Helene Cixous Writing The Feminine:

Helene Cixous Verena Andermatt Conley, 1991-01-01 Born in Algeria in 1937 Helene Cixous achieved world fame for her short stories criticism and fictionalized autobiography Dedans 1969 Her work quickly became controversial because it frankly tested a distinction between male and female writing Her literary experiments and her conclusions make her one of the most stimulating and most elusive feminist theorists of our time Verena Andermatt Conley a professor of French and women's studies at Miami University has written the first full length study of Cixous in English Looking at Cixous as writer teacher and theoretician Conley takes up Cixous's ongoing exploration of the feminine as related to the masculine words not to be equated with woman and man and her search for a terminology less freighted with emotion and prejudice Conley has updated this paperback edition with a new preface bibliography and interview with Cixous conducted by the editors of Hors Cadre

Helene Cixous Abigail Bray, Julian Wolfreys, 2003-12-11 Abigail Bray offers a lucid and accessible introduction to Helene Cixous and her theorisation of writing and sexual difference This book explores the context of feminist debates surrounding Cixous's work and provides a concise explanation of her major philosophical and literary concepts including the other bisexuality the third body and l'écriture féminine Bray demonstrates through original and provocative readings of texts by James Joyce Virginia Woolf Clarice Lispector and Angela Carter the creative potential of Cixous's thought on literature and philosophy Reading Cixous alongside Nietzsche Heidegger Deleuze and Derrida Bray argues for a recognition of Cixous as one of the important thinkers of our times

The concept of Écriture Feminine in Helene Cixous's "The Laugh of the Medusa" Simon Wortmann, 2013-04-15 Essay from the year 2012 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1-7 Christian Albrechts University of Kiel language English abstract In the year 1975 the French feminist author Helene Cixous published an essay called The Laugh of the Medusa In it she develops an entirely new theoretical concept with the aim of giving rise to feminist voice The central ideas of Écriture Feminine literally women's writing are going to be presented in this paper In the first part a brief description of Cixous's intellectual milieu is given in order to show the actual reason that led her to come up with a new notion of liberating women from patriarchy In this context an elaboration on poststructuralism the philosophical current Cixous belonged to follows Closely related to that is the author's skepticism towards Sigmund Freud's language philosophy Specifically speaking Freud's statements on the penis envy theory Primary attention is paid to the theory of phallogentrism which can be seen as one of the main reasons for Cixous's writings For a better understanding of this term the concept of logocentrism is also explained as well Logocentrism can be seen as a pillar of the theory of phallogentrism and therefore it deserves to be mentioned at this point In the second part we deal with the question of what is actually meant by women's writing Furthermore we will analyze which role the female body and sexuality plays in this context This excursion is highly interesting as it is crucial for the understanding of her concept Since the female body is considered a key for women to resist masculinist thinking and hence the systematic repression of women

Apart from that we try to show whether features of Écriture Feminine are evident in the The Laugh of the Medusa Moreover a different viewpoint on Cixous's theory is shown in the chapter Criticism in which arguments for and against her theory are shown In point five Conclusion the main aspects of this paper are summed up When writing this paper the main source of information were essays on women's writing and French feminist writing dating from 1987 to 1986 Besides secondary literature on literary and cultural theory as well as feminist practice and poststructuralist theory were used Recent research on Cixous's work however could not be found The only source dealing particularly with her writings dates from 1991

The Writing Notebooks Helene Cixous, 2004-05-18 Helene Cixous is one of the most brilliant and radical of contemporary theorists This is the first publication in any language of Cixous's own Notebooks illustrating the concept of écriture féminine and offering new insights into Cixous's theoretical insistence on writing and her own practice as a writer Cixous's Notebooks exemplify how writing creates unique possibilities for circumventing the truths that shape us as subjects and which organize our relations with the world The Writing Notebooks opens with an introduction which outlines the central points of Cixous's notion of writing The main body of the work is comprised of 60 photographic extracts from the Notebooks each extract accompanied by editorial annotation and a translation into English The book concludes with a new interview with Cixous on the value of the Notebooks the process of writing and her own fiction Cixous's Notebooks will be invaluable to students of literature psychoanalysis philosophy and feminism

