Heaven And The Flesh Imagery Of Desire From The Renaissance To The Rococo:

Heaven and the Flesh Clive Hart, Kay Gilliland Stevenson, 1995-12-07 Do angels make love Will the souls of ordinary people feel sexual pleasure in the next world Is the aspiration to spiritual salvation helped or hindered by sexual experience In Heaven and the Flesh Clive Hart and Kay Stevenson explore the opinions of poets and painters on such questions from the high Renaissance to the birth of romanticism Hart and Stevenson analyse the work not only of canonical writers and artists such as Milton and Michelangelo but also of lesser known figures such as John Gore and Richard Tompson and the sometimes anguished speculations of philosophers and theologians As the evidence of witty pornographic poems and drawings demonstrates the relationship between sexual desire and spiritual ascension was not always treated with full seriousness This wide ranging survey offers sometimes surprising insights into material both familiar and unfamiliar The English Novel, 1700-1740 Robert Letellier, 2003-02-28 The English novel written between 1700 and 1740 remains a comparatively neglected area In addition to Daniel Defoe whose Robinson Crusoe and Moll Flanders are landmarks in the history of English fiction many other authors were at work These included such women as Penelope Aubin Jane Barker Mary Davys and Eliza Haywood who made a considerable contribution to widening the range of emotional responses in fiction These authors and many others continued writing in the genres inherited from the previous century such as criminal biographies the Utopian novel the science fictional voyage and the epistolary novel This annotated bibliography includes entries for these works and for critical materials pertinent to them The volume first seeks to establish the existing studies of the era along with anthologies It then provides entries for a wide ranging selection of works which cover fictional theoretical historical political and cultural topics to provide a comprehensive background to the unfolding and understanding of prose fiction in the early 18th century This is followed by an alphabetical listing of novels their editions and any critical material available on each The next section provides a chronological record of significant and enduring works of fiction composed or translated in this period The volume concludes with extensive indexes Historical Dictionary of Rococo Art Jennifer D. Milam, 2011-04-18 The Rococo emerged in France around 1700 as a playful revolt against the grandeur of the Baroque and the solemnity of Classicism It flourished during the reign of Louis XV and began to go out of fashion in the second half of the 18th century During this brief period of less than a century it spread throughout the courts and cities of Europe with significant regional variations on the style developing in Bavaria Potsdam Venice and Great Britain The period produced an extraordinary number of artistic innovators who challenged received conventions developed novel subject categories and eroded hierarchical distinctions between the arts The Historical Dictionary of Rococo Art covers all aspects of Rococo art history through a chronology an introductory essay a review of the literature an extensive bibliography and over 350 cross referenced dictionary entries on prominent Rococo painters sculptors decorative artists architects patrons theorists and critics as well as major centers of artistic production This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Rococo art      Dreaming with Open Eyes Ayana O. Smith, 2019-03-05 Dreaming with Open Eyes examines visual symbolism in late seventeenth century Italian opera contextualizing the genre amid the broad ocularcentric debates emerging at the crossroads of the early modern period and the Enlightenment Ayana O Smith reevaluates significant aspects of the Arcadian reform aesthetic and establishes a historically informed method of opera criticism for modern scholars and interpreters Unfolding in a narrative fashion the text explores facets of the philosophical and literary background and concludes with close readings of text and music using visual symbolism to create readings of gender and character in two operas Alessandro Scarlatti's La Statira Rome 1690 and Carlo Francesco Pollaro's La forza della virtù Venice 1693 Smith's interdisciplinary approach enhances our modern perception of this rich and underexplored repertory and will appeal to students and scholars not only of opera but also of literature philosophy and visual and intellectual cultures      The Earthly Paradise F. Regina Psaki, Charles Hindley, 2001 The essays contained in this volume constitute not a continuous narrative of the history of how the Eden story in Genesis has been understood but rather a series of snapshots taken at different moments in that history They include examples of Christian Jewish and Islamic interpretations of Genesis in different periods places and contexts They address popular movements learned exegesis literary appropriations and modern theology and philosophy They move from antiquity to the twentieth century and span a spectrum from orthodox to heterodox interpretations of the Eden narrative      A Companion to Milton Thomas N. Corns, 2008-04-15 The diverse and controversial world of contemporary Milton studies is brought alive in this stimulating Companion Winner of the Milton Society of America's Irene Samuels Book Award in 2002 Invites readers to explore and enjoy Milton's rich and fascinating work Comprises 29 fresh and powerful readings of Milton's texts and the contexts in which they were created each written by a leading scholar Looks at literary production and cultural ideologies issues of politics gender and religion individual Milton texts other relevant contemporary texts and responses to Milton over time Devotes a whole chapter to each major poem and four to Paradise Lost Conveys the excitement of recent developments in the field      Dictionary of Artists' Models Jill Berk Jimenez, 2013-10-15 The first reference work devoted to their lives and roles this book provides information on some 200 artists models from the Renaissance to the present day Most entries are illustrated and consist of a brief biography selected works in which the model appears with location a list of further reading This will prove an invaluable reference work for art historians librarians museum and gallery curators as well as students and researchers

