The Portable Creek Keith Huffman,2021-03-05 Benefits Charity This is a family memoir of sorts told one newspaper column at a time a variety of memories stitched together like a patchwork quilt So writes columnist Keith Huffman in describing this nifty collection of Southern essays that pay tribute to a charming bunch of characters who personify small town life Reflecting on his childhood in the West Alabama town of Gordo Huffman shares the stories and memories of the folks who made their marks on him including Pawpaw Buck the ornery though lovable old coot whose dying wish was to get baptized by the very country preacher who d been damned determined to save his soul for decades Doe Doe the author s father a Crimson Tide fanatic and big rig ace whose One True Love was a black and silver 1979 Ford F 150 that flaunted its glorious name across its gleaming windshield Silver Bullet Mawmaw Sue expert remover of deadly splinters and master engineer who once used a shoestring to keep a push mower running long enough to finish the job Aunt Lorene a beast of a card player who lacked neither a winning hand nor mocking grin for her brother Henry the man who not only named himself but fulfilled an old psychic s prophecy that he d go overseas and find a gold mine Other stories involve bootlegging shenanigans a drunken cage match with a wild cat plus the author s burned luck and bitter fishing tragedy Huffman also shares about how he learned the fine art of backroad skepticism his ongoing ponderings over how life as a turtle could have turned out and his musings over the joys of fatherhood proving that parenting is no easy task especially when a young un holds a grudge after dreaming his mother ate his dinosaur This collection also includes other newspaper features Huffman has written over the years highlighting examples of Southern hearts tragedies and triumphs measuring a persons worth since it is God who is their true Creator and Author and Finisher of their life I think the scripture that best illustrates what I m trying to get across in the story of THE PERFECT DOLL can be found in 1 Samuel 16 7 The Lord does not look at things man looks at Man looks at the outward appearance but the Lord looks at the heart I also hope that the reader will also have God s eyes to see themselves and realize how wonderfully and fearfully they were made by their father in Heaven
