Hell Of A Woman:

A Hell of a Woman Jim Thompson, 2005 A HELL OF A WOMAN is Jim Thompson's version of an American CRIME AND PUNISHMENT In a novel completely devoid of sentiment Dolly Dillon a door to door salesman goes about the appalling business of murder without conscience without remorse and without any hope of redemption because of a woman

A Woman's View Jeanine Basinger, 2013-09-04 Now Voyager Stella Dallas Leaver Her to Heaven Imitation of Life Mildred Pierce Gilda these are only a few of the hundreds of women's films that poured out of Hollywood during the thirties forties and fifties The films were widely disparate in subject sentiment and technique they nonetheless shared one dual purpose to provide the audience of women primarily with temporary liberation into a screen dream of romance sexuality luxury suffering or even wickedness and then send it home reminded of reassured by and resigned to the fact that no matter what else she might do a woman's most important job was to be a woman Now with boundless knowledge and infectious enthusiasm Jeanine Basinger illuminates the various surprising and subversive ways in which women's films delivered their message Basinger examines dozens of films exploring the seemingly intractable contradictions at the convoluted heart of the woman's genre among them the dilemma of the strong and glamorous woman who cedes her power when she feels it threatening her personal happiness and the self-abnegating woman whose selflessness is not always as noble as it appears Basinger looks at the stars who played these women and helps us understand the qualities the right off screen personae the right on screen attitudes the right faces that made them personify the woman's film and equipped them to make believable drama or comedy out of the crackpot plots the conflicting ideas and the exaggerations of real behavior that characterize these movies In each of the films the author discusses whether melodrama screwball comedy musical film noir western or biopic a woman occupies the center of her particular universe Her story in its endless variations of rags to riches boy meets girl battle of the sexes mother love doomed romance inevitably sends a highly potent mixed message Yes you women belong in your proper place that is content with the Big Three of the woman's film world men marriage and motherhood but meanwhile and paradoxically see what fun glamour and power you can enjoy along the way

A Woman's View deepens our understanding of the times and circumstances and attitudes out of which these movies were created

A Woman's Odyssey Linda Aaker, 1994 Politics and passion are spiked with humor and searching in this compelling tale of a modern woman's journey to mid life From shooting deer in Texas to shooting pictures in the Himalayas from boyfriends to babies from hitchhiking alone in Guatemala to traveling with the Clintons on the pre election Texas bus tour Aaker observes and analyses her world with unexpected candor and insight Although the specific details are only one woman's experiences the narrative chronicles the win loss cycles faced by any woman who chooses to have both career and family
