Excess and Embodiment in Contemporary Women's Writing Zeynep Zeren Atayurt, 2011-08-01 The obese female body has often been portrayed as the other to the slender body However this process of othering or viewing as different has created a repressive discourse where excess has increasingly come to be studied as a physical abnormality or a signifier of a personality defect in contemporary Western society This book engages with the multifarious re imaginings of the excessive embodiment in contemporary women's writing drawing specifically on the construction of this form of embodiment in the works of Fay Weldon Jeanette Winterson Margaret Atwood Claude Tardat and Judith Moore whose texts offer a distinct literary response to the rigidly homogeneous and limiting representations of fatness while prompting heterogeneous approaches to reading the excessive female embodiment Critical Writing for Embodied Approaches Elizabeth Mackinlay, 2019-02-21 Autoethnography is a unique discipline which steps inside and outside the self to experience embody and express social and cultural meaning At once a performative political and poetic genre of research writing it holds the potential to uncover the heart of the world if only for a moment The author uses theory as story and story as theory to explore her place in the world through painstaking and intimate self and social narratives to lay bare the unique challenges and rewards of autoethnography Framed around the metaphor of heartlines the author explores autoethnographic practice as critical feminist and decolonial work and the power it holds for not only imagining a wise ethical and loving world but for making such a kind place possible Through a performative journey of the heart we travel with the author as she unearths the power of words of writing and not writing evoking in particular the work of Hélène Cixous and Virginia Woolf This reflective passionate and pioneering volume will be of interest and value to all those interested in autoethnography and the ways in which it can be applied as critical ethical and political work in the social sciences Hélène Cixous, Rootprints Mireille Calle-Gruber, Hélène Cixous, 2012-11-12 Helene Cixous is undoubtedly one of the most brilliant and innovative contemporary thinkers Published here in English for the first time Helene Cixous Rootprints is an ideal introduction to Cixous's theory and her fiction tracing her development as a writer and intellectual whose remarkable prespicacity and electrifying poetic force are known world wide Unprecedented in its form and content this collection breaks new ground in the theory and practice of auto biography Cixous's creative reflections on the past provide occasion for scintillating forays into the future The text includes an extended interview between Cixous and Calle Gruber exploring Cixous's creative and intellectual processes a revealing collection of photographs taken from Cixous's family album set against a poetic reflection by the author selections from Cixous's private notebooks a contribution by Jacques Derrida original thing pieces by Calle Gruber Writing Differences Susan Sellers, 1988 This book is a collection of readings from the members of Helene Cixous research seminar at the Centre d'Etudes Feminines in Paris They have been commissioned to illustrate the Centre's pioneering work on sexual difference and its relationship to the literary text The readings cover a multi national range of literatures and a variety of literary periods and genres The Taiwanese Cinematization of Feminine Writing Ya-chen Chen, 2022-09-30 A number of Taiwanese scholars gate kept filtered selected and strategized to transfer Luce Irigaray's Hélène Cixous's and Julia Kristeva's French feminist theories into their own national context by exerting their cross lingual and cross cultural academic power in the 1990s They also reshaped localized acculturated marketed and Taiwanized these French feminist theories which was essential for Taiwanese academia According to French feminist literary theories critique of feminine feminine writing refers to women's own written self expression used to escape from the patriarchal language system Beginning with a description of the acculturation of French feminist literary theories this book highlights how women's own spoken voices or

On the Politics of Ugliness Sara Rodrigues, Ela Przybylo, 2018-08-29 Ugliness or unsightliness is much more than a quality or property of an individual's appearance; it has long functioned as a social category that demarcates access to social, cultural, and political spaces and capital. The editors of and authors in this collection harness intersectional and interdisciplinary approaches in order to examine ugliness as a political category that is deployed to uphold established notions of worth and entitlement. On the Politics of Ugliness identifies and challenges the harmful effects that labels and feelings of ugliness have on individuals and the socio-political order. It explores ugliness in relation to the intersectional processes of racialization, colonization, and settler colonialism, gender, making, ableism, heteronormativity, and fatphobia. On the Politics of Ugliness asks that we fight against visual injustice and imagine new ways of seeing.

Critical Poetics of Feminist Refusals Federica Bueti, 2022-12-07 Critical Poetics of Feminist Refusals renders a vivid portrait of the intergenerational and intersectional dialogue between influential feminist writers on how to say no to the conditions of oppression, exclusion, and exploitation imposed by patriarchal and systemically racist capitalist societies. The book provides today's readers and writers access to the powerful inventory of concepts and techniques that two generations of feminists have assembled for refusing domination and constituting fugitive forms of sociability and writing. Drawing on examples from feminist thinkers Audre Lorde, Carla Lonzi, Hélène Cixous, Hortense Spillers, Alexis Pauline Gumbs, Anne Boyer, and Simone White, the book focuses on how the power dynamics of recognition tie the uses of language to the material conditions of discrimination in everyday life.

Feminist Literary Theory Mary Eagleton, 2010-12-20 Now in its third edition, Feminist Literary Theory remains the most comprehensive single-volume introduction to a vital and diverse field. Fully revised and updated to reflect changes in the field over the last decade, it includes extracts from all the major critical approaches and theoretical positions in contemporary feminist literary studies. Features a new section, Writing Global, which covers feminism's dialogue with postcolonial, global, and spatial studies. Revised chapter introductions provide readers with helpful contextual information, while extensive notes offer recommendations for further reading.

We Only Talk Feminist Here Briony Lipton, Elizabeth Mackinlay, 2016-12-01 This book explores what it means to only talk feminist here in the contemporary neoliberal university. How do feminist academics effect change? How are feminist voices sounded, heard, received, silenced, and masked? We Only Talk Feminist Here offers insight into the complexities, contradictions, and possibilities of talking feminist, of writing as speaking, problematising notions of voice and agency of speaking into the silences, and the ways in which we fight for and flee to feminist spaces, and of talking back. This book presents new possibilities for framing talking feminist differently by exploring what we say when we say it, how we say it, and what it means when we do any of these things in terms of our multiple and shifting feminist subjectivities. We Only Talk Feminist Here draws upon interviews and conversations with feminist academics in Australia to demonstrate the performative and discursive moves feminist academics make in order to be heard and effect change to the gendered status quo in Australian higher education
