of contemporary art Charley 5 features artists who have remained forgotten proudly secluded or just unnoticed in spite of their visionary work Its galleries of obsessions mix professionals and amateurs cult figures and unknowns unheard prophets voluntary outcasts and great solitary masters and freaks celebrating the extreme subjectivity of more than 50 voices and implicitly questioning accepted hierarchies in the process The editors have said of their recent work it s a way to say look around The latest issues of Charley are a lot about What ifs what if there were many more artists than we actually speak about What if our artist list was just partial and irrelevant Charley is sponsored by the Deste Foundation Athens Greece which supports artist s projects exhibitions and symposia that explore the relationship between contemporary art and culture to architecture Extending philosopher Julia Kristeva's notion of abjection the confrontation of one's own corporeality as something is excreted Kovar finds parallels in the concept of the scaffold Much like living bodies and their products can impact on the buildings that house them old skin cells create dust menstrual blood stains our breath heats and cools surfaces scaffolding is similarly ephemeral and yet not entirely separable from the architecture it supports Kovar shifts the conversation about abjection towards a more nuanced idea of architecture where living organisms building matter space decay and waste are all considered as part of a continual process drawing on the key informing works of thinkers like Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari to do this Including a number of experimental projects conducted in the spaces inhabited by the author herself to illuminate the theory at its core the book forms a distinguished and pioneering study designed for practitioners and scholars of architecture philosophy and visual culture alike Heidi Bucher - Spaces are Shells, are Skins, 2023
