Heinemann Of African Poetry In English:

The Heinemann Book of African Poetry in English Adewale Maja-Pearce, 1990 This anthology represents some of the best African poetry written in English in the last 30 years The poets include Wole Soyinka Dennis Brutus Kojo Laing Chenjerai West African Poetry Robert Fraser, 1986-09-04 Previous studies of African poetry have Hove and Gabriel Gbadamosi tended to concentrate either on its political content or on its relationship to various European schools This book examines West African poetry in English and French against the background of oral poetry in the vernacular Do the roots of such poetry lie in Africa or in Europe In committing their work to writing do poets lose more than they gain Can the immediacy of oral performance ever be recovered Robert Fraser's account of two centuries of West African verse examines its subjugation to a succession of international styles from the heroic couplet to the austerity of experimental Modernism Successive chapters take us through the N gritude movement and the emergence of anglophone free verse in the 1950s to the rediscovery in recent years of the neglected springs of orality which is the subject of the concluding chapter Heinemann Book of African Women's Poetry Stella Chipasula, Frank Mkalawile Chipasula, 1995 This first major anthology of African women s poetry offers an extensive selection of poetry by women all over the African continent Granger's Guide to Poetry Anthologies William A. Katz, Linda Sternberg Katz, Esther Crain, 1994 Reference guide to poetry anthologies with descriptions and evaluations of each anthology Modern African Poetry and the African Predicament Romanus N. Egudu, 1978-10-12 A Companion to Twentieth-Century Poetry Neil Roberts, 2008-06-09 In the twentieth century more people spoke English and more people wrote poetry than in the whole of previous history and this Companion strives to make sense of this crowded poetical era The original contributions by leading international scholars and practising poets were written as the contributors adjusted to the idea that the possibilities of twentieth century poetry were exhausted and finite However the volume also looks forward to the poetry and readings that the new century will bring The Companion embraces the extraordinary development of poetry over the century in twenty English speaking countries a century which began with a bipolar transatlantic connection in modernism and ended with the decentred heterogeneity of post colonialism Representation of the canonical and the marginal is therefore balanced including the full integration of women poets and feminist approaches and the in depth treatment of post colonial poets from various national traditions Discussion of context intertextualities and formal approaches illustrates the increasing self consciousness and self reflexivity of the period whilst a Readings section offers new readings of key selected texts The volume as a whole offers critical and contextual coverage of the full range of English language poetry in the last century The Penguin Book of Modern African Poetry Gerald Moore, 2007-08-30 Poetry always foremost of the arts in traditional Africa has continued to compete for primacy against the newer forms of prose fiction and theatre drama This wonderfully comprehensive anthology of African poetry has been expanded to include ninety nine poets from twenty seven countries thirty one of whom appear for the first time Equally wide ranging is the content of the poetry itself war songs and political protests jostle with poems about human love African nature and the surprises that life offers all are represented in these rich and colourful pages Poetry and the Aesthetics of Commitment in South African Literature David Olusegun Agbaje, Ph.D,2024-03-01 What is literature What is poetry How do poets committed to the idea of using poetry as a weapon of socio cultural and political struggle manage to impress their works in the minds and memories of men long after the struggle has been fought and won or lost What will a new generation of poets write about after the explosive social contradictions that inspired older poets have been resolved Why do the themes and styles of poets in transitional societies change along with human fortunes and circumstances This book provides answers to these questions and more using the poetic heritage of South Africa It is a compelling pedagogic work a must read for every student researcher and teacher of African poetry and a collector s item for the general public

Postcolonial African Writers Siga Fatima Jagne, Pushpa Naidu Parekh, 2012-11-12 This reference book surveys the richness of postcolonial African literature The volume begins with an introductory essay on postcolonial criticism and African writing then presents alphabetically arranged profiles of some 60 writers including Chinua Achebe Nadine Gordimer Bessie Head Doris Lessing Tsitsi Dangarembga Tahbar Ben Jelloun among others Each entry includes a brief biography a discussion of major works and themes that appear in the author's writings an overview of the critical response to the author's work and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources These profiles are written by expert contributors and reflect many different perspectives. The volume concludes with a selected general bibliography of the most important critical works on postcolonial African literature.

African Literature in French Dorothy S. Blair, 1976-11-18 This 1976 book provides both a historical survey and a critical analysis of the literature in French from West and Equatorial Africa Professor Blair begins by discussing the social educational and political influences which led to the formation of the Negritude movement and to a flowering of French African creative writing This historical approach is then complemented by a study of the different literary genres She traces the evolution of the first manifestations of literary activity in French by African writers the written folk tale fable and short story from the oral tradition of the indigenous culture and the eventual appearance of the novel with a legendary or historical theme The origins of French African drama are considered for the first time and the work of the minor poets analysed Finally Professor Blair attempts a definition of the French African novel and studies examples from three major periods from the 1930s onwards Afrikaans Literature: Recollection, Redefinition, Restitution, 2023-12-14 Matatu is a journal on African literatures and societies dedicated to interdisciplinary dialogue between literary and cultural studies historiography the social sciences and cultural anthropology Matatu is animated by a lively interest in African culture and literature including the Afro Caribbean that moves beyond worn out clich's of cultural authenticity and national liberation towards critical exploration of African modernities The East African public transport vehicle from which Matatu takes its name is both a component and a symbol of these modernities based on Western these days usually Japanese technology it is a vigorously African institution it is usually regarded with some anxiety by those travelling in it but is often enough the only means of transport available it creates temporary communicative communities and provides a transient site for the exchange of news storytelling and political debate Matatu is firmly committed to supporting democratic change in Africa to providing a forum for interchanges between African and European critical debates to overcoming notions of absolute cultural ethnic or religious alterity and to promoting transnational discussion on the future of African societies in a wider world Matatu will be published as journal as of 2016 All back volumes are still available in print Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff, R R Bowker Publishing, 1996-09 Comparative Studies in African Dirge Poetry Gloria Monica T. Emezue, 2001 Comparative Studies in African Dirge Poetry is an important contribution to research in African literature by Nigerian scholar GMT Emezue Emezue sets out to portray the role and function of African dirge Moving from the general African milieu to the specific Igbo heritage she explores written and oral modes of poetic expressions Emezue also posits a theory of the African dirge with features comparatively distinctive from the formalised structures of western art GMT Emezue's interest in traditional African dirge songs and modern poetry is borne from her conviction that nowhere in the corpus of oral poetry have there been more works of heightened creativity than the dirge forms Focus on Egypt Ernest Emenyonu, 2017 As well as a rare examination of Egyptian literature this volume includes a non themed section of Featured Articles and a Literary Supplement
