Heirs To A Great Tradition Modern Chinese Paintings From The Tsienhsiangchai Collection:

Transforming Traditions in Modern Chinese Painting Jason C. Kuo, 2004 Modern Chinese painting embodies the constant renewal and reinvigorations of Chinese civilization amidst rebellions reforms and revolutions even if the process may appear confusing and bewildering It also demonstrates the persistence of tradition and limits of continuities and changes in modern Chinese culture Most significantly it compels us to ask several important questions in the study of modern Chinese culture How extensively can cultural tradition be re interpreted before it is subverted At what point is creative re invention an act of betrayal of tradition How has selective borrowing from Chinese tradition and foreign culture enabled modern Chinese artists to sustain themselves in the modern world By focusing on the art of Huang Pin hung 1865 1955 particularly his late work this book attempts to provide some answers to these questions Heirs to a Great Tradition Jason C. Kuo, 1993 The Art of Modern China Julia F. Andrews, Kuiyi Shen, 2012-09-24 In the early twenty first century China occupies a place on center stage in the international art world But what does it mean to be a Chinese artist in the modern age This first comprehensive study of modern Chinese art history traces its evolution chronologically and thematically from the Age of Imperialism to the present day Julia Andrews and Kuiyi Shen pay particular attention to the dynamic tension between modernity and tradition as well as the interplay of global cosmopolitanism and cultural nationalism This lively accessible and beautifully illustrated text will serve and enlighten scholars students collectors and anyone with an interest in Asian art and artists The Modernization of Chinese Art Jane Zheng, 2016-03-29 First academic study on modernity at the Shanghai Art College The Shanghai Art College was one of the most important art schools in Republican China This is the first academic study written on the early history of the College It makes a major contribution to the history of art education in China Shanghai in particular The book presents a new approach to how people understand the modernization of Chinese art and the significance and consequences of modernity in the Shanghai art world of the period 1913 1937 The author proposes new theoretical models to explain the interactions between multiple levels of social structures and artists with a special emphasis on the role of art education institutions in transforming artists artworks and the development of artistic fields Presenting unique historical images hereto hidden in the archives of the College the book brings forward the distinctive modern characteristics of the early 20th century Shanghai Art College Selling Happiness Ellen Johnston Laing, 2004-01-01 As the first substantial investigation of commercial art in China Selling Happiness explains how the early twentieth century Chinese public came to accept Western style art as mainstream and the heretofore ignored process by which the Chinese art world became in some sectors at least thoroughly cosmopolitan A monumental study of the most important genre of modern Chinese commercial art this volume will appeal not only to historians of Chinese art but also to those interested in literary economic and social history It will be an essential resource for comparative studies of visual culture BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved The Charming Cicada Studio Terese Tse
