Gorbachev's New Thinking And Third World Conflicts:

Gorbachev's New Thinking and Third World Conflicts Jiří Valenta, Frank Cibulka, Some of the most crucial changes inspired by Gorbachev and perestroika concern Soviet and East European policies toward Third World countries. Despite countless studies of Soviet U S relations and U S relations with the Third World, the area of Soviet relations with the Third World has been left relatively undeveloped. This is the first of several volumes intended to add to our knowledge of what the series editor Jiri Valenta characterizes as East South relations. In this new era of cooperation and diplomacy, the superpowers are working to resolve regional conflicts in and around Afghanistan, Nicaragua, Angola, and Cambodia. Such efforts are exceedingly complex since they necessarily involve not only the Soviet Union but Third World nations that may operate independently, such as Cuba and Vietnam. This volume addresses a number of such conflicts. In addition to those already mentioned, conflicts in Ethiopia, Namibia, and the Philippines are discussed, and their implications for Western policy makers are reviewed. As the contributors emphasize, despite current Soviet emphasis on peaceful solutions to regional conflicts, Gorbachev's New Thinking in foreign affairs is still decidedly selective. In some cases, the Soviet Union will actually encourage close ties with regional Third World powers, as it has with India. It is also too much to expect that the Soviet Union, much less Cuba and Vietnam, will completely cut ties to revolutionary allies worldwide. That said, the 1990s will undoubtedly be characterized by new Soviet foreign policy styles. Their shape and form is the subject of this book. It will be of immense interest to policymakers and researchers concerned about current developments in relations between the superpowers and with the Third World. Contributors include Vernon Aspaturian, Bhabani Sen Gupta, William E. Griffith, Jerry F. Hough, Douglas Pike, Howard Wiarda, A. H. T. Sheikh, Sabahuddin Kushkaki, Colin Legum, H. de V. du Toit, Khien Theeravit, Frank Cibulka, Alvaro Taboada, Charles William Maynes, W. Bruce Weinrod, Jiri Valenta. The End Of Superpower Conflict In The Third World Melvin A. Goodman, 2019-07-11. This book describes the efforts of the United States and the former Soviet Union to resolve regional confrontations. It examines Gorbachev's inheritance in Latin America regarding Soviet U S cooperation and conflict and prospects for future Russian U S cooperation. Gorbachev's Gamble Andrei Grachev, 2018-03-12. Gorbachev's Gamble offers a new and more convincing answer to this question by providing the missing link between the internal and external aspects of Gorbachev's perestroika. Andrei Grachev shows that the radical transformation of Soviet foreign policy during the Gorbachev years was an integral part of an ambitious project of internal democratic reform and of the historic opening of Soviet society to the outside world. Grachev explains the motives and the intentions of the initiators of this project and describes their hopes and their illusions. He recounts the story of the internal debates and struggles in the Kremlin and behind the scene decisions that led to the Soviet withdrawal from Afghanistan, the fall of the Berlin Wall, the break up of the Warsaw Pact, and eventually the demise of the Soviet Union itself. The book is based on exclusive interviews with the leaders of the Soviet Union, including Gorbachev's personal notes and diaries of their assistants and advisers, and transcripts of the discussions inside the Politburo and Secretariat of the Central Committee Together they constitute a multi voice political confession of a whole generation of decision makers of the Soviet Union that enables us better to understand the origin and the breathtaking trajectory of the events that led to the end of the Cold War and the unprecedented transformation of world politics in the closing decades of the 20th century China and Southeast Asia in the Xi Jinping Era Alvin Cheng-Hin Lim, Frank Cibulka, 2018-12-12 In 2012 the Communist Party of China CPC inaugurated the Xi Jinping era when it elected him to be the General Secretary of the CPC The following year Xi was elected President of the People's Republic of China The Xi Jinping era has seen a remarkable transformation of Chinese foreign policy which has been adjusted to facilitate the achievement of what Xi has proclaimed as the Great Rejuvenation of the Chinese Nation Xi's Belt and Road Initiative has become a major element of Chinese economic diplomacy while the Chinese military industrial complex under his leadership has strengthened China's extensive claims in the South China Sea with reclamation works and the installation of military facilities on its occupied islands This edited volume will focus on the countries of Southeast Asia and examine how their relations with China have been transformed in the Xi Jinping era Soviet Policy Toward Israel Under Gorbachev organizations NGOs grew significantly in the last decades of the 20th century The international NGO community today is a rich world of professional bodies local organizations mammoth multinationals charities advocacy groups business like organizations ad hoc agencies and voluntary associations Humanitarian NGOs are powerful actors in conflict regions and influential campaigners at the international level What are the reasons behind their growth In answering that question this book focuses on how and when NGOs became influential in humanitarian crises Four case studies in Rwanda and Afghanistan are examined The earliest is the crisis in Rwanda in the 1960s when only a few NGOs operated in Rwanda with limited budgets and experience The second case study is the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan in 1979 89 by which time NGOs had developed considerably by then they were operating on a global scale receiving more funds having closer ties with the media executing bigger projects and had also become more professional The second Afghan case study focuses on the mujahidin and Taliban rule while the second Rwandan study centres on the 1994 genocide These two studies reveal that enormous changes have taken place in the humanitarian NGO community since the 1980s In this way this book characterizes the changes that have taken place and then offers explanations for the nature and speed of the growth and change