Helene Cixous Susan Sellers, 2013-06-10 This book is a clear and accessible introduction to the writings of Helene Cixous novelist dramatist and critic whose work has had a major impact on feminist theory and practice Susan Sellers a major scholar on Cixous provides a lucid account of Cixous's theoretical position and in particular her distinctive theory of écriture féminine She discusses the development of Cixous's literary oeuvre in the context of this theory and analyses a selection of the works in detail to illustrate the different stages in Cixous's writing career Focusing on the key novels and plays Sellers explores a range of issues and themes central to her work the correlation between the death of Cixous's own father and her coming into being as a writer the psychological process of separation and individuation and the creation of a female authorial self the discovery of the other and the dramatization of love the delineation depiction of an alternative form of relationship between self and other which would have a significance in a wider sphere than that of the merely personal This much needed book will be welcomed by students in literature and literary theory feminism and women's studies English and French studies and philosophy

Critical Autoethnography and Écriture Feminine Elizabeth Mackinlay, Renée Mickelburgh, 2023-10-11 The project offers a collection of new interdisciplinary critical autoethnographic engagements with Helene Cixous's écriture féminine and work Three steps on the ladder of writing Critical autoethnography shares a reciprocal and interanimating relationship with Helene Cixous's écriture féminine and in this collection authors explore that interanimation by explicitly engaging with Three steps on the ladder of writing Three steps is a poetic insightful and ultimately moving reflection on the writing process and explores three distinct areas essential for writing The School of the Dead the notion that something or someone must die in order for good writing to be born The School of Dreams the crucial role dreams play in literary inspiration and output and The School of Roots the importance of depth in the nether realms in all aspects of writing Topics covered include ways Cixous work can address the need for loss and reparation in writing critical autoethnography how Cixous writing makes our body speak through concepts of birth and the body in through and of critical autoethnography whether writing in this way recast and reform prevailing orders of domination and oppression and how Cixous writing around the ethics of loving and giving translates into response able and non violent forms of critical autoethnography in relation to otherness and difference In this collection we invite you to Let us go to the school of critical autoethnographic writing Cixous 1993 p 3 with the work of H l ne Cixous and speak in a different way and through a different medium of academic language in an approach that reveals the tensions the paradoxes the pains and the pleasures of writing with critical autoethnography in the contemporary university

"Coming to Writing" and Other Essays Hélène Cixous, 1991 This collection presents six essays by one of France s most remarkable contemporary authors A notoriously playful stylist here H l ne Cixous explores how the problematics of the sexes viewed as a paradigm for all difference which is the organizing principle behind identity and meaning manifest themselves write themselves in texts These superb translations do full justice to Cixous s prose to its songlike flow and allusive brilliance

Hélène Cixous: Live Theory Ian Blyth, 2004-06-08 Hlne Cixous live theory provides a clear and informative introduction to one of the most important and influential European writers working today The book opens with an overview of the key features of Cixous theory of criture fminine feminine writing The various manifestations of criture fminine are then explored in chapters on Cixous fictional and theatrical writing her philosophical essays and her intensely personal approach to literary criticism The book concludes with a new lively and wide ranging interview with Hlne Cixous in which she discusses her influences and inspirations and her thoughts on the nature of writing and the need for an ethical relationship with the world Also offering a survey of the many English translations of Cixous work this book is an indispensable introduction to Cixous work for students of literature philosophy cultural and gender studies

Hélène Cixous' 'Ecriture Feminine' Susan Sellers, 1992

The Book of Promethea Häl_ne Cixous, 1991-01-01 In writing Le Livre de Promethea H l_ne Cixous set for herself the task of bridging the immeasurable distance between love and language She describes a love between two women in its totality experienced as both a physical presence and a sense of infinity The result is a stunning example of Pecriture feminine that won kudos when published in France in 1983 Its translation into English by Betsy Wing will extend the influence of a writer already famous for her novels and contributions to feminist theory In her introduction Betsy Wing notes the contemporary emphasis on fictions of presence Cixous in The Book of Promethea works to repair the separation between fiction and presence trying to chronicle a very present love without destroying it in the writing

Critical Autoethnography and Écriture Feminine Elizabeth Mackinlay, Renée Mickelburgh, 2024-10-13 The Feminist

