Georgiadou,Katerina Oikonomopoulou,2017-10-10 Space and time have been key concepts of investigation in the humanities in recent years In the field of Classics in particular they have led to the fresh appraisal of genres such as epic historiography the novel and biography by enabling a close focus on how ancient texts invest their representations of space and time with a variety of symbolic and cultural meanings This collection of essays by a team of international scholars seeks to make a contribution to this rich interdisciplinary field by exploring how space and time are perceived linguistically codified and portrayed in the biographical and philosophical work of Plutarch of Chaeronea 1st 2nd centuries CE The volume s aim is to show how philological approaches in conjunction with socio cultural readings can shed light on Plutarch s spatial terminology and clarify his conceptions of time especially in terms of the ways in which he situates himself in his era s fascination with the past The volume s intended readership includes Classicists intellectual and cultural historians and scholars whose field of expertise embraces theoretical study of space and time along with the linguistic strategies used to portray them in literary or historical texts The Construction of Time in Antiquity Jonathan Ben-Dov,Lutz Doering,2017-10-12 Time stands at the heart of human experience In this book new investigations illuminate the gamut of human engagement with time in antiquity

Epiphanies and Dreams in Greek Polytheism Michael Lipka, 2021-12-06 While modern students of Greek religion are alert to the occasion boundedness of epiphanies and divinatory dreams in Greek polytheism they are curiously indifferent to the generic parameters of the relevant textual representations on which they build their argument Instead generic questions are normally left to the literary critic who in turn is less interested in religion To evaluate the relation of epiphanies and divinatory dreams to Greek polytheism the book investigates relevant representations through all major textual genres in pagan antiquity The evidence of the investigated genres suggests that the epiphany mindedness of the Greeks postulated by most modern critics is largely an academic chimaera a late comer of Christianizing 19th century scholarship It is primarily founded on a misinterpretation of Homer's notorious anthropomorphism in the Iliad and Odyssey but also in the Homeric Hymns This anthropomorphism which is keenly absorbed by Greek drama and figural art has very little to do with the religious lifeworld experience of the ancient Greeks as it appears in other genres By contrast throughout all textual genres investigated here divinatory dreams are represented as an ordinary and real part of the ancient Greeks

Eilers, 2009-02-28 The Roman world was fundamentally a face to face culture where it was expected that communication and negotiations would be done in person This can be seen in Rome's contacts with other cities states and kingdoms whether dependent independent friendly or hostile and in the development of a diplomatic habit with its own rhythms and protocols that coalesced into a self sustaining system of communication This volume of papers offers ten perspectives on the way in which ambassadors embassies and the institutional apparatuses supporting them contributed to Roman rule Understanding Roman diplomatic practices illuminates not only questions about Rome's evolution as a Mediterranean power but can also shed light on a wide variety of historical and cultural trends Contributors are Sheila L Ager Alexander Yakobson Filippo
