Gorbachev And The Decline Of Ideology In Soviet Foreign Policy Sylvia Babus Woodby, 2019-05-20 Through a combination of actions and words Mikhail Gorbachev has sought to convince the West that the USSR is not dangerous either militarily or politically At home he has sought to convince his countrymen that it is time to abandon the idea that the USSR is at war with the non socialist world and that it must keep the West at arms length I The Demise of Marxism-Leninism in Russia A. Brown, 2004-08-31 In The Demise of Marxism Leninism in Russia distinguished specialists chart the rise of new thinking on the Soviet system and the decline and fall of Marxism Leninism in the late Soviet period They also discuss the failure of Marxism Leninism to make a comeback in post Soviet Russia This book makes a significant contribution to understanding the independent importance of ideas in politics and provides clear analyses of the rise of liberal and social democratic thought about the political system the economy international Communism nationalism and federalism The End of the Cold War and the Causes of Soviet Collapse N. Bisley, 2004-04-30 Soviet efforts to end the Cold War were intended to help revitalize the USSR Instead Nick Bisley argues they contributed crucially to its collapse Using historical sociological theory The End of the Cold War and the Causes of Soviet Collapse shows that international confrontation had been an important element of Soviet rule and that the retreat from this confrontational posture weakened institutional functional aspects of the state This played a vital role in making the USSR vulnerable to the forces of economic crisis elite fragmentation and nationalism which ultimately caused its collapse Russian Foreign Policy Since 1990 Peter Shearman, 2018-02-12 A book which brings together leading experts on Russia s foreign relations providing the most comprehensive coverage of contemporary Russian foreign policy currently available in a single volume Detailed case studies of relations with specific countries and regions are complemented by chapters that examine the process of decision making conflict between domestic institutional actors the role of groups such as the military and Russia s search for a new identity

The Collapse of the Soviet Union, 1985-1991 David R. Marples, 2016-09-17 Why did the Soviet Union collapse in 1991 The collapse of the Soviet Union has widely been seen as the result of the arms race and Cold War and the failure of the Soviet side to keep pace with new technology This book argues that the disintegration was mainly a result of two interrelated factors the rise of the Soviet national republics and the manipulation of the new Russian presidency by Boris Yeltsin in what became a direct power struggle between Yeltsin and the Soviet leader Gorbachev Written in a clear and accessible manner the book provides an explanation of how the national question came to dominate Soviet politics by 1990 1 analysis of the economic crisis that occurred in the late 1980s a chapter devoted to the year 1991 from the referendum to reform the Soviet Union to the unforeseen dissolution of the country by December a discussion of the personalities of and political confrontation between the two key statesman Gorbachev and Yeltsin Also containing a Chronology Glossary and Who s Who of key figures The Collapse of the Soviet Union is essential reading for students of twentieth century European history

Soviet and Russian Press Coverage of the United States Jonathan A. Becker,2016-01-05 This book examines changing Soviet and Russian press coverage of the United States from the emergence of Mikhail Gorbachev through the presidency of Vladimir Putin A new afterword focuses on recent developments in the Russian media and Russian press coverage of the terrorist attacks of September 11 2001 Becker argues that due to the absence of a language to support the reform strategy the Soviet press presented positive images of its chief ideological and military opponent the United States as a means of supporting political social and economic reform He suggests that the end of the Cold War and the emergence of a more self confident Russia means that the symbolic and discursive significance of the United States for Russia has diminished