Encyclopedia of French Literature Eva M. Sartori, 1999-07-30 The earliest known literary productions by women living in Europe were probably written by French writers As early as the 12th century women troubadours in the south of France were writing poems French women continued writing through the ages their number increasing as education became more available to women of all classes And yet of the great number of works by women writers who preceded the current feminist movement very few have survived A few writers such as Marie de France George Sand and Simone de Beauvoir became part of the canon But critics mostly male had judged the works of only a few women writers worthy of recognition As part of the feminist move to reclaim women writers and to rethink literary history scholars in French literature began to take a new look at women writers who had been popular during their lifetimes but who had not been admitted into the canon This reference book provides extensive information about French women writers and the world in which they lived Included are several hundred alphabetically arranged entries for authors literary genres such as the novel poetry and the short story literary movements such as classicism realism and surrealism life cycle events particular to women such as menstruation and menopause events and institutions which affected women differently than men such as revolutions wars and laws on marriage divorce and education The volume spans French literature from the Middle Ages to the present and covers those writers who lived and worked mainly in France The entries are written by expert contributors and each includes bibliographical information The entries focus on each writer's awareness of how her gender shaped her outlook and opportunities on how categorizations structures and terms used to describe literary works have been defined for women and the ways in which women writers have responded to these definitions The volume begins with a feminist history of French literature and concludes with a selected general bibliography and a chronology of women writers The Routledge

Encyclopedia of Jewish Writers of the Twentieth Century Sorrel Kerbel, 2004-11-23 Now available in paperback for the first time Jewish Writers of the Twentieth Century is both a comprehensive reference resource and a springboard for further study This volume examines canonical Jewish writers less well known authors of Yiddish and Hebrew and emerging Israeli writers includes entries on figures as diverse as Marcel Proust Franz Kafka Tristan Tzara Eugene Ionesco Harold Pinter Tom Stoppard Arthur Miller Saul Bellow Nadine Gordimer and Woody Allen contains introductory essays on Jewish American writing Holocaust literature and memoirs Yiddish writing and Anglo Jewish literature provides a chronology of twentieth century Jewish writers Compiled by expert contributors this book contains over 330 entries on individual authors each consisting of a biography a list of selected publications a scholarly essay on their work and suggestions for further reading

The Concept of Ecriture Feminine in Helene Cixous's "The Laugh of the Medusa" Simon Wortmann, 2013-04-16 Essay from the year 2012 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1 7 Christian Albrechts University of Kiel language English abstract In the year 1975 the French feminist author Helene Cixous published an essay called The Laugh of the Medusa In it she develops an entirely new theoretical concept with the aim of giving rise to feminist voice The central ideas of Écriture Feminine literally women's writing are going to be presented in this paper In the first part a brief description of Cixous's intellectual milieu is given in order to show the actual reason that led her to come up with a new notion of liberating women from patriarchy In this context an elaboration on poststructuralism the philosophical current Cixous belonged to follows Closely related to that is the author's skepticism towards Sigmund Freud's language philosophy Specifically speaking Freud's statements on the penis envy theory Primary attention is paid to the theory of phallogentrism which can be seen as one of the main reasons for Cixous's writings For a better understanding of this term the concept of logocentrism is also explained as well Logocentrism can be seen as a pillar of the theory of phallogentrism and therefore it deserves to be mentioned at this point In the second part we deal with the question of what is actually meant by women's writing Furthermore we will analyze which role the female body and sexuality plays in this context This excursion is highly interesting as it is crucial for the understanding of her concept Since the female body is considered a key for women to resist masculinist thinking and hence the systematic repression of women Apart from that we try to show whether features of Écriture Feminine are evident in the The Laugh of the Medusa Moreover a different viewpoint on Cixous's theory is shown in the chapter Criticism in which arguments for and against her theory are shown In point five Joyce's Abandoned Female Costumes, Gratefully Received Elisabeth Sheffield, 1998 While Sheffield's study shares a common presupposition of these recent interpretations it challenges the idea that the move Joyce makes with this alignment is one that puts him on the side of woman Sheffield contends that Joyce is not expressing his solidarity with woman or womanly thought in opposition to a masculine literary and philosophical tradition but rather relying on ancient stereotypes to personify a dangerously other form of writing The Hélène Cixous Reader Susan Sellers, 2003-08 This key collection of feminist writing includes essays works of fiction lectures and drama all arranged chronologically Spanning twenty years it demonstrates the development of one of the great creative minds of the 20th century Public Administration in Perspective David John Farmer, 2015-01-30 Throughout its history public administration has used a number of different perspectives for analyzing the discipline's theory and practice and both mainstream and alternative lenses have produced valuable insights and prescriptions At the same time an individual way of looking at PA can be misleading Alone a solitary lens can miss critical aspects and often gives only part of the picture Public Administration in Perspective has been specifically crafted to give new life to public administration theory and practice by helping readers view the discipline through a variety of perspectives Designed for the capstone course in public administration programs as well as a fresh approach for courses in PA theory and organizational theory this unique book provides a culminating experience bringing together what has been learned in previous MPA courses without simply rehashing old content It offers a comprehensive guide to eleven major approaches to PA and synthesizes them to deepen our understanding of the discipline Each chapter in Part I describes the key features of the selected perspective history content and proponents and discusses the strengths and weaknesses related to PA theory and practice Part II synthesizes the various perspectives with specific implications for PA management and practice Part III concludes with a complete overview identifying ways in which readers can think more creatively and productively about PA putting the perspectives themselves into perspective

