Hebes Story The Inspiring Rise And Dismaying Evo:

Hebe's Story Patricia Owen Steiner, 2003 Hebe's Story through the translated words of Hebe de Bonafini traces the impact of the Dirty War in Argentina on an organization of the mothers of the 30 000 disappeared By the downfall of the dictatorship in 1983 these women were symbols of non violent political action and an inspiration for women's peaceful protest groups around the world But the story of the Mothers of the Plaza de Mayo does not neatly end there it continues as the Mothers evolved in new and surprising even shocking ways The image of the Mothers movement as a model of peaceful protest now needs to be reconsidered Political Invisibility and Mobilization Selina Gallo-Cruz, 2020-12-30 Political Invisibility and Mobilization explores the unseen opportunities available to those considered irrelevant and disregarded during periods of violent repression In a comparative study of three women's peace movements in Argentina the former Yugoslavia and Liberia the concept of political invisibility is developed to identify the unexpected beneficial effects of marginalization in the face of regime violence and civil war Each chapter details the unique ways these movements avoided being targeted as threats to regime power and how they utilized free spaces to mobilize for peace Their organizing efforts among international networks are described as a form of field shifting that gained them the authority to expand their work at home to bring an end to war and rebuild society The robust conceptual framework developed herein offers new ways to analyze the variations and nuances of how social status interacts with opportunities for effective activism This book presents a sophisticated theory of political invisibility with historical detail from three remarkable stories of courage in the face of atrocity With relevance for political sociology social movement studies women's studies and peace and conflict studies it contributes to scholarly understanding of mobilization in repressive states while also offering strategic insight to movement practitioners Winner of the ASA Peace War and Social Conflict Section's 2021 Outstanding Book Award Human Rights Movement and Discourse. Mercedes Barros, 2018-03-06 This book accounts for the process of emergence and constitution of the human rights movement and discourse during the last military dictatorship in Argentina 1976 1983 Central to this account is the contention that the movement's emergence and constitution should not be understood as a necessary or as a natural response to the atrocities carried out by the last military regime but instead as the result of a contingent process of political articulation and as a response which could have failed in its constitution and success Thus the appearance of the human rights movement and discourse in the country can only be understood in its full complexity if attention is given to this very process of popular mobilisation and political articulation that took place during 1976 1982 Decolonizing Global Citizenship Education Ali A Abdi, Lynette Shultz, Thashika Pillay, 2015-12-01 The ideas for this reader came out of a conference organized through the Centre for Global Citizenship Education and Research CGCER at the University of Alberta in 2013 With the high expansion of global citizenship education scholarship in the past 15 or so years and with most of this scholarship produced in the west and mostly focused on the citizenship lives of people in the so called developing world or selectively attempting to explain the contexts of marginalized populations in the west the need for multidirectional and decolonizing knowledge and research perspectives should be clear Indeed the discursive as well as the practical constructions of current global citizenship education research cannot fulfill the general promise of learning and teaching programs as social development platforms unless the voices of all concerned are heard and validated With these realities this reader is topically comprehensive and timely and should constitute an important intervention in our efforts to create and sustain more inclusive and liberating platforms of knowledge and learning This collection of cutting edge theoretical contributions examines citizenship and neo liberal globalization and their impacts on the nexus of the local and global learning production of knowledge and movements of people and their rights Case studies in the collection also provide in depth analysis of lived experiences that challenge the constructed borders which derive from colonial and imperial re structuring of the contemporary world and nation states The contributors articulate agency in terms of both resistance and proactive engagement toward the construction of an alternative world which acknowledges equality justice and common humanity of all in symbiosis with the social and natural environment It is a valuable reader for students scholars practitioners and activists interested in the empowering possibilities of decolonized global citizenship education N Dr Hebe's Story Patricia Owen Steiner, 2003 Hebe s Story through the translated words of Hebe de Bonafini traces the impact of the Dirty War in Argentina on an organization of the mothers of the 30 000 disappeared By the downfall of the dictatorship in 1983 these women were symbols of non violent political action and an inspiration for women s peaceful protest groups around the world But the story of the Mothers of the Plaza de Mayo does not neatly end there it continues as the Mothers evolved in new and surprising even shocking ways The image of the Mothers movement as a model of peaceful protest now needs to be reconsidered
