Heavenly Space in Hebrews and Its Jewish and Christian Environment Stephen C. Wunrow,2025-06-12 Stephen Wunrow addresses the pressing question of what the author of Hebrews meant by his descriptions of heaven arguing that the author intended his references to heavenly space to be interpreted as realistic descriptions of a real place Wunrow posits that language about heaven is neither metaphor nor a description of a place outside the creation by examining other early Jewish and Christian texts that narrate or describe humans ascending into heaven Given the nature and the function of heavenly space as described in these texts Wunrow suggests it is most probable that the authors of the texts intended their descriptions of heavenly space to be understood as realistic Wunrow thus explores 1 and 2 Enoch 4 Ezra 2 and 3 Baruch the Apocalypse of Abraham the Testament of Levi the Testament of Abraham the Ascension of Isaiah and Revelation investigating how other roughly contemporary authors described heavenly space and considering that the rhetorical aims of most of these authors fail unless their readers understand their descriptions of heavenly space in realistic ways Turning then to examine Hebrews Wunrow suggests that while the letter does contain unique features and rhetorical aims it also fits comfortably with other early Jewish and Christian texts that describe humans ascending into heaven in a realistic manner He concludes with reflections on how this conclusion helps to clarify other topics in Hebrews including atonement and eschatology The New Unity, 1897 Questioning Evangelism 2nd ed Randy Newman, 2017-04-25 Sometimes the best answer is a question It's the way Jesus often talked with people as He led them into discussions about the issues that mattered most Campus Crusade for Christ veteran Randy Newman has been using a questioning style of evangelism for years In this provocative book he provides practical insights to help Christians engage others in meaningful spiritual conversations Asking questions Newman suggests doesn't tell unbelievers what to think but instead challenges how we think about people their questions and our message A perennial best seller the second edition includes a chapter in which the author reflects on the success of the book and what that has taught him as well as a new foreword by Lee Strobel Distilled out of twenty years of personal evangelism this book reflects both a deep grasp of biblical theology and a penetrating compassion for people and finds a way forward in wise probing questions How very much like the Master Himself D A Carson Trinity Evangelical Divinity School Questioning Evangelism steps outside the boundaries of evangelism as usual and tackles the tougher issues of our modern day Mitch Glaser Chosen People Ministries The Northwestern Lutheran, 1928
