Hedayats Blind Owl As A Western Novel:

Hedayat's Blind Owl as a Western Novel Michael Beard, 2014-07-14 The Iranian writer Sadeq Hedayat is the most influential figure in twentieth century Persian fiction and the object of a kind of cult after his suicide in 1951 His masterpiece The Blind Owl is the most important novel of modern Iran Its abrupt tortured opening sentence There are sores which slowly erode the mind in solitude like a kind of canker is one of the best known and most frequently recited passages of modern Persian But underneath the book's uncanniness and its narrative eccentricities Michael Beard traces an elegant pastiche of familiar Western traditions A work of advocacy for a disturbing and powerful piece of fiction his comprehensive analysis reveals the significance of The Blind Owl as a milestone not only for Persian writing but also for world literature The international decentered nature of modernist writing outside the West typified by Hedayat's European education and wide reading in the Western canon suggested to Beard the strategy of assessing The Blind Owl as if it were a Western novel Viewed in this context Hedayat's intricate chronicle challenges the very notion of a national literature rethinking and reshaping our traditions until we are compelled through its eyes to see them in a new way Originally published in 1990 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

World Literature and Hedayat's Poetics of Modernity Omid Azadibougar, 2020-02-01 This book introduces the canonical figure Sadeq Hedayat 1903-1951 and draws a comprehensive image of a major intellectual force in the context of both modern Persian Literature and World Literature A prolific writer known for his magnum opus The Blind Owl 1936 Hedayat established the use of common language for literary purposes opened new horizons on imaginative literature and explored a variety of genres in his creative career This book looks beyond the reductive critical tendencies that read a rich and diverse literary profile in light of Hedayat's suicide arguing instead that his literary imagination was not solely the result of genius but rather enriched by a vast network of the world's literary traditions This study reflects on Hedayat's attempts at various genres of artistic creation including painting fiction writing satire and scholarly research as well as his persistent struggles for artistic authenticity which transcended solidly established literary and artistic norms Providing a critical reading of Hedayat's work to untangle aspects of his writing including reflections on science religion nationalism and coloniality alongside his pioneering work on folk culture and how humor informs his writings this text offers a critical review of the status of Persian literature in the contemporary landscape of the world's literary studies

Middle Eastern Gothics Karen Grumberg, 2022-12-15 The chapters in this study cover the four major Middle Eastern languages Arabic Hebrew Persian and Turkish and are authored by experts in these literatures who read and engage with these texts in their original languages Their intimate knowledge of the linguistic and cultural contexts of the works they analyse provides readers access to nuances in the texts and ultimately to a more profound understanding of them This is the first cohesive collection addressing the Gothic in the geographic linguistic context of the Middle East region There has been increased interest not only in global iterations of the Gothic but also in Middle Eastern writing particularly when it intersects with the Gothic i e Frankenstein in Baghdad The Introduction of the volume offers a new theorisation of Gothic literature proposing the transnational region as a frame for reading literary texts that cross national and linguistic boundaries The Facts on

File Companion to the World Novel Michael Sollars, Arbolina Llamas Jennings, 2008 The Novel, Volume 1 Franco

Moretti, 2006 Publisher Description Literary Subterfuge and Contemporary Persian Fiction Mohammad

Khorrani, 2014-09-25 The main focus of Literary Subterfuge and Contemporary Persian Fiction is to identify components and elements which define Persian modernist fiction placing an emphasis on literary concepts and devices which provide the dynamics of the evolutionary trajectory of this modernism The question of who writes Iran refers to a contested area which goes beyond the discipline of literary criticism Non literary discourses have made every effort to impose their committed readings on literary texts they have even managed to exert influence on the process of literary creation In this process inevitably many works or segments of them and many concepts which do not lend themselves to such readings have been ignored at the same time many of them have been appropriated by these discourses Yet components and elements of Persian literary tradition have persistently engaged in this discursive confrontation mainly by insisting on literature's relative autonomy so that at least concepts such as conformity and subterfuge essential in terms of defining modern and modernist Persian fiction could be defined in a literary manner Proffering an alternative in terms of literary historiography this book supports a methodological approach that considers literary narratives which occur in the margins of dominant discourses and indeed promote non discursivity as the main writers of Persian modernist fiction It is an essential resource for scholars and researchers interested in Persian and comparative literature as well as Middle Eastern Studies more broadly Éirinn & Iran go Brách Mansour Bonakdarian, 2023-12-05 This book analyzes particular patterns of nationalist self configuration and nationalist uses of memory counter memory and historical amnesia in Ireland from roughly around the time of the emergence of a broad based non sectarian Irish nationalist platform in the late eighteenth century the Society of United Irishmen until Ireland's partition and the founding of the Irish Free State in 1922 In approaching Irish nationalism through the particular historical lens of Iran this book underscores the fact that Irish nationalism during this period and even earlier always utilized a historical paradigm that grounded Anglo Irish encounters and Irish nationalism in the broader world history a process that I term worlding of Ireland In effect Irish nationalism was always politically and culturally cosmopolitan in outlook in some formulations even in the case of many nationalists who resorted to insular and narrowly defined exclusionary ethnic and or religious formulations of the Irish nation Irish nationalists as nationalists in many other parts of the world recurrently imagined their own history either in contrast to or as reflected in the histories of peoples and lands elsewhere even while claiming the historical uniqueness of the Irish experience Present in a wide range of Irish nationalist political cultural and historical utterances were assertions of past and or present affinities with other peoples and lands

