Hebrews, the General Letters, and Revelation Charles B. Puskas,2016-10-28 Most New Testament NT introductions because of page limitations and other reasons tend to minimize their treatment of the last nine books of the Christian Bible from Hebrews to Revelation The focus in these introductions is often on the four Gospels and the Letters of Paul As important as these books are one should not neglect with only a brief survey the treatment of Hebrews the General Letters and the book of Revelation The title given later to the collection Catholic Epistles or General Letters is a reminder of its general appeal to the whole church despite its slow canonical recognition and authorship issues Nevertheless these writings from Hebrews to Revelation continue to capture our attention and ignite our imagination My purpose for this book is to supplement my NT introduction and others like it with a focus on specific questions about each book from Hebrews to Revelation When and why was each book written By whom and to whom was each book written What are some special features of each book How soon or late was each book included in the NT collection Answers to many of these questions are tentative The assured results of scholarship are in continual need of reevaluation Since the 1980s a host of diverse studies have emerged and I have endeavored to include them when they are relevant to the discussion

Priesthood and Temple in John's Apocalypse Timothy B. Tse, 2024-12-12 Timothy B Tse argues that while John uses language drawn from the Hebrew Bible s descriptions of YHWH s dwelling place scholarship has overlooked the importance of his spatial transformation of that language Tse thus uses theories relating to Relevance Resistance Theory Critical Space Theory and Conceptual Metaphor to demonstrate that a significant part of John s apocalyptic strategy of resistance is to re present his vision to his audience spatially so that they can experience a divinely ordained alternative to the world in which they live Tse first demonstrates John s attempts to relegate his audience s experience of space to his own revelation John s description of the visionary world creates the metaphors the earth is a Sanctuary and the Saints are its priests Tse argues that under this view life on earth must be evaluated according to the concerns of the Sanctuary which by definition requires the removal of everything impure and the Saints namely all Christians in both the historic and visionary worlds must take priestly responsibility for the earth John therefore portrays the Saints joining in the removal of all impurity upon the earth by fighting as priests in God and the Lamb s war against Satan Babylon and all her impurities Tse concludes that overall John means to realign the church's experience of space so that they understand themselves as priests of the Sanctuary and live according to that reality
