Heimskringla Or The Stoned Angels

Howard Brenton

Heimskringla Or The Stoned Angels:

!Heimskringla! Paul Foster, 1970 Experimental play about the discovery of American by Leif Ericson and his men A History of Asian American Theatre Esther Kim Lee, 2006-10-12 This book surveys the history of Asian American theatre from 1965 to 2005 Playing Underground Stephen J. Scott-Bottoms, 2009-11-10 Scrupulously researched critically acute and written with care Playing Underground will become a classic account of an era of hard won free expression William Coco At last a book documenting the beginnings of Off Off Broadway theater Playing Underground is an insightful illuminating and honest appraisal of this important period in American theater Rosalyn Drexler author of Art Does Not Exist and Occupational Hazard An epic movie of an epic movement Playing Underground is a book the world has waited for without knowing it How precisely it captures the evolution of our revolution I am amazed by the book's scope and scale and I bless its author especially for giving two greats Paul Foster and H M Koutoukas their proper polar places and for memorializing such unjustly forgotten masterpieces as Irene Fornes's Molly's Dream and Jeff Weiss's A Funny Walk Home Stephen Bottoms's vivid evocation of the grand adventure of Off Off Broadway has woken and broken my heart It is difficult to believe that he was not there alongside me to breathe the caffeine nicotine alkaloid steeped air Robert Patrick author of Kennedy's Children and Temple Slave Few books address the legendary age of 1960s off off Broadway theater Fortunately Stephen Bottoms fills that gap with Playing Underground the first comprehensive history of the roots of off off Broadway This is a theater whose legacy is still felt today it was the launching pad for many leading contemporary theater artists including Sam Shepard Maria Irene Fornes and others and it was a pivotal influence on improv comedy and shows like Saturday Night Live Off off Broadway groups such as the Living Theatre La Mama and Caffe Cino captured the spirit of nontraditional theater with their edgy unscripted boundary crossing subjects Yet as Bottoms discovers there is no one set of truths about off off Broadway to uncover the entire scene was always more a matter of competing perceptions than a singular concrete reality No other author has managed to illuminate this shifting tableau as Bottoms does Through interviews with dozens of the era's leading playwrights performers directors and critics he unearths a countercultural theater movement that was both influential and transforming yet ephemeral and quintessentially of its moment Playing Underground will be a definitive work on the subject offering a complete picture of an important but little studied period in American theater Encyclopedia of Television Film Directors Jerry Roberts, 2009-06-05 From live productions of the 1950s like Requiem for a Heavyweight to big budget mini series like Band of Brothers long form television programs have been helmed by some of the most creative and accomplished names in directing Encyclopedia of Television Film Directors brings attention to the directors of these productions citing every director of stand alone long form television programs made for TV movies movie length pilots mini series and feature length anthology programs as well as drama comedy and musical specials of more than 60 minutes Each of the nearly 2 000 entries provides a brief career sketch of the director his or her notable works awards and a filmography

Many entries also provide brief discussions of key shows movies and other productions Appendixes include Emmy Awards DGA Awards and other accolades as well as a list of anthology programs A much needed reference that celebrates these often neglected artists Encyclopedia of Television Film Directors is an indispensable resource for anyone interested in the history of the medium

Prefiguring Postblackness Carol Bunch Davis, 2015-11-23 Prefiguring Postblackness explores the tensions between cultural memory of the African American freedom struggle and representations of African American identity staged in five plays between 1959 and 1969 during the civil rights era Through close readings of the plays their popular and African American print media reviews and the cultural context in which they were produced Carol Bunch Davis shows how these representations complicate narrow ideas of blackness which often limit the freedom struggle era to Martin Luther King's nonviolent protest and cast Malcolm X's black nationalism as undermining the civil rights movement's advances These five plays strategically revise the rhetoric representations ideologies and iconography of the African American freedom struggle subverting its dominant narrative This revision critiques racial uplift ideology's tenets of civic and moral virtue as a condition of African American full citizenship The dramas also reimagine the Black Arts movement's restrictive notions of black authenticity as a condition of racial identity and their staged representations construct a counter narrative to cultural memory of the freedom struggle during that very era In their use of a postblack ethos to enact African American subjectivity the plays envision black identity beyond the quest for freedom anticipating what blackness might look like when it moves beyond the struggle The plays under discussion range from the canonical Lorraine Hansberry's A Raisin in the Sun and Amiri Baraka's Dutchman to celebrated yet understudied works Alice Childress's Wine in the Wilderness Howard Sackler's The Great White Hope and Charles Gordone's No Place to Be Somebody Finally Davis discusses recent revivals showing how these 1960s plays shape dimensions of modern drama well beyond the decade of their creation

That Good Between Us ; Credentials of a Sympathizer Howard Barker, 1980 Gambit, 1981 Discourse on Vietnam Peter Weiss, 1971 A fuller title precedes the play text Discourse on the progress of the prolonged war of liberation in Vietnam and the events leading up to it as illustration of the necessity for armed resistance against oppression and on the attempts of the United States of America to destroy the foundation of revolution Discourse on Vietnam Traces the history of Indo China from pre Christian times to the 1960s Presents the historical causes of the Vietnam War in their political social economic and human implications from a Marxist perspective Plays Eugène Ionesco, 1958 The Love of a Good Man ; All Bleeding Howard Barker, 1980 Machett.
