Garden of Eden Ernest Hemingway, 2014-05-22 A sensational bestseller when it appeared in 1986 The Garden of Eden is the last uncompleted novel of Ernest Hemingway which he worked on intermittently from 1946 until his death in 1961 Set on the Côte d'Azur in the 1920s it is the story of a young American writer David Bourne his glamorous wife Catherine and the dangerous erotic game they play when they fall in love with the same woman A lean sensuous narrative taut chic and strangely contemporary The Garden of Eden represents vintage Hemingway the master doing what nobody did better R Z Sheppard Time Proceedings of the North American Wildlife Conference Called by President Franklin D.

Roosevelt, 1936 No Time to Dream Rita Molyneux, 2011-10-17 NO TIME TO DREAM is in many ways reminiscent of HOW GREEN WAS MY VALLEY The background of both books largely centred on the mining valley of the Rhondda in Wales during the depression of the early twentieth century The author Rita Molyneux herself lived in this mining valley and witnessed at first hand the harshness of daily life during that period and vividly recounts them in her book Indeed her own father suffered a broken back in a colliery accident The Rhondda as Gwyn Thomas once described it poured out enough coal to have coked the world at one stroke The valley was majestically ransacked and the coal owners became very rich men Cruelly little of this money stuck to the fingers of the people who mined the coal Yet these people laughed sang worshipped and propagated at record levels and were far more precious than the coal they hauled out of the ground In NO TIME TO DREAM the author richly evokes those times in technicolour and brings to life those characters who fill the pages The story also tells of emigration of some of these characters to Australia where they faced with bravery the vicissitudes of the new environment In real life Rita and her husband Arthur paralleled the story of this novel emigrating to Australia in 1964 initially to Canberra and then to Sydney It was this experience that allowed Rita to complete the second half of her book NO TIME TO DREAM is a rich evocation of the human spirit and a unique description of love kindness and courage surrounded and deepened by the dangers of the times Read it Wildlife Restoration and Conservation Proceedings of the North American Wildlife Conference Called by President Franklin D. Roosevelt ... February 3-7, 1936 United States. Congress. Senate. Special Committee on Conservation of Wild Life Resources,1936

Dear Hubby of Mine: Home Front Wives in World War II Diane Phelps Budden,2020-10-01 Touching letters written by a loving couple musty letters that detail past lives my parents letters A housewife and her sailor husband with shared immigrant experiences penned more than 500 letters during World War II and the letters inform this book Abridged versions of the letters weave a loving romantic story with actual events occurring on the home front and the battlefield The letters are further brought to life through the 25 original family photographs and remembrances from the period The 75th anniversary of the end of World War II will be celebrated in 2020 Most of the participants have passed on While servicemen s stories have been broadly told the tales of the resolute war wives who had a significant impact on the outcome of the war and the well being of the country have not been widely shared While some women joined the military and others entered the workforce for the first time the majority stayed at home to raise children Dear Hubby of Mine focuses on this latter group of women whose stories have been under represented and largely uncelebrated in World War II literature In addition my parents immigrant backgrounds formed in the Hungarian community in Cleveland Ohio shed light on the experiences of other minority groups and refugees that came before and after them While many readers may see the story as a touching romance and it is others may appreciate the depiction of the country in the 1940s under wartime conditions and how that influenced America s culture in the decades to come Women charted new roles during the war that led to new freedoms in the years ahead and eventually brought about major societal changes Hell's Quest John W. Cassell,2006-03 Exactly how Collingwood had been built how she had assumed a completely new identity and personality just what frightening sinister debts had been incurred in the process I didn t yet know The final piece of the puzzle was coming whenever I was ready to listen but I already dearly loved the person incurring the debts and I already understood why they had been incurred Nancy was fleeing from a first degree murder charge a case no doubt still open on the books of the Hoboken Police Department I had followed those Waterfront Commission hearings Warren brought up with some interest back in 1966 When he mentioned them this morning I vaguely recalled a murdered federal informant by the name of Deluca being mentioned by several witnesses It may not have been the same guy I may have remembered the name wrong But if he was the case was open with the FBI as well

Coloniality and Migrancy in African Diasporic Literatures Peter Moopi,Rodwell Makombe,2023-10-06 This book explores literary representations of African immigrant experiences in Western countries against the backdrop of colonial stereotypes and recent expressions of anti immigrant sentiment in Europe and America The book deploys the concept of coloniality of migrancy to explore how global coloniality continues to shape the identities and lived experiences of African immigrants as represented in African diasporic literatures It considers the persistence of racist and discriminatory attitudes and patterns of thought that developed during slavery and colonialism and asks to what extent it is possible for African immigrants to transcend race in their configuration of their identity Five key twenty first century African diasporic novels are considered in the analysis Imbolo Mbue's Behold the Dreamers Dave Eggers' What is the What The Autobiography of Valentino Achak Deng Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie's Americanah NoViolet Bulawayo's We Need New Names and Helon Habila's Travellers Overall the book demonstrates that despite the hostility migrants of colour encounter Africans are shunning the victimhood of colonialism and slavery and finding alternative ways of navigating and inhabiting the modern world Foregrounding the usefulness of decoloniality and postcolonial theory as theoretical tools this book will be an invaluable resource to researchers across the fields of African literature migration sociology politics and decolonial studies

Louis MacNeice is increasingly recognised as one of the greatest poets of the twentieth century and his work has been a defining influence upon a generation of Irish poets that includes Derek Mahon Michael Longley and Paul Muldoon The Selected Letters is indispensable as a resource for an understanding of the intellectual culture of the mid twentieth century A Classics don poet playwright and globetrotting BBC producer the medley and blend of MacNeice's cultural influences seems exemplary in its modernity He kept up a significant correspondence with E R Dodds Anthony Blunt and T S Eliot to name but three prominent figures of the time During his time at the BBC MacNeice witnessed many key events including the partition of India in 1947 and the independence of the Gold Coast from Britain in 1957 and these are recorded in two long sequences to his wife the singer Hedli Anderson His complex relationship to Ireland and to his Irish heritages speak resonantly to contemporary debates about Irish and Northern Irish cultural identity Finally the Letters will do much to broaden our understanding of a vivid and often enigmatic personality whose varied life and individual charisma have often resisted explanation