The Eschatological Imagination Wietse de Boer,Christine Göttler,2024-10-21 How did the early modern Christian West conceive of the spaces and times of the afterlife The answer to this question is not obvious for a period that saw profound changes in theology when the telescope revealed the heavens to be as changeable and imperfect as the earth and when archaeological and geological investigations made the earth and what lies beneath it another privileged site for the acquisition of new knowledge With its focus on the eschatological imagination at a time of transformation in cosmology this volume opens up new ways of studying early modern religious ideas representations and practices The individual chapters explore a wealth of at times little known visual and textual sources Together they highlight how closely concepts and imaginaries of the hereafter were intertwined with the realities of the here and now Contributors Matteo Al Kalak Monica Azzolini Wietse de Boer Christine G ttler Luke Holloway Martha McGill Walter S Melion Mia M Mochizuki Laurent Paya Rapha le Preisinger Aviva Rothman Minou Schraven Anna Claire Stinebring Jane Tylus and Antoinina Bevan Zlatar

Representations of Endymion and Selene Anna Chiara Corradino, 2025-03-06 A focused study of an ancient myth and its reception which provokes new consideration of how myth in general can challenge social norms Analyzing the visual and literary transformations of the myth of Endymion and Selene Anna Chiara Corradino argues that this myth becomes a valuable tool for understanding the cultural problematization and censorship of female sexuality as well as the marginalization of alternative forms of male sexuality The myth s key themes of dominant femininity reified masculinity and female necrophilia are shaped through the centuries from the core story of Selene the goddess of the Moon falling in love with a mortal shepherd Endymion and granting him eternal sleep so she can kiss him every night In five core sections focusing on the archaeology of the myth in the ancient world the art of the Renaissance to Baroque periods and modern art and film Corradino traces the way the relationship between the two lovers embodies the taboo topic of the eroticization of the sleeping and or dead male body and the suppressed desire of female domination and dominance This research breaks new ground by displaying how these marginal desires have always challenged normativity and have had a profound impact on and through multiple receptions

The Impotency Poem from Ancient Latin to Restoration English Literature Hannah Lavery, 2016-03-03 The first book length study of the motif of impotency in poetry from early antiquity through to the late Restoration this book explores the impotency poem as a recognisable form of poetry in the longer tradition of erotic elegy Hannah Lavery s central claim is that the impotency motif is adopted by poets in recognition of its potential to signify satirically through its use as symbol and allegory By drawing together analysis of works in the tradition Lavery shows how the impotency motif is used to engage with anxieties as to what it means to enact service within political and social contexts She demonstrates that impotency poems can be seen on one level to represent bawdy escapism but on the other to offer positions of resistance and opposition to social and political concerns contemporary to a particular time Whilst the link between the Imperfect Enjoyment poems by Ovid and Rochester is well known Lavery here looks further back to the origins of the concept of male impotency as degradation in the works of earlier Roman poets This is an important context for considering how the impotency poem then first appears in the French and English vernaculars during the sixteenth century leading to translations and adaptations throughout the seventeenth century Lavery's close readings of the poems consider both the nature of the literary form and the political and social contexts within which the works appear in order to chart the intertextual development of the impotency poem as a distinct form of writing in the early modern period

