Heaviest Blow The Catholic Church And The East Timor Ibue:

The Heaviest Blow Patrick A. Smythe, 2004 The author examines responses within the international Catholic community to the annexation and rule of East Timor by Indonesia from 1975-1999. Theoretically the Catholic Church is committed to prioritise the needs of the poorest and weakest members of the human family but the evidence put forward here reveals that there were significant shortcomings in its reaction to the plight of the East Timorese. Yet the Church also played a crucial role in their eventual achievement of independent nationhood. This study scrutinises the disposition of the Catholic community in several countries closely involved in the issue of East Timor: Indonesia, Portugal, Australia, Japan, Britain, the United States and of the Vatican and calls upon the Church to live up to its own social doctrine. Bishop Carlos Belo, Apostolic Administrator emeritus of the Diocese of Dili, East Timor, comments in an Afterword to the book. This excellent study carries concrete lessons for the global community as we face the many challenges of the new millennium. In essence, how can we best help our brothers and sisters who often suffer in silence? This book helps to answer that question. The heaviest blow Patrick A. Smythe, 1993

The Heaviest Blow Patrick Anthony Smythe, University of Leeds, 2001 From the Place of the Dead Arnold S. Kohen, 2025-08-22 Winner of the Christopher Award. From the Place of the Dead is the definitive account of one of the worst human rights tragedies in contemporary history. East Timor's struggle for independence under Indonesian occupation has dominated international headlines. Now as UN troops uphold the August 1999 referendum calling for the island nation's self-rule, From the Place of the Dead offers the only up-to-date comprehensive analysis of the confrontation through the eyes of one of the most extraordinary leaders to emerge from the crisis: Bishop Carlos Ximenes Belo. Winner of the Nobel Prize for Peace in 1996, he has been a fearless guardian of the basic human rights of the East Timorese people. Arnold Kohen's intimate knowledge of the political, religious and social history of the region paints a penetrating portrait of this beleaguered nation and reveals the extent of international complicity in the violence. Bonded Through Tragedy United in Hope Hilton Deakin, Jim D'Orsa, Therese D'Orsa, 2017-04-17 The story of one country's struggle for independence. The Catholic Church in East Timor Juan Federer, 1994 From the Place of the Dead Arnold S. Kohen, 1999 In 1975 Indonesia illegally invaded East Timor, until then a Portuguese colony. Since then an estimated 200,000 people, nearly one-third of the territory's original population, have perished from war, famine and killings. Now, after the fall of Indonesia's longtime strongman General Suharto, East Timor is in the public eye and seems on the verge of winning independence. No one has been more crucial to this development than Bishop Belo, the first Catholic bishop ever to win the Nobel Peace Prize. In From the Place of the Dead, journalist Arnold Kohen has written the first full-length biography of Bishop Belo. Kohen, who has had unparalleled access to Bishop Belo for the past five years, provides not only a penetrating portrait of the Timorese prelate but also the definitive account of a tortured country and the politics in which it is embroiled. Fighting Spirit of East Timor Rowena Lennox, 2000 Martinho da Costa Lopes is an East Timorese national hero, the first Timorese leader of the East

Timorese Catholic Church and an outspoken supporter of human rights and self determination Fighting Spirit of East Timor is the story of this extraordinary man s life Born in East Timor in 1918 Dom Martinho was educated in the traditional hierarchy of the Catholic education system During the early 1970s he edited the church newspaper Seara until it was closed by the Portuguese secret police in 1973 After the Indonesian invasion of East Timor in 1975 Martinho worked tirelessly to protect human rights He was the first person to speak out publicly within East Timor about the abuses perpetrated by the occupation forces attracting criticism from the Indonesian government but in the mid 1980s it seemed the world did not care Martinho was slandered by Australian politicians and the press and he resigned from the position of Apostolic administrator under pressure from the Vatican In 1983 he left Timor and in exile in Portugal he was spurned by the Catholic Church He travelled extensively speaking and raising awareness about East Timor and died in 1991 Rowena Lennox has created a moving and dramatic portrait of a man who continues to inspire the East Timorese people in their struggle for social justice

The Catholic Church, Religious Revival and the Nationalist Movement in East Timor, 1975 - 1995 Peter B. R. Carey,1995 The Church and East Timor ,1993 Resisting Violence and Victimisation Joel Hodge,2016-03-23 The reality and nature of religious faith raises difficult questions for the modern world questions that re present themselves when faith has grown under the most challenging circumstances In East Timor widespread Christian faith emerged when suffering and violence were inflicted on the people by the state This book seeks a deeper understanding of faith and violence exploring how Christian faith and solidarity affected the hope and resistance of the East Timorese under Indonesian occupation in their response to state sanctioned violence Joel Hodge argues for an understanding of Christian faith as a relational phenomenon that provides personal and collective tools to resist violence Grounded in the work of mimetic theorist Ren Girard Hodge contends that the experience of victimisation in East Timor led to an important identification with Jesus Christ as self giving victim and formed a distinctive communal and ecclesial solidarity The Catholic Church opened spaces of resistance and communion that allowed the Timorese to imagine and live beyond the violence and death perpetrated by the Indonesian regime Presenting the East Timorese stories under occupation and Girard s insights in dialogue this book offers fresh perspectives on the Christian Church s ecclesiology and mission East Timor's Struggle Christians in Solidarity with East Timor, The Catholic Church and Human Rights Carmela A. to organise the long delayed referendum giving the East Timorese a choice between continued association with Indonesia or independence At the very moment the historic vote was being counted however armed gangs organised by elements of the Indonesian military plunged the island into an orgy of killing burning and forced flight An appalled world witnessed their bloody defiance of the people s will and of the international community John Taylor analyses the world reaction to this new genocide of the East Timorese people the belated despatch of a peacekeeping force and the prospects of independence Jacket
