Heavenly Incentives For Earthly Living:

Heavenly Incentives for Earthly Living David Shibley, 1988-01-01 The Rest of Heaven an Incentive to Work on Earth. A Sermon [on Rev. Xiv. 13]. Joshua Clarkson HARRISON, 1857 Rest Siang-Yang Tan, 2003 Come to Me all you who labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest Bringing a distinctly Christian perspective to the subject of finding true rest in the midst of daily pressures Siang Yang Tan diagnoses what ails us and provides thoroughly practical steps to help us respond to Jesus invitation In this book Siang Yang Tan draws from a richness of experience to write with warmth and compassion Since he himself knows the difficulty of slowing down in these hyperactive times he is able to give practical guidelines to others drawn from a wealth of information found in the Scriptures empirical research and psychological reports If rest is not easy for you to put into practice learn from an author who is growing at a healthy pace and willing to bring others along on the journey from the Foreword by Dr Gary R Collins SIANG YANG TAN is professor of psychology at Fuller Theological Seminary He also serves as Senior Pastor of First Evangelical Church in Glendale California He has authored or co authored eight previous books including Disciplines of the Holy Spirit and Understanding Depression He is an associate editor of The Journal of Psychology and Christianity HEAVEN Michael G. Maness, 2004-12-01 In heaven we shall know everlasting rest and the full measure of our inheritance Though no eye has seen what God has prepared for us from Revelation 21 22 we can understand a little of what heaven will feel like We shall know a new freedom economy purity peace and so much more Those will be the simple experiences The greater experiences will be in everlasting love most especially in an everlasting marriage and an enduring intimate community Likewise we shall know a growing and everlasting security within our grand heritage within God's promises and in the work of Christ Yet the greatest experience of all is also the hardest to understand because it is the farthest removed from our earthly experience The greatest experience of all will be that for the rest of our everlasting loving lives we will share in the very life and glory of our dynamic and loving God our loving Father and Abba The greatest experience in heaven will be the very life and light that we share with God Himself so very personal and loving to the uttermost Heaven and Philosophy Simon Cushing, 2017-11-30 This volume is a collection of essays analyzing different issues concerning the nature possibility and desirability of heaven as understood by the Abrahamic faiths of Judaism Christianity and Islam Topics include whether or not it is possible that a mortal could upon bodily death become an inhabitant of heaven without loss of identity where exactly heaven might be located whether or not everyone should be saved or if there might be alternative destinations including some less fiery versions of Hell Chapter authors include believers and skeptics well known philosophers and new voices While some chapters are more challenging than others all are written in a style that should be accessible to any interested reader Castles, Battles, & Bombs Jurgen Brauer, Hubert van Tuyl, 2024-05-31 Castles Battles and Bombs reconsiders key episodes of military history from the point of view of economics with dramatically insightful results For example when looked at as a question of sheer cost the building of castles in the High Middle Ages seems almost inevitable though stunningly expensive a strong castle was far cheaper to maintain than a standing army The authors also reexamine the strategic bombing of Germany in World War II and provide new insights into France's decision to develop nuclear weapons Drawing on these examples and more Brauer and Van Tuyl suggest lessons for today's military from counterterrorist strategy and military manpower planning to the use of private military companies in Afghanistan and Iraq In bringing economics into assessments of military history the authors also bring illumination The authors turn their interdisciplinary lens on the mercenary arrangements of Renaissance Italy the wars of Marlborough Frederick the Great and Napoleon Grant's campaigns in the Civil War and the strategic bombings of World War II The results are invariably stimulating Martin Walker Wilson Quarterly This study is serious creative important As an economist I am happy to see economics so professionally applied to illuminate major decisions in the history of warfare Thomas C Schelling Winner of the 2005 Nobel Prize in Economics

Celebrating Flamenco's Tangled Roots K. Meira Goldberg, Antoni Pizà, 2022-01-18 This collection of essays poses a series of questions revolving around nonsense cacophony queerness race and the dancing body How can flamenco as a diasporic complex of performance and communities of practice frictionally and critically bound to the complexities of Spanish history illuminate theories of race and identity in performance How can we posit and argue for genealogical relationships within and between genres across the vast expanses of the African and Roma diaspora Neither are the essays presented here limited to flamenco nor consequently are the responses to these questions reduced to this topic What all the contributions here do share is the wish to come together across disciplines and subject areas within the academy and without in the whirling raucous and messy spaces where the body is free to celebrate its questioning as well as the depths of the wisdom and knowledge it holds and sometimes reveals Heaven in the American Imagination Gary Scott Smith, 2011-06-01 Does heaven exist If so what is it like And how does one get in Throughout history painters poets philosophers pastors and many ordinary people have pondered these questions Perhaps no other topic captures the popular imagination quite like heaven Gary Scott Smith examines how Americans from the Puritans to the present have imagined heaven He argues that whether Americans have perceived heaven as reality or fantasy as God's home or a human invention as a source of inspiration and comfort or an opiate that distracts from earthly life or as a place of worship or a perpetual playground has varied largely according to the spirit of the age In the colonial era conceptions of heaven focused primarily on the glory of God For the Victorians heaven was a warm comfortable home where people would live forever with their family and friends Today heaven is often less distinctively Christian and more of a celestial entertainment center or a paradise where everyone can reach his full potential Drawing on an astounding array of sources including works of art music sociology psychology folklore liturgy sermons poetry fiction jokes and devotional books Smith paints a sweeping provocative portrait of what Americans from Jonathan Edwards to Mitch Albom have thought about heaven
