Hebrew Thought Compared With Greek:

Hebrew Thought Compared with Greek Thorleif Boman, 1960 Builds on the premise that language and thought are inevitably and inextricably bound up with each other A classic study of the differences between Greek and Hebrew thought John E Rexrine Colgate University Hebrew Thought Compared to Greek Boman T Staff, 1991-01-01 Hebrew Thought Compared With Greek. Translated by Jules L. Moreau Thorleif Boman, 1960 The Political Consequences of Thinking

Jennifer Ring, 2012-02-01 In this book Jennifer Ring offers a wholly new interpretation of Hannah Arendt's work from Eichmann in Jerusalem with its bitter reception by the Jewish community to The Life of the Mind Departing from previous scholarship Ring applies the perspectives of gender and ethnicity to investigate the extent to which Arendt's identity as a Jewish woman influenced both her thought and its reception Ring's analysis of Zionist and assimilationist responses to century old antisemitic sexual stereotypes leads her to argue that Arendt's criticism of European Jewish leadership during the Holocaust was bound to be explosive New York and Israeli Jews shared a rare moment of unity in their condemnation of Arendt charging that she had betrayed the Jewish community the kind of charge Ring contends often leveled against women who dare to speak out publicly against prominent men in their own cultural or racial groups The book moves from a feminist analysis of the Eichmann controversy to a discussion of Jewish themes in the structure and content of Arendt's major theoretical works Ring makes a powerful contribution to an understanding of Arendt and of multiculturalism demonstrating that Arendt's most sustained philosophical work was influenced as much by her Jewish heritage as by her German education

John Morris, 1995 Morris's revised study on the Gospel According to John is part of The New International Commentary on the New Testament Prepared by some of the world's leading scholars the series provides an exposition of the New Testament books that is thorough and fully abreast of modern scholarship yet faithful to the Scriptures as the infallible Word of God Figuring the Sacred Paul Ricoeur, The thought of Paul Ricoeur continues its profound effect on theology religious studies and biblical interpretation The 28 papers contained in this volume constitute the most comprehensive overview of Ricoeur's writings in religion since 1970 Ricoeur's hermeneutical orientation and his sensitivity to the mystery of religious language offer fresh insight to the transformative potential of sacred literature including the Bible The Thiselton Companion to Christian Theology Anthony C. Thiselton, 2015-02-06 Covering everything from Abba to Zwingli The Thiselton Companion to Christian Theology offers a comprehensive account of a wide sweep of topics and thinkers in Christian theology Written entirely by eminent scholar Anthony Thiselton the book features a coherence lacking in most multi-authored volumes Drawing on his encyclopedic knowledge gained from fifty plus years of study and teaching Thiselton provides some six hundred articles on various aspects of theology throughout the centuries The entries comprise both short descriptive surveys and longer essays of original assessment on central theological topics such as atonement Christology God and Holy Spirit and on such theologians as Aquinas Augustine Barth Calvin King Luther Moltmann and Pannenberg The book also includes a helpful time chart dating all of the theologians discussed and highlighting key events in Christian history select reading suggestions conclude each of the longer entries Equally valuable for research and teaching The Thiselton Companion to Christian Theology will be a go to reference for pastors students teachers and theologians everywhere

Paul's Glory-Christology Carey C. Newman, 2014-04-09 In 1927 C A A Scott while commenting on the apostle Paul's Christology remarked that the history of the word Glory in the Bible has yet to be written By using methodology developed in semantics semiotics and more generally literary theory Newman examines the origin and rhetoric of Paul's Glory Christology The investigation involves three distinct tasks 1 to plot the tradition history of Glory which formed part of Paul's linguistic world 2 to examine Paul's letter in light of the reconstructed tradition history of Glory in order to discern the rationale of Paul's identification of Christ as Glory and 3 to map out the implications of such an identification for Paul's theological and rhetorical strategy On the basis of this study four conclusions are reached for understanding Paul First Paul inherited a symbolic universe with signs already full of signification Second knowing the diachronically acquired connotative range of a surface symbol e g Glory aids in discerning Paul's precise contingent strategy Third knowing the surface symbol's referential power defines and contributes to the deeper structure of Paul's theological grammar Finally the heuristic power within the construals of the Glory tradition coalesce in Paul's Christophany and thus provide coherence at the deepest level of Paul's Christology

