Hello War Goodbye Sanity:

Hello War, Goodbye Sanity Mary M. (Mary Marguerite) White, 1992 Making the Best of It Sarah Glassford, Amy J. Shaw, 2020-04-15 Many women who lived through the Second World War believed it heralded new status and opportunities but scholars have argued that very little changed How can these interpretations be reconciled Making the Best of It examines the ways in which gender and other identities intersected to shape the experiences of female Canadians and Newfoundlanders during the war The contributors to this thoughtful collection consider mainstream and minority populations girls and women and different parts of Canada and Newfoundland They reassess topics such as women in the military and in munitions factories and tackle entirely new subjects such as wartime girlhood in Quebec Collectively these essays broaden the scope of what we know about the changes the war wrought in the lives of Canadian women and girls and address wider debates about memory historiography and feminism On All Frontiers Christina Bates, Dianne Dodd, Nicole Rousseau, 2005-04-30 Nursing has a long and varied history in Canada Since the founding of the first hospital by the Augustine nuns in 1637 nurses have contributed greatly to Canadians quality of life On All Frontiers is a comprehensive history of Canadian nursing Editors Christina Bates Dianne Dodd and Nicole Rousseau have brought together a vast body of research into one volume Authored by leading experts the chapters and vignettes form an overview of the history of Canadian nursing to date From the midwives of early Canada to urban public health nurses from remote outposts to the battlefields of Europe On All Frontiers documents the hardships challenges and achievements of Canadian nurses Richly illustrated with archival photographs it is an essential read for scholars of Canadian health care history Published in English An Officer and a Lady Cynthia Toman, 2008-05-20 During the Second World War more than 4 000 civilian nurses enlisted as Nursing Sisters a specially created all female officers rank of the Canadian Armed Forces They served in all three armed force branches and all the major theatres of war yet nursing as a form of war work has long been under explored An Officer and a Lady fills that gap Cynthia Toman analyzes how gender war and medical technology intersected to create a legitimate role for women in the masculine environment of the military and explores the incongruous expectations placed on military nurses as officers and ladies Histoire Sociale, 2007 Sans frontières Christina Bates, Dianne Dodd, Nicole Rousseau, 2005 Ce document d peint les preuves les d fis et les r alisations des infirmi res canadiennes sur une p riode de 4 si cles Il traite notamment des points suivants le nursing laic le m tier de sage femme les infirmi res en service priv le nursing hospitalier le nursing de sant publique le nursing dans les r gions loign es le nursing sur le champ de bataille la formation le professionnalisme et la syndicalisation du nursing L'incontournable caste des femmes Marie-Claude Thifault, 2012-09-05 Une invitation d couvrir sur plus d un si cle la place pr dominante de plusieurs g n rations de femmes qui ont particip activement au d veloppement du syst me de sant au Qu bec et au Canada Muslim American Youth Michelle Fine, Selcuk R Sirin, 2008-07-12 Since the terrorist attacks of September 11 2001 and the subsequent war on terror growing up Muslim in the U S has become a far more challenging task for young people They must contend with popular cultural representations of Muslim men as terrorists and Muslim women as oppressed the suspicious gaze of peers teachers and strangers and police and the fierce embodiment of fears in their homes With great attention to quantitative and qualitative detail the authors provide heartbreaking and funny stories of discrimination and resistance delivering hard to ignore statistical evidence of moral exclusion for young people whose lives have been situated on the intimate fault lines of global conflict and who carry international crises in their backpacks and in their souls The volume offers a critical conceptual framework to aid in understanding Muslim American identity formation processes a framework which can also be applied to other groups of marginalized and immigrant youth In addition through their innovative data analytic methods that creatively mix youth drawings intensive individual interviews focused group discussions and culturally sensitive survey items the authors provide an antidote to qualitative vs quantitative arguments that have unnecessarily captured much time and energy in psychology and other behavioral sciences Muslim American Youth provides a much needed road map for those seeking to understand how Muslim youth and other groups of immigrant youth negotiate their identities as Americans Sanity ,1989

Smith,2012-10 Having served as a member of the Allied Forces Occupation of Japan Bernard Smith has produced a book about the time he spent in Japan in 1946 in the city of Iwakuni near Hiroshima both of which cities are located on the east coast of Japan alongside its beautiful Inland Sea Except for his rather mystifying visit to Tokyo in the summer of 1946 his entire book is based almost entirely on his personal diary and notes which he wrote while aboard his homeward bound ship at the end of his tour of duty at the end of that year crucially when the events he describes were still very fresh in his mind He writes about the utter devastation and despair under which people were living after the horrors of Hiroshima about the Japanese peoples response to the Allied Occupation and the resilience and fortitude with which they faced up to their troubles As opposed to formal and official documents Bernard Smith writes about human suffering and the harsh conditions under which people were living He tells us of his meetings with families with whom he found relaxation from the gloom and with whom he became very friendly He also describes how the people faithfully continued to follow their traditional Japanese customs and culture the observance of which he believes sustained them and helped them begin their ultimate recovery

