Plays of Our Own Willy Conley, 2022-12-30 Plays of Our Own is the first anthology of its kind containing an eclectic range of plays by Deaf and hard of hearing writers. These writers have made major positive contributions to world drama or Deaf theatre arts. Their topics range from those completely unrelated to deafness to those with strong Deaf related themes such as a dreamy headstrong girl surviving a male dominated world in Depression era Ireland, a famous Spanish artist losing his hearing while creating his most controversial art, a Deaf African American woman dealing with AIDS in her family and a Deaf peddler ridiculed and rejected by his own kind for selling ABC fingerspelling cards. The plays are varied in style: a Kabuki western, an ensemble created variety show, a visual gestural play with no spoken nor signed language, a cartoon tragicomedy, historical and domestic dramas and a situation comedy. This volume contains the well known Deaf theatre classics My Third Eye and A Play of Our Own. At long last, directors, producers, Deaf and hearing students, professors and researchers will be able to pick up a book of Deaf plays for production consideration, Deaf culture or multicultural analysis or the simple pleasure of reading.

Are You There, God? It's Me, Ellen Ellen Coyne, 2020-10-30 This isn't a Catholic country anymore, someone proudly declared in a pub where Ellen Coyne was sitting. Ellen had left the Church long ago like many her age. But she had never stopped talking to God. Now, about to turn 30, she realised she wasn't quite ready for this declaration to be true. Abandoning the Church had been an act of protest. However, Ellen began to wonder who had really lost the most. Why should those who damaged the Church get to keep all its good bits like the rituals, the community, a guide for living a better life and the comfort of believing it's not the end when somebody dies? But how could she ally herself to an institution she doesn't entirely agree with? In her first book, a stunningly thoughtful and intelligent debut, Ellen Coyne tries to figure out how much she really wants to go back to the Church and if it is even the right thing to do. Get ready, this is going to inspire a thousand conversations across Ireland about the role of the Church in our society and our future.