Time, Eternity, and the Trinity Eunsoo Kim, 2010-03-01 One of the vital issues in contemporary Christian theology is the problem of a renewed understanding of God's eternity and its relation to time This is not merely a peripheral doctrinal issue but lies at the heart of our understanding of God and humanity and contributes to our entire worldview This study focuses on a long standing debate between two competing views on God's eternity one focused on God's absolute timelessness in classical theism and the other on God's temporal everlastingness in contemporary panentheism In contrast to both of these well worn options this book presents an alternative Trinitarian analogical understanding of God's eternity and its relation to time especially through a critical reflection on Karl Barth's and Hans Urs von Balthasar's engagement of the issue This analogical approach based on the dynamic and dramatic concepts of God's being in relation and of the Triune God's communicative action in eternity and time has the potential to resolve the debate between absolute timeless eternity and temporal everlasting duration

A Quest for Hope - Searching for Ways out of Postmodernism into New Reality Jan Chr. Vaessen, 2009 The History of the Jewish People in the Age of Jesus Christ: Volume 3.i Emil Schürer, Geza Vermes, Fergus Millar, 2014-01-30 Emil Schürer's Geschichte des jüdischen Volkes im Zeitalter Jesu Christi originally published in German between 1874 and 1909 and in English between 1885 and 1891 is a critical presentation of Jewish history institutions and literature from 175 B C to A D 135 It has rendered invaluable services to scholars for nearly a century The present work offers a fresh translation and a revision of the entire subject matter The bibliographies have been rejuvenated and supplemented the sources are presented according to the latest scholarly editions and all the new archaeological epigraphical numismatic and literary evidence including the Dead Sea Scrolls and the Bar Kokhba documents has been introduced into the survey Account has also been taken of the progress in historical research both in the classical and Jewish fields This work reminds students of the profound debt owed to nineteenth century learning setting it within a wider framework of contemporary knowledge and provides a foundation on which future historians of Judaism in the age of Jesus may build

Preface to Theology John Howard Yoder, 2002-04-01 Long familiar to theologians and theology students John Howard Yoder 1927 1997 is increasingly recognized as one of the most significant theologians of the later twentieth century Yoder hailed as a gifted proponent of Anabaptist social ethics was also an astute and ecumenically minded constructive theologian Preface to Theology initially developed as seminary course material is key to understanding Yoder's theology and his ever central commitment to Christology It provides an introduction to the traditional categories of systematic theology suggesting Yoder's concern with our posture toward theological study and the importance of viewing this study as a vital ongoing process Preface to Theology introduced by Stanley Hauerwas and Alex Sider includes updated documentation of Yoder's sources The approachable student friendly format makes this volume now officially in print for the first time ideal for both the beginning theology student and the advanced scholar Readers in all Christian traditions will find it a penetrating introduction to theology students of Yoder's thought will find it indispensable

Sodom and Gomorrah Weston W. Fields, 1997-01-01 According to Fields biblical narrative is didactic socio religious commentary on human experience reflected in history and that such history is a way of describing the conceptual universe of the ancient authors Biblical narrative is strikingly free of abstract formulations but encapsulates abstract reflections within recurring literary motifs and by the reporting of historical information This perception of biblical narrative is strikingly illustrated by an analysis of the story of Sodom and Gomorrah Genesis 19 The motifs of the Sodom tradition are compared with those in the stories about the concubine in Gibeah Judges 19 and about the destruction of Jericho Joshua 2

