The Gordion Excavations, 1950-1973, Final Reports, Volume II, 2 Elspeth R.M. Dusingberre, Ellen L. Kohler, 2023-08-22 This volume contains the excavation report for 12 cremation burials from the Phrygian site of Gordion in central Anatolia These tombs dating from the later seventh century to the third quarter of the 6th century BCE were excavated by The University Museum between 1950 and 1969 and by the German brothers Alfred and Gustav Korte in 1900 The processes for interment through construction of tumulus and cremation procedure are carefully detailed followed by an analysis of associated finds Two tumuli of the Hellenistic period both covering stone chambers with inhumation burials within are included in an appendix Further appendices discuss other specific materials excavated from the cremation burials A discussion of the contemporary inhumation and cremation tumulus burials at Gordion in the Phrygian period highlighting their continuities and significant differences forms part of the conclusion as does discussion of sociocultural developments at Gordion between ca 650-525 BCE as illuminated by the mortuary remains. The tumuli afford insights into questions related to gender, religion, adult-child identity, trade, social status, ethnicity, transcultural affiliations, ceramic developments, jewelry manufacture, high status artifact display including ivory, feasting behaviors, animal sacrifice, hero cult and widespread killing of artifacts associated with the cremation burials. This entirely new publication of Gordion's tumuli makes available at last the elite cremation burials of the later Middle and early Late Phrygian/Achaemenid periods excavated by The University Museum. By including the two Korte tumuli it provides a complete assemblage of the cremation tumuli at Gordion. They afford remarkable new insights into life, death and an elaborate system of value at Gordion during this most turbulent century. American Journal of Archaeology, 1992

Anatolian Iron Ages 5 G. Darbyshire, 2005-07-28. The Fifth Anatolian Iron Ages Colloquium held at Van in 2001 brought together specialists from Turkey, Europe and America to focus on the archaeology of Anatolia in the complex period between the collapse of the Hittite empire and the Persian conquest. The papers gathered in this volume cover the area from Urartu in the east to Phrygia in the west and range from the discussion of broad problems of chronology and cultural interaction to the presentation of new material from both major and less well known sites. Although most of the papers relate to the area of present day Turkey, a significant feature of the Fifth Colloquium was the inclusion of papers placing Anatolian archaeology in its wider context from Thrace through the Black Sea area to the Caucasus and beyond. Local Cultures of Late

Several papers focus on Tios, the Acropolis, the lower city and coin finds. Its place in ancient geography/cartography is considered before moving on to the indigenous inhabitants of the surrounding area, the immediate and greater region, then the Turkish Black Sea region and outwards to the western, northern and eastern shores of the Black Sea. The Biblical Archaeologist George Ernest Wright, Frank Moore

Period IVB at Hasanlu, Iran Maude de Schauensee, 2015-02-13. The University of Pennsylvania Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology has had a long standing interest in the archaeology of Iran. In 1956 Robert H. Dyson Jr began excavations south of Lake Urmia at the large mounded site of Hasanlu. Although the results of these excavations await final publication, the Hasanlu Special Studies series of which this monograph is the fourth volume describes and analyzes specific aspects of technology style and iconography This volume describes a group of ongoing research projects most of which provide new information on Iron Age technology A theme that runs through these studies is the degree to which ancient workers varied the composition of their products to create desirable colors and textures The book begins with a description of the wooden furniture fragments along with fittings and decorative elements for furniture It presents the first detailed description of the charred textiles and places these textiles in their archaeological contexts suggesting the roles that textiles may have played in daily life Later chapters assess the significance of Hasanlu in the history of glassmaking describe the archaeometallurgy of the Hasanlu IVB bronzes and present a catalog of the bladed weapons Also the book presents the evidence for deliberate violence against individuals as indicated by their skeletal injuries and the results of a project undertaken to determine whether DNA could be used to obtain a better understanding of the population history at Hasanlu Content of the book s DVD ROM may be found online at this location <http://core.tdar.org/project/375174> University Museum Monograph 132 1991 Werner Hermann, Richard Neudecker, 2020-05-18 Keine ausführliche Beschreibung für 1991 verfügbar The Gordion Excavations (1950-1973).