World View in Pre-revolutionary Iran Claus V. Pedersen,2002 The Iranian revolution of 1978 1979 and its transformation into an Islamic revolution has been an object of study the last couple of decades The book does not attempt to explain the revolution and the theocracy it resulted in but takes interest in the modes of thought world views that preceded the revolution in order to understand the cultural context in which the revolution happened However only a limited part of the Iranian culture is studied namely the literary part more precisely five of the leading shortstory writers Seyyed Mohammad Al Jamalzadeh Sadeq Hedayat Sadeq Chubak Jamal A le Ahmad and Hu ang Gol hiri The analyses of the short stories show that the underlying world views are strictly secular As a contextualisation of the literary works four Iranian thinkers and ideologists Jamal al Din Afghani 1838 1897 Ahmad Kasravi 1890 1946 Seyyed Hoseyn Nasr b 1933 and Ali hariati 1933 1977 are presented With Seyyed Hoseyn Nasr as an exception the study of the world views of these four shows a development towards secular modes of thought

Persian Literature and Modernity Hamid Rezaei Yazdi,Arshavez Mozafari,2018-12-07 Persian Literature and Modernity recasts the history of modern literature in Iran by elucidating the bonds between the classical tradition and modernity and exploring textual generic and discursive formations through heterodoxical investigations This is first done through the rehabilitation of concepts embedded in tradition including the mun zirah debate Ahr man the demonic tajarrud radical aloneness and n riz yat discontent Following this are broader structural and processual treatments including the emergence of the genre of the social novel the international dimension of Persian and Persianate canon formation and the development of salvage ethnography and anthropological discourse in Iran Covering literary experiments from the twelfth to the twentieth centuries the chapters in this volume make a case for stepping outside the bounds of orthodox literary scholarship in Iranian studies with its associated political and orientalist determinants in order to provide a more nuanced conception of literary modernity in Iran Offering an alternative reading of modernity in Persian literature this book is an invaluable resource for scholars and students interested in the history of modern Iran and Persian Literature

Modernity, Sexuality, and Ideology in Iran Kamran Talattof,2011-06-01 In Iran since the mid nineteenth century one issue has been a common concern how should Iran become modern More than a century of struggle for or against modernity has constituted much of the social political and cultural history of the country In the decades since the 1979 Revolution the question has become even more critical In Modernity Sexuality and Ideology in Iran Talattof finds that the process of modernity never truly unfolded due in large part to Iran s reluctance to embrace the seminal subjects of gender and sexuality Talattof s approach reflects a unique look at modernity as advancement not only in industry and economy but also toward an open intellectual discourse on sexuality Exploring the life and times of Shahrzad a dancer actress filmmaker and poet Talattof illuminates the country's struggle with modernity and the ideological traditional and religious resistance against it. Born in 1946, she performed in several theater productions, became an acclaimed film star in the 1970s, and pursued a career as a journalist and poet. Following the revolution, she was imprisoned and eventually became homeless on the streets of Tehran. Her success and eventual decline as a female artist and entertainer illustrate the conflict between modernity and tradition and Iran's failure to embrace an overt expression of sexuality. Talattof also profiles several other female artists of the 1970s, analyzing their lives and work as windows through which to examine what Iranian culture allowed and what it repudiated. A pioneering and timely work, Modernity, Sexuality, and Ideology in Iran explores the integral role of popular culture and female artists in the shaping of modern Iran, constructing a new framework for understanding such crucial concepts as ideology and modernity.

The Night of the First Billion Ghada Samman, 2005-02-01. Set in Geneva, Switzerland, around the 1982 Israeli invasion of Lebanon, this intricately plotted novel probes the emotional misfortunes of Arab men and women fleeing the horror of war, only to find their ways of life constantly challenged by their foreign surroundings. The author's scalding critique of the Lebanese situation resonates with strong sociopolitical issues. Here are telling portraits of class oppression and the role of women in Arab society, the treatments of war and sexuality, of immigration, of cultural assimilation, and of nationalism. With supreme artistry and insight and in modern Arab literary fashion, Ghada Samman skillfully blends realism with fantasy into a highly stylized, thematically multilayered tale. It is at once a Gothic romance and a suspenseful whodunit with engaging characters. At the same time, it is a gripping study of social injustice and the consequences of wartime upheaval. Far from home and out of harm's way, Samman's Lebanese exiles repeat and replay the very same conflicts that torment them in their own land, even as it is under siege. The Night of the First Billion is an eloquent reminder that the only genuine security in the most profound and human sense of the word is to be found in the courageous willingness to confront challenge and, finally, to ease suffering.