Through a Speculum That Shines Elliot R. Wolfson, 2020-06-30 A comprehensive treatment of visionary experience in some of the main texts of Jewish mysticism this book reveals the overwhelmingly visual nature of religious experience in Jewish spirituality from antiquity through the late Middle Ages Using phenomenological and critical historical tools Wolfson examines Jewish mystical texts from late antiquity pre kabbalistic sources from the tenth to the twelfth centuries and twelfth and thirteenth century kabbalistic literature His work demonstrates that the sense of sight assumes an epistemic priority in these writings reflecting and building upon those scriptural passages that affirm the visual nature of revelatory experience Moreover the author reveals an androcentric eroticism in the scopic mentality of Jewish mystics which placed the externalized and representable form the phallus at the center of the visual encounter In the visionary experience as Wolfson describes it imagination serves a primary function transmuting sensory data and rational concepts into symbols of those things beyond sense and reason In this view the experience of a vision is inseparable from the process of interpretation Fundamentally challenging the conventional distinction between experience and exegesis revelation and interpretation Wolfson argues that for the mystics themselves the study of texts occasioned a visual experience of the divine located in the imagination of the mystical interpreter Thus he shows how Jewish mystics preserved the invisible transcendence of God without doing away with the visual dimension of belief Lectures on Government and Binding Noam Chomsky,1993 The architecture of the human language faculty has been one of the main foci of the linguistic research of the last half century This branch of linguistics broadly known as Generative Grammar is concerned with the formulation of explanatory formal accounts of linguistic phenomena with the ulterior goal of gaining insight into the properties of the language organ The series comprises high quality monographs and collected volumes that address such issues The topics in this series range from phonology to semantics from syntax to information structure from mathematical linguistics to studies of the lexicon The Genesis Conspiracy Wayne Talbot,2022-01-24 Did the early Church of Rome conspire with the pagan Emperor Constantine to create a new religion for the West superseding Judaism and displacing the Children of Israel as God s First Born Son Exodus 4 22 Catholic scholar Bernard Lee observed Most Christological interpretation has been supersessionist that is it has interpreted Jesus as initiating a new Covenant that supersedes Judaism Historically it is quite improbable that Jesus had any such thing in mind Similarly There is little likelihood that Jesus had any conscious intention of founding a new religious institution either superseding Judaism or alongside it The obvious question is If that was not in the mind of Jesus on whose life and teachings Christianity is said to be based in whose mind was it This study examines the wealth of evidence that has convinced the author that in truth Christianity is a centuries old conspiracy with significant anti Jewish undercurrents Picture Imperfect Russell Jacoby,2005 Many observers judge utopians and their sympathizers as foolhardy dreamers at best and murderous totalitarians at worst However as noted social critic and historian Russell Jacoby argues not only has utopianism been unfairly characterized a return to an iconoclastic utopian spirit is vital for today s society Jacoby reexamines the anti utopian mindset and identifies how utopian thought came to be regarded with such suspicion He challenges standard readings of such anti utopian classics as 1984 and Brave New World and offers stinging critiques of the influential liberal and anti utopian theorists Hannah Arendt Isaiah Berlin and Karl Popper As Jacoby demonstrates iconoclastic utopianism shaped by the works of Theodor Adorno Walter Benjamin Ernst Bloch Gustav Landauer and other predominantly Jewish thinkers revives society s dormant political imagination and suggests new and more imaginative ideas of the future The Art of Drawing Closer to God Belinda É. Samari,2020-03-16 In a work that is both imaginative and ambitious Belinda exploits very well the spiritual potential of the Old Testament Her specialist knowledge of Hebrew and psychology combine well in ways that are accessible to the lay person showcasing the potential of approaching Scripture this way Belinda s explanation of the difference between Hebrew and Greek thinking and its relationship to left and right hemisphere thinking not only sheds light on individual biblical texts but also creates an exciting environment for spiritual growth Dr Laurence Turner Professor Emeritus of Old Testament Theology Sensing the World David Le Breton, 2020-05-31 Sensing the World An Anthropology of the Senses is a highly original and comprehensive overview of the anthropology and sociology of the body and the senses. Discussing each sense in turn: seeing, hearing, touch, smell, and taste, Le Breton has written a truly monumental work, vast in scope and deeply engaging in style. Among other pioneering moves, he gives equal attention to light and darkness, sound and silence, and his disputation of taste explores aspects of disgust and revulsion. Part phenomenological, part historical, this is above all a cultural account of perception which returns the body and the senses to the center of social life. Le Breton is the leading authority on the anthropology of the body and the senses in French academia. With a reputation comparable to the late Pierre Bourdieu, his 30 books have been translated into numerous languages. This is the first of his works to be made available in English. This sensuously nuanced translation of La Saveur du monde is accompanied by a spicy preface from series editor David Howes who introduces Le Breton's work to an English speaking audience and highlights its implications for the disciplines of anthropology, sociology, and the cross disciplinary field of sensory studies.

The History of the Second Temple Period Paolo Sacchi, 2004-12-13 This book represents the fruit of a long process of study and reflection, a powerful but subtle synthesis by one of the most eminent scholars of Second Temple Judaism. Far from a conventional narrative history, it is organized around themes and seeks to uncover the essence of Hebraic Jewish religious thinking while confronting the phenomenon of its division into several parties and traditions. Drawing also on recent studies of Christianity as a Judaism, Sacchi provides a stimulating perspective on the nature of ancient Oriental and Occidental thought and the intellectual and spiritual heritage of European civilization.
