In Our Backyard Nita Belles, 2015-05-26 In recent years Americans have woken up to the reality that human trafficking is not just something that happens in other countries But what most still do not understand is that neither is it something that just happens to other people such as runaways or the disenfranchised The human trafficker is no respecter of faith education or socioeconomic status and even kids who are raised in solid families in middle and upper class suburbs can fall victim Likewise labor trafficking happens in our cities neighborhoods and rural areas Through true stories and years of boots on the ground experience including at the Super Bowl anti trafficking expert Nita Belles teaches readers everything they need to know about human trafficking in the United States and what they can do to join the fight against it She helps concerned parents friends teachers law enforcement government officials and other leaders understand all forms of trafficking identify risk factors and take practical steps to keep their loved ones and neighbors safe from predators Criminal Justice Phyllis B. Gerstenfeld,2006 Spectacular Girls Sarah Projansky,2014-02-07 An astute intervention into both girlhood studies and feminist media studies Yvonne Tasker University of East Anglia Hearing Eyes , Psychological Trauma Brian Trappier,2014-08-13 Since the subject of psychological trauma has become popularized and as a result of the mushrooming industry of lay therapists the strength of this publication relies on the expertise of the author in addressing a wide array of trauma related material It begins with a description of the full scope of trauma related symptoms and syndromes The author pays special attention to the subject of the crucial role of early attachment and nurture There is a significant body of didactic material balanced by personal reports of known trauma vignettes which are dissected using the language established by known trauma experts Are Children Reliable Witnesses? Ben F. Cotterill,2022-09-22 If a child falls victim to a crime or becomes witness to it they may well be questioned by the police Perhaps even tasked with selecting a suspect from a line up But how reliable can a child be under such strenuous circumstances In this book Dr Ben Cotterill explores practices and influences that can increase or decrease the accuracy of children s testimonies Memory mechanisms and general developmental factors behind the capability of child witnesses are outlined demonstrating their ability to describe or identify Factors that affect jurors perception of said children are also looked into in detail There have been many instances in which poor interviewing practices with children led to false imprisonments Said occurrences demonstrate how both situational factors and individual differences can potentially compromise children s eyewitness performance Based upon what we now understand can recommendations be made so that in a court of law innocence is the key to achieving justice
