Stewart, 2024-10-11 This collection of essays expands our understanding and appreciation of the body of work by established female authors of Spanish crime fiction series by analyzing recent narratives that in some cases contribute in novel ways to the ongoing reformulation of the genre and in others provide readers with a temporary hiatus from it. The studies offer students and scholars of crime fiction new perspectives on the works of well known authors as well as analyses of their often less known narratives that may not fit within the genre. Readers will engage in an exploration of gender dynamics and sexuality, a variety of psychological and social issues, and the consequences of the indiscriminate consumption of media and abuse of the environment and animals in narratives that exhibit the versatility of these outstanding authors. The volume will appeal to a wide audience of literary and cultural studies critics as well as crime fiction enthusiasts and newcomers to this popular genre. Shifting the Ground of Canadian Literary Studies Smaro

Kambourelli, Robert Zacharias, 2013-01-15 Shifting the Ground of Canadian Literary Studies is a collection of interdisciplinary essays that examine the various contexts political, social, and cultural that have shaped the study of Canadian literature and the role it plays in our understanding of the Canadian nation state. The essays are tied together as instances of critical practices that reveal the relations and exchanges that take place between the categories of the literary and the nation as well as between the disciplinary sites of critical discourses and the porous boundaries of their methods. They are concerned with the material effects of the imperial and colonial logics that have fashioned Canada as well as with the paradoxes, ironies, and contortions that abound in the general perception that Canada has progressed beyond its colonial construction. Smaro Kambourelli's introduction demonstrates that these essays engage with the larger realm of human and social practices, throne speeches, book clubs, policies of accommodation of cultural and religious differences, Indigenous thought about justice and ethics, to show that literary and critical work is inextricably related to the Canadian polity in light of transnational and global forces. The Writer's Bulletin and Literary Reporter, 1914 Global Literature and Gender Jenni Ramone, 2024-12-31

Offering a thorough introduction to notions of gender in contemporary global literature, Global Literature and Gender uses postcolonial theories alongside theories of space and place, theories of globalization, and reference to the Posthuman and the Anthropocene as competing narratives of the contemporary. This book argues for the ongoing but very current significance of gender as an organizing category while also revealing the fluidity and boundary-defying nature of gender in twenty-first century literature. Divided into three sections looking at femininity, masculinity, and transgender, Jenni Ramone examines globalization's uneasy relationship with theories which foreground gender and considers gender as a challenge to globalization. Analyses embodied labour, global travel, trade, and tourism. Discusses the ways in which globalization and masculinity are likewise at odds. Considers a diverse range of themes and genres including pearl diving, taxi driving, space travel, authorship, surrogacy, modern-day slavery, Afrofuturism, Objectophilia, Stigma, Dehumanisation, Passing, and romance.

Anticipatory Environmental (Hi)Stories from Antiquity to the Anthropocene Christopher Schliephake, Evi Zemanek, 2023-02-06 Anticipatory Environmental Hi Stories from Antiquity to the Anthropocene studies the interplay of environmental perception and the way societies throughout history have imagined the future state of nature and the environments in which coming generations would live What sorts of knowledge were and are involved in outlining future environments What kinds of texts and narrative strategies were and are developed and modified over time How did and do scenarios and narratives of the past shape hi stories of the future This book answers these questions from a diachronic as well as a cross cultural perspective By looking at a diverse range of historical evidence that transcends stereotypical utopian and dystopian visions and allows for nuanced insights beyond the dichotomous reservoir of pastoral motifs and apocalyptic narratives the contributors illustrate the multifaceted character of environmental anticipation across the ages
