Deborah Ascher Barnstone,Donna West Brett,2025-01-23 How did German aesthetic values change during the Weimar Republic and after its immediate collapse at the beginning of the National Socialist period Contrary to conventional narratives that depict modernist aesthetics as static shaping principles of modern art and design this volume argues for their complexity and ever shifting nature Illuminating the vital exchanges that occurred across multiple art forms during a period of unmatched cultural activity this multi disciplinary volume explores the cultural transition between Weimar and National Socialist era Germany and offers a fresh perspective on the fate of modernism during a time of censorship and social stigma Featuring essays on architecture painting photography film sculpture cabaret typography and commercial design the volume explores competing and comparable themes across German art from 1919 1945 and addresses how modern approaches like New Vision coexisted with more traditional and established artistic modes Such visual complexity is evident from the volume s eclectic coverage these include sexology and eroticism visual grammar in typography and architecture the reception of Weimar art in the National Socialist period and the formation and transformation of queer and Jewish identities The volume encompasses subjects as different as shadow in the animated films of Lotte Reininger filmic adaptations of Heinrich Zille s social commentary in the 1920s the photography of L szl Moholy Nagy and depictions of female sexuality in Magnus Hirschfeld s oeuvre By bridging multiple artistic fields this highly interdisciplinary work provides a fresh perspective on the ever changing art and aesthetic principles of early 20th century Germany Reflections on Literature and Culture Hannah Arendt,Susannah Young-ah Gottlieb,2007 This is the first volume in any language that collects Hannah Arendt s remarkable series of essays and notes on literary figures and cultural questions The Salaried Masses Siegfried Kracauer,1998-09-17

First published in 1930 this analysis of Germany's emerging salaried class reveals how in a very short period the masses embraced Nazism. They eschewed the old society that previously sought pleasure in a range of social distractions.

Intercultural Communication Ingrid Piller, 2017-06-27 Combining perspectives from discourse analysis and sociolinguistics, the second edition of this popular textbook provides students with an up-to-date overview of the field of intercultural communication. Ingrid Piller explains communication in context using two main approaches. The first treats cultural identity difference and similarity as discursive constructions. The second, informed by bilingualism studies, highlights the use and prestige of different languages and language varieties as well as the varying access that speakers have to them.

Radio Benjamin Walter Benjamin, 2021-12-07 Walter Benjamin was fascinated by the impact of new technology on culture, an interest that extended beyond his renowned critical essays. From 1927 to '33 he wrote and presented something in the region of eighty broadcasts using the new medium of radio. Radio Benjamin gathers the surviving transcripts which appear here for the first time in English. This eclectic collection demonstrates the range of Benjamin's thinking and his enthusiasm for popular sensibilities. His celebrated Enlightenment for Children youth programs, his plays, readings, book reviews, and fiction reveal Benjamin in a creative rather than critical mode. They flesh out ideas elucidated in his essays, some of which are also represented here where they cover topics as varied as getting a raise and the history of natural disasters, subjects chosen for broad appeal and examined with passion and acuity. Delightful and incisive, this is Walter Benjamin channeling his sophisticated thinking to a wide audience, allowing us to benefit from a new voice for one of the twentieth century's most respected thinkers.

Between the Avant-garde and the Everyday Timothy Brown, Lorena Anton, 2011-07-01 The wave of anti-authoritarian political activity associated with the term 1968 can by no means be confined under the rubric of protest understood narrowly in terms of street marches and other reactions to state initiatives. Indeed, the actions generated in response to 1968 frequently involved attempts to elaborate resistance within the realm of culture generally and in the arts in particular. This blurring of the boundary between art and politics was a characteristic development of the political activism of the postwar period. This volume brings together a group of essays concerned with the multifaceted link between culture and politics, highlighting lesser-known case studies and opening new perspectives on the development of anti-authoritarian politics in Europe from the 1950s to the fall of Communism and beyond.

Form Follows Fuel Florian Urban, Barnabas Calder, 2025-09-15 Modernists believed that form follows function. Form Follows Fuel shows that in fact energy has been the biggest influence on the world's architecture throughout the history of our species. The availability of energy under different fuel regimes, including human labour, firewood, coal, oil, gas, and renewables, shapes architecture at all scales, from what gets built to how its doors hinge. This book is the first to quantify energy inputs for a range of buildings worldwide and across the historical record. In the process, it challenges today's architects, offers practical solutions to today's ecological crises, and highlights the aspects of today's buildings that make architecture responsible for 37% of human climate changing emissions It reveals the enormously lower impacts of historical alternatives to today's default building practices This book shows that the shift to modern fossil fuel use from the seventeenth century came to be the most consequential move in the history of architecture as well as in human history in general This brought about remarkable wealth for the built environment and at the same time unprecedented dangers for our planet as evidenced by the exacerbating climate emergency This book consists of 14 accessibly written case studies illustrated with beautiful and revealing new measured drawings of each project by John Joseph Burns Each chapter focuses on a single structure in a particular historical context sometimes contrasted to similar buildings from subsistence farming to advanced global capitalism The chapters analyse the consumption of embodied and operational energy in these buildings and also discuss questions of recycling and adaptive reuse They complement precise descriptions with hard numbers on materials and construction using robustly sourced approximations where exact figures are not available The case studies rely on both published research and the authors own calculations and allow systematic comparison across different global regions and historical periods Cases include architectural icons such as the Great Pyramid of Giza the Baths of Caracalla the Mausoleum of Qin Shi Huang the Seagram Building and Terminal 1 of Kuala Lumpur International Airport as well as common types such as a pre modern stone house a late nineteenth century tenement and a modernist panel block Examples are taken from different regions of the world including ancient China pre Columbian Mexico and modern Europe This book is an important contribution to architectural historical research written for students academics and building professionals as well as for a general audience

Remembering Africa Dirk Göttsche, 2013 A groundbreaking treatment of the themes of colonialism and Africa in German literary fiction as presented in some fifty novels from the past three decades In the late 1990s in the wake of German unification multiculturalism and globalization a surge of historical novels about German colonialism in Africa and its previously neglected legacies hit the German literary scene This development accelerated by the centenary in 2004 of Germany's colonial war in South West Africa has continued to the present making colonialism an established theme of literary memorialization alongside Germany's dominant memory themes National Socialism and the Holocaust the former GDR and its demise in the Wende and more recently 1968 This is the first comprehensive study of contemporary German literature's intense engagement with German colonialism and with Germany's wider involvement in European colonialism Building on the author's decade of research and publication in the field the book discusses some fifty novels by German Swiss and Austrian writers among them Hans Christoph Buch Alex Capus Christof Hamann Lukas Hartmann Ilona Maria Hilliges Gisela W. Hoffmann Dieter Kehn Hermann Schulz Gerhard Seyfried Thomas von Steinaecker Uwe Timm Ilija Trojanow and Stephan Wackwitz Drawing on international postcolonial theory the German tradition of cross cultural literary studies and on memory studies the book brings the hitherto neglected German case to the international debate in postcolonial literary studies Dirk Göttsche is Professor of German at the University of Nottingham
