Choice Lucita O. Villaflores, 2010-11-23 I had been a nurse for more than 2 decades and I witnessed 2 definite situations in the hospital or in the community either to recover or die In this kind of situation I noticed various emotional and behavioral displays For people who recovers it is a celebration of life but for a dying person fear struggles anxiety screaming yelling for help sets in and the joy rest peace with great expectations begun to marvel Why I was 9 years old sickly frail and scared of death wanting to go to heaven but I don't know how I recovered and I was glad but still with a big question how will I go to heaven I was clueless While I was still a nursing student assigned in a hospital I heard someone screaming loudly I don't want to go I saw a big muscled man struggling and fighting with no one around Few hours later I discovered that he died of internal bleeding with wide open eyes and mouth A sign of struggle Why Father's Day Kenneth James Taylor, 2014-07-24

As a companion publication of FATHER'S DAY A Glimpse of Heaven the Study Guide is for group discussion purposes The group needs to understand that the main character Colin Wright is not supposed to be a likeable character Un likeability is an important element in the story Colin is proud rude self seeking contrary and easily angered This is so the intensity of his transformation might be clearly seen as the story unfolds His dysfunction is made tolerable by surrounding him with an adorable wife who loves him likeable colleagues and humorous situations Colin's father isn't likeable either but in him the reader might see the multigenerational aspect of Colin's own dysfunction The patient reader who puts up with Colin and his father in the beginning will be rewarded throughout the story Taking place in three phases the first phase of the story casts Colin Wright as an angry businessman and dysfunctional father The second phase places him in a dramatic place of transition called Hephzibah which can also be called the New Jerusalem and the Holy City The final phase depicts Colin as a changed man Scriptural links reveal the inspiration for the story