An Introductory Guide to Post-structuralism and Postmodernism Madan Sarup, 1993-01-01 Madan Sarup has now revised his accessible and popular introduction to post structuralist and postmodern theory A new introductory section discusses the meaning of such concepts as modernity postmodernity modernization modernism and postmodernism A section on feminist criticism of Lacan and Foucault has been added together with a new chapter on French feminist theory focusing on the work of Hélène Cixous Luce Irigaray and Julia Kristeva The chapter on postmodernism has been significantly expanded to include a discussion of Lyotard's language games and his use of the category sublime This chapter ends with a discussion of the relationship between feminism and postmodernism A further chapter has been added on the work of Jean Baudrillard a cult figure on the current postmodernist scene whose ideas have attained a wide currency The chapter includes a new section on postmodern cultural practices as revealed in architecture TV video and film Suggestions for further reading are now listed at the end of each chapter and are upgraded and annotated In tracing the impact of post structuralist thought not only on literary criticism but on such disciplines as philosophy politics psychoanalysis the social sciences and art this book will be essential reading for those who want a clear and incisive introduction to the theories that continue to have widespread influence

A Dictionary of Critical Theory Ian Buchanan, 2010-04-29 With over 750 authoritative entries covering all areas of critical theory this dictionary is an essential reference work for anyone needing a clear guide to theory from feminism to globalization from Marxism to psychoanalysis This edition is fully up to date and thoroughly comprehensive

Maternal Pasts, Feminist Futures Lynne Huffer, 1998 This book examines the relations among nostalgia gender and foundational philosophies through a critique of the lost mother as a ground for thinking about sexual difference More specifically the author critiques the nostalgic tendencies of feminist theory arguing that an emancipatory system of thought must move beyond a maternally oriented structure Through close readings of works by Maurice Blanchot Luce Irigaray Julia Kristeva and Nicole Brossard the book elucidates the many dimensions of nostalgic paradigms literary psychoanalytic epistemological ontological and sociopolitical This critique ultimately confronts postmodernism and especially the burgeoning field of performative theory as an intellectual paradigm that claims to subvert systems of meaning Analyzing the writings of J L Austin Judith Butler and Irigaray the author argues that despite its antinostalgic structure performative theory provides an inadequate model for understanding the connections among language identity and the social bonds that constitute the ethical and political sphere Asserting through the example of performative theory that a critique is not enough the book examines the possibility of a constructive model that is both non nostalgic and informed by ethical constraints One such model is offered through a reading of the Quebecois writer Nicole Brossard which explores her work in relation to the question of lesbian writing Demystifying nostalgia Brossard not only uncovers and subverts the structures through which a concept of origins is produced but also provides a different visionary way of thinking about the relationship between subjectivity and language Finally the book argues for further feminist work on the relationship between narrative and ethics a field whose future lies in the elaboration of a bridge between the moral commitments of ethical theory and the fractured realities that find their expression in literary forms
