different cultures This framework offers a novel approach to capturing the essence of the diverse educational systems and practices in Asia Uniquely combining description and interpretation of educational practices in Asia this Handbook is a must have resource for education researchers and graduate students in international and comparative education globalization and education multicultural education sociocultural foundations of education and Asian studies and for educational administrators and education policy makers Yasukuni

Fundamentalism Mark R. Mullins, 2021-07-31 Although religious fundamentalism is often thought to be confined to monotheistic religions of the book this study examines the emergence of a fundamentalism rooted in the Shinto tradition and considers its role in shaping postwar Japanese nationalism and politics Over the past half century the Liberal Democratic Party LDP and the National Association of Shrines NAS have been engaged in collaborative efforts to recover or restore what was destroyed by the process of imperialist secularization during the Allied Occupation of Japan Since the disaster years of 1995 and 2011 LDP Diet members and prime ministers have increased their support for a political agenda that aims to revive patriotic education renationalize Yasukuni Shrine and revise the constitution The contested nature of this agenda is evident in the critical responses of religious leaders and public intellectuals and in their efforts to preserve the postwar gains in democratic institutions and prevent the erosion of individual rights This timely treatment critically engages the contemporary debates surrounding secularization in light of postwar developments in Japanese religions and sheds new light on the role religion continues to play in the public sphere
