Berlin Divided City, 1945-1989 Philip Broadbent, Sabine Hake, 2010 A great deal of attention continues to focus on Berlin's cultural and political landscape after the fall of the Berlin Wall but as yet no single volume looks at the divided city through an interdisciplinary analysis This volume examines how the city was conceived perceived and represented during the four decades preceding reunification and thereby offers a unique perspective on divided Berlin's identities German historians art historians architectural historians and literary and cultural studies scholars explore the divisions and antagonisms that defined East and West Berlin and by tracing the little studied similarities and extensive exchanges that occurred despite the presence of the Berlin Wall they present an indispensable study on the politics and culture of the Cold War Post-1990

Nothing Happened Susan A. Crane, 2021-01-19 The past is what happened History is what we remember and write about that past the narratives we craft to make sense out of our memories and their sources But what does it mean to look at the past and to remember that nothing happened Why might we feel as if nothing is the way it was This book transforms these utterly ordinary observations and redefines Nothing as something we have known and can remember Nothing has been a catch all term for everything that is supposedly uninteresting or is just not there It will take some possibly considerable mental adjustment before we can see Nothing as Susan A Crane does here with a capital n But Nothing has actually been happening all along As Crane shows in her witty and provocative discussion Nothing is nothing less than fascinating When Nothing has changed but we think that it should have we might call that injustice when Nothing has happened over a long slow period of time we might call that boring Justice and boredom have histories So too does being relieved or disappointed when Nothing happens for instance when a forecasted end of the world does not occur and millennial movements have to regroup By paying attention to how we understand Nothing to be happening in the present what it means to know Nothing or to do Nothing we can begin to ask how those experiences will be remembered Susan A Crane moves effortlessly between different modes of seeing Nothing drawing on visual analysis and cultural studies to suggest a new way of thinking about history By remembering how Nothing happened or how Nothing is the way it was or how Nothing has changed we can recover histories that were there all along Kultur Chronik ,1992 Rereading East Germany Karen Leeder,2016-01-14 This volume is the first to address the culture of the German Democratic Republic GDR as a historical entity but also to trace the afterlife of East Germany in the decades since the fall of the Berlin Wall An international team of outstanding scholars offers essential and thought provoking essays combining a chronological and genre based overview from the beginning of the GDR in 1949 to the unification in 1990 and beyond with in depth analysis of individual works A final chapter traces the resonance of the GDR in the years since its demise and analyses the fascination it engenders The volume provides a rereading of East Germany and its legacy as a cultural phenomenon free from the prejudices that prevailed while it existed offering English translations throughout a guide to further reading and a chronology Die DDR im Bild Karin Hartewig,Alf Lüdtkke,2004 reportage from and about Berlin in the series that's like a literary vacation Publishers Weekly In 1990s Berlin the scars of a century of war were still visible everywhere coal stoves crumbling buildings desolate minimarts not a working buzzer or elevator To visit the city then was a hallucinatory experience a simultaneous journey into the past and into the future The abandoned ruins the hidden gems found at the flea market the illegal basement raves are a thing of the past The era of Berlin as a site of urban archeology is over Almost all the damaged buildings have been repaired squatters have been removed the shops selling East German furniture have closed down Without its wounds the landscape of the city is perhaps less striking but more solid stronger Even the city's inhabitants have lost some of their melancholia their romantic and self-destructive streak today you can even find people who come to Berlin to actually work not just to create or idle their days away Yet Berlin remains a youthful city and retains its aura as the capital of cool Its only sacrosanct principles are an uncompromising multiculturalism and the belief that its future is yet to be written This volume of the series includes The Greatest Show in Town The Resurrection of Potsdamer Platz by Peter Schneider Berlin Suite by Cees Nooteboom Tempelhof A Field of Dreams by Vincenzo Latronico Plus the controversial reconstruction of a Prussian castle Berlin's most transgressive sex club and its disappearing traditional pubs a green urban oasis suburban neo Nazis North Vietnamese in the East South Vietnamese in the West techno everywhere and much more These books are so rich and engrossing that it is rewarding to read them even when one is stuck at home The Times Literary Supplement

The A to Z of Sexspionage Nigel West, 2009-09-16 In a surprising number of espionage cases sex has played a significant role often only in the background possibly as a reason why a particular individual has lived beyond his means and is in desperate need of cash FBI agent Earl Pitts sold secrets to the Soviets to ease his financial burdens which came from his habitually heavy use of male and female prostitutes Yuri Nosenko collaborated with the CIA after having misappropriated KGB funds to entertain expensive women while on official duties in Geneva and Aleksandr Ogorodnik of the Soviet foreign ministry was persuaded to become a spy by his pregnant Spanish lover an agent recruited by the CIA In the realm of human behavior sex can be the catalyst for risky or reckless conduct The A to Z of Sexspionage explores this behavior through a chronology an introduction a bibliography and hundreds of cross-referenced dictionary entries on the secret agencies operations and events From Delilah's seduction of Samson in 1161 BC to State Department official Donald Keyser's conviction of passing secrets to Isabelle Cheng a Taiwanese intelligence officer in 2007 Nigel West recounts the history of sexspionage

Urban Memory and Visual Culture in Berlin Simon Ward, 2025-10-01 As sites of continual change and transformation cities are fundamentally forgetful places Yet at the same time urban areas are also homes to museums and archives that collect and exhibit the past a key cultural political and economic activity This book looks at that paradox through the example of Berlin to see how the city has responded to challenges to memory created by rapid changes in politics economics society and the built environment ultimately arguing that the recovery of the experience of time is central to the practices of an emergent memory culture in the contemporary city Panorama of

Czech Literature, 1985 Stadt als Erfahrungsraum der Politik Wilhelm Hofmann, 2011 DEFA After East Germany Brigitta B. Wagner, 2014

Paints a complex portrait of East German film art and representation through examining eighteen key DEFA films following the fall of the Berlin Wall. In the late 1980s and early 1990s East Germany's DEFA filmmakers had a brief window in which to critique GDR society on either side of the Wende, the sweeping political turn that surrounded the fall of the Berlin Wall and the opening of the border. Building on the DEFA Film Library's retrospective Wende Flicks series and Indiana University's DEFA Project, this study examines the newly rediscovered filmic artifacts of this transitional cinema, introducing eighteen key films from 1988 to 1994 in essays by German scholars, film professionals, and cultural figures. Accompanying interviews and historical film reviews present a complex portrait of East German film art, its communist bloc influences, and its legacy for contemporary German film culture. The resulting anthology combines historical, autobiographical, cultural, political, and journalistic discourses to explore the tension between the hopes and frustrations these films express, the historical exigencies that overshadowed their production and reception, and the politics of their revival.