Liminal Postmodernisms, 1994. Landscapes of Realism Svend Erik Larsen, Steen Bille Jørgensen, Margaret R. Higonnet, 2022-03-15. Few literary phenomena are as elusive and yet as persistent as realism. While it responds to the perennial impulse to use literature to reflect on experience, it also designates a specific set of literary and artistic practices that emerged in response to Western modernity. Landscapes of Realism is a two-volume collaborative interdisciplinary investigation of this vast territory, bringing together leading-edge new criticism on the realist paradigms that were first articulated in nineteenth-century Europe but have since gone on globally to transform the literary landscape. Tracing the manifold ways in which these paradigms are developed, discussed, and contested across time, space, cultures, and media, this second volume shows, in its four core essays and twenty-four case studies, four major pathways through the landscapes of realism: the psychological pathways focusing on emotion and memory; the referential pathways highlighting the role of materiality; the formal pathways demonstrating the dynamics of formal experiments; and the geographical pathways exploring the worlding of realism through the encounters between European and non-European languages from the nineteenth century to the present This volume is part of a book set which can be ordered at a special discount      Joycean Legacies Martha C. Carpentier,2015-04-28 These twelve essays analyze the complex pleasures and problems of engaging with James Joyce for subsequent writers discussing Joyce s textual stylistic formal generic and biographical influence on an intriguing selection of Irish British American and postcolonial writers from the 1940s to the twenty first century      Maps of Empire Kyle Wanberg,2020-06-26 Maps of Empire examines how literature was affected by the decay and break up of old models of imperial administration in the mid twentieth century      The Cairo House Samia Serageldin,2000-09-01 Samia Serageldin s heroine the daughter of a politically prominent land owning Egyptian family witnesses the changes sweeping her homeland Looking back to the glamorous Egypt of the pashas and King Faruk Serageldin moves forward to the police state of the colonels who seized power in 1952 and the disastrous consequences of Nasser s sequestration policies Through well chosen portraits and telling descriptions of the era s fashions and furnishings Serageldin conveys detailed social and cultural information She offers a glimpse of the beach at Agami in the 1960s and conveys the change in mood through the Sadat years Serageldin s fictional treatment of recent Egyptian history includes key events leading to the rise of Islamic fundamentalism such as the assassination of writer Yussef Siba yi and the harassment of theologian Nasr Abu Zayd Serageldin s heroine goes into exile in Europe and the United States but returns to Egypt in an attempt to reconcile her past and present Charting fresh territory for the American reader this semi autobiographical novel is one of the most sensitive and accessible documents of historical change in Egyptian life The book will appeal to a general audience and will be particularly useful to students interested in the social customs of the upper class in Egypt in the Nasser and Sadat years

Burying the Beloved Amy Motlagh,2011-12-14 Burying the Beloved traces the relationship between the law and literature in Iran to reveal the profound ambiguities at the heart of Iranian ideas of modernity regarding women s rights and social status The book reveals how novels mediate legal reforms and examines how authors have used realism to challenge and re imagine notions of the real It examines seminal works that foreground acute anxieties about female subjectivity in an Iran negotiating its modernity from the Constitutional Revolution of 1905 up to and beyond the Islamic Revolution of 1979 By focusing on marriage as the central metaphor through which both law and fiction read gender Motlagh critically engages and highlights the difficulties that arise as gender norms and laws change over time She examines the recurrent foregrounding of marriage at five critical periods of legal reform documenting how texts were understood both at first publication and as their importance changed over time      Persophilia Hamid Dabashi,2015-10-12 From antiquity to the Enlightenment Persian culture has been integral to European history Interest in all things Persian shaped not just Western views but the self image of Iranians to the present day Hamid Dabashi maps the changing geography of these connections showing that traffic in ideas about Persia did not travel on a one way street      Reorienting Modernism in Arabic and Persian Poetry Levi Thompson,2022-12-08 Re orienting Modernism in Arabic and Persian Poetry is the first book to systematically study the parallel development of modernist poetry in Arabic and Persian It presents a fresh line of comparative inquiry into minor literatures within the field of world literary studies Focusing on Arabic Persian literary exchanges allows readers to better understand the development of modernist poetry in both traditions and in turn challenge Europe s position at the center of literary modernism The argument contributes to current scholarly efforts to globalize modernist studies by reading Arabic and Persian poetry comparatively within the context of the Cold War to establish the Middle East as a significant participant in wider modernist developments To illuminate profound connections between Arabic and Persian modernist poetry in both form and content the book takes up works from key poets including the Iraqis Badr Shakir al Sayyab and Abd al Wahhab al Bayati and the Iranians Nima Yushij Ahmad Shamlu and Forough Farrokhzad

The Cambridge History of the Gothic: Volume 3, Gothic in the Twentieth and Twenty-First Centuries Angela Wright, Catherine Spooner, Dale Townshend, 2021-08-19 The first volume to provide an interdisciplinary comprehensive history of twentieth and twenty first century Gothic culture
