BEDFORD STREET A Journey From A Small Town...A Collection of Memories By Robert Arrandale Robert Arrandale, 2011-11-10 Having grown up in a small town and later telling stories about youthful occurrences during that time only fueled the author's need to eventually write some of them down Many everyday people write their memoirs This book is no different and it could be said that this collection of short stories or vignettes put together are with humor matter of factness and honesty Without much coaxing the reader is led down Bedford Street through the many tales along the way Whether it's an unforgettable Christmas being caught in a lie getting the first bicycle or meeting one's first girlfriend it's an easy trip And one that may unassumingly reveal some friendly counsel or direction for youngsters growing up no matter where they live 5 9 2011 The Indigenous Black People of Monroe, Louisiana and the Surrounding Cities, Towns, and Villages James O. McHenry ED.D, 2010-10-26 This book is for those Louisiana slaves and all the American slaves whose labor was forced without regard to their humanity even further with unrestrained disrespect for their existence This book is a tribute to the indigenous originated in or native to the region Black people of Northeast Louisiana those folk who were reared in the rural areas villages and small towns who worked on the farms and plantations sharecropped cleared all the land tended all the livestock planted and harvested all the crops cooked for babysat and cleaned the homes of White folk and endured the hardships of it all This is a tribute to those laborers and professionals who strived for better lives for themselves and their families the people who remained in Monroe those who migrated to Monroe to make it a fine place to call home and those who returned to the warmth of Monroe to live and also to those who left the area and moved on to other parts of the United States and world I want to thank them all for trusting me with their stories The Anthropology of Turquoise Ellen Meloy, 2008-11-26 In this invigorating mix of natural history and adventure artist naturalist Ellen Meloy uses turquoise the color and the gem to probe deeper into our profound human attachment to landscape From the Sierra Nevada the Mojave Desert the Yucatan Peninsula and the Bahamas to her home ground on the high plateaus and deep canyons of the Southwest we journey with Meloy through vistas of both great beauty and great desecration Her keen vision makes us look anew at ancestral mountains turquoise seas and even motel swimming pools She introduces us to Navajo velvet grandmothers whose attire and aesthetics absorb the vivid palette of their homeland as well as to Persians who consider turquoise the life saving equivalent of a bullet proof vest Throughout Meloy invites us to appreciate along with her the endless surprises in all of life and celebrates the seduction to be found in our visual surroundings Cheerleaders Can't Afford to be Nice Susan Sullivan Saiter, 1990 Cheerleaders cannot afford to be nice just ask Crosby Rawson who found it out the hard way Hers is the saga along with her family of a midwestern girl really midwestern never mind those cute little types who come to the big city to pretend they never heard of Battle Creek or Toledo or Country Club Hills without the club and damn few hills who from the day she hit her teens wanted to be in the middle class and had to fight like hell to get there Eleven Miles South of Half