Transatlantic Stowe Denise Kohn, Sarah Meer, Emily B. Todd, 2009-11 Blending historical and cultural criticism and drawing on fresh primary material from London and Paris Transatlantic Stowe includes essays exploring Stowe's relationship with European writers and the influence of her European travels on her work especially the controversial travel narrative Sunny Memories of Foreign Lands and her Italian novel Agnes of Sorrento Jacket

The Structures of Practical Knowledge Matteo Valleriani, 2017-02-20 The Structures of Practical Knowledge investigates the nature of practical knowledge why how when and by whom it is codified and once codified how this knowledge is structured The inquiry unfolds in a series of fifteen case studies which range in focus from early modern Italy to eighteenth century China At the heart of each study is a shared definition of practical knowledge that is knowledge needed to obtain a certain outcome whether that be an artistic or mechanical artifact a healing practice or a mathematical result While the content of practical knowledge is widely variable this study shows that all practical knowledge is formally equivalent in following a defined workflow as reflected in a construction procedure a recipe or an algorithm As explored in the volume's fifteen contributions there are three levels at which structures of practical knowledge may be understood and examined At the most immediate level there are the individual workflows that encompass practical knowledge itself Probing further it is possible to examine the structure of practical knowledge as it is externalized and codified in texts drawings and artifacts such as models Finally practical knowledge is also related to social structures which fundamentally determine its dissemination and evolution into new knowledge structures The social structures of professionals and institutions represent the critical means by which practical knowledge takes form These actors are the agents of codification and by means of selection appropriation investment and knowledge development they determine the formation of new structures of practical knowledge On a more abstract level the creation of new knowledge structures is understood as constituting the basis for the further development of scientific knowledge Rich in subject matter and incisive in the theory it lays out this volume represents an important contribution to the history of science and epistemology Individually the fifteen case studies encompassing the history of architecture mining brewing glass production printing ballistics mechanics cartography cosmology and astronomy are replete with original research and offer new insights into the history of science Taken together the contributions remodel historical epistemology as a whole elucidating the underlining knowledge structures that transcend disciplinary boundaries and that unite practitioners across time and space

Architectures Andrew Ballantyne, 2008-04-15 Architectures Modernism and After surveys the history of the building from the advent of industrialization to the cultural imperatives of the present moment Brings together international art and architectural historians to consider a range of topics that have influenced the shape profile and aesthetics of the built environment Presents crucial moments in the history of the field when the architecture of the past is made to respond to new and changing cultural circumstances Provides a view of architectural history as a part of a continuing dialogue between aesthetic criteria and social and cultural imperatives Part of the New Interventions in Art History Series which is published in conjunction with the Association of Art Historians Nonnus of Panopolis in Context III ,2020-11-30 Nonnus of Panopolis 5th c AD the most important Greek poet of Late Antiquity is best known for his Dionysiaca a grand epic that gathers together all myths associated with Dionysus god of wine and mysteries The poet also authored the Paraphrase of St John s Gospel which renders the Fourth Gospel into sophisticated hexameter verse This volume edited by Filip Doroszewski and Katarzyna Jądrowska brings together twenty six essays by eminent scholars that discuss Nonnus cultural and literary background the literary techniques and motifs used by the poet as well as the composition of the Dionysiaca and the exegetical principles applied in the Paraphrase As such the book will significantly deepen our understanding of literary culture and religion in Late Antiquity