The Girl in Green Derek B. Miller,2020-06-11 A compelling combination of literate storytelling and action packed thriller laced with humor Library Journal starred review Finalist for the CWA Gold Dagger Award for Best Crime Novel of the Year 1991 One hundred miles from the Kuwaiti border Thomas Benton meets Arwood Hobbes Benton is a British journalist who reports from war zones in part to avoid his lackluster marriage and a daughter he loves but cannot connect with Arwood is an American private who might be an insufferable ignoramus or might be a genuine lunatic with a death wish it s hard to tell Desert Storm is over peace has been declared but as they argue about whether it makes sense to cross the nearest border in search of an ice cream they become embroiled in a horrific attack in which a young local girl in a green dress is killed as they are trying to protect her The two men walk away into their respective lives But something has cracked for them both Twenty two years later in another place in another war they meet again and are offered an unlikely opportunity to redeem themselves when that same girl in green is found alive and in need of salvation Or is she Swift gripping and mined with surprises Arwood Hobbes is as intriguing an operative as Graham Greene s quiet American but without the quiet David Shafer author of Whiskey Tango Foxtrot A stellar electrifying story with a knockout ending Publishers Weekly starred review A penetrating poetic and unexpectedly disarming book about the ageless conflict in the Middle East Kirkus Reviews starred review A Catch 22 for the twenty first century Madison Smartt Bell National Book Award finalist and author of All Souls Rising Norwegian by Night Derek B. Miller,2013 A profoundly moving deliciously suspenseful novel about an American grandfather and a newly orphaned boy racing across the Norwegian wilderness fleeing demons both real and imagined

NOT "Just Friends" Shirley Glass,2007-11-01 One of the world s leading experts on infidelity provides a step by step guide through the process of marital infidelity from suspicion and revelation to healing and provides profound practical guidance to prevent cheating and if it happens recover and heal from it You re right to be cautious when you hear these words I m telling you we re just friends Good people in good marriages are having affairs The workplace and the internet have become fertile breeding grounds for friendships that can slowly and insidiously turn into love affairs Yet you can protect your relationship from emotional or sexual betrayal by recognizing the red flags that mark the stages of slipping into an improper dangerous intimacy that can threaten your marriage Cable & Deadpool Vol. 2 Fabian Nicieza,2007-01-31 Collects Cable Deadpool 7 12 A floating city promises hope for humans and mutants alike But if Cable plans to be Earth s Savior will Deadpool accept the role of Judas Plus the traumatic tragic and tantric events of The Burnt Offering have left

Cable well regurgitated now Deadpool has to save the day Even if it means confronting his fear of very big headed villains And the challenge of finding someone who can fix technology from thousands of years in the future Twenty Five Million Ghosts Steve Aitchsmith, 2017-09-26 ar and devastation made us What is past is past and resulted in you me and everybody else We are all haunted by the ruptured history that created us Steve lives a reasonably content and secure life in early retirement He is dealing with the impending death of his mother out of control garden ants and his own need for both security in and understanding of this world He is assisted by an unusual Roman Catholic priest as he copes with loss while reviewing how his family history reflects the new world that was inevitably born from the major wars of the past He recognises that his story is everybody s story we are all the result of destruction and violent change His reflections and adventures lead him to look at the changes in the world to commit a crime to recall the stories of the fear gore loss and love that war generates Steve shows you who you are He shows that his story is your story only the details vary By seeing the slaughter murder evil and good that war provokes he shows you why you are The horrors of the family history take us to the First World War Western Front the Second World War D Day the Holocaust and the Russian Front He also provides tips for dealing with ants Some books grab you by the throat and pull you into a few hours of escape Other books this book take you gently by the hand and lead you towards a new view of the world and your place in it Twenty Five Million Ghosts mourns those who have been lost or never existed because of our terrible propensity for violence It also celebrates those who only exist because of it Chronicle of the Horse ,1977-10 Movie Characters of Leading Performers of the Sound Era Robert A. Nowlan, Gwendolyn Wright Nowlan, 1990 An overview of the film careers of more than 400 leading performers For each actor or actress featured there is a brief biographical sketch followed by a set of key roles with descriptions of the characters played by the performer These key roles represent the film milestones of the artist typical performances award winning roles critically acclaimed appearances disastrous performances in short a sampling of the actor or actress career in films New York Magazine ,1988-05-02 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea International Motion Picture Almanac, 1993 Barry Monush, 1993
