Hellen Van Meene Japan Series:

A History of Women Photographers Naomi Rosenblum, 2010 The definitive text on women in photography now in an affordable paperback edition Hellen Van Meene Hellen van Meene, Kate Bush, 2004 For the past seven years Hellen van Meene has been producing intimate portraits of adolescents Though the introspective gaze of her models suggest that these are spontaneous private moments in the lives of her subjects the carefully considered natural light lush textures and striking compositions betray van Meene's hand in choreographing each image down to the finest detail Throughout the picturesque qualities are undercut by a disquieting tension the models' clothes are ill fitting or inside out one girl is asked to lie in a cold bath fully clothed another models a fresh bruise This intimate collaboration between the photographer and her models simultaneously exposes the uncertain nature of adolescent identities and the complicated act of capturing them on film Hellen van Meene was educated at the Rietveld Academy in Amsterdam She began exhibiting her work in 1994 and has had one person exhibitions in Los Angeles Amsterdam London Milan Tokyo and at the Venice Biennale In 2001 she was shortlisted for the Citibank Photography Prize Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 2003 Women Photographers Boris Friedewald, 2014 This introduction to the greatest women photographers from the 19th century to today features the most important works of 60 artists along with in depth biographical and critical assessments A Journey to Japan, where Chance is the Standard Geert Bekaert, Ronny de Meyer, 2001 In Sight Amsterdam (Netherlands). Stedelijk Museum, 2005 Perhaps it's the same light that inspired Vermeer and van Gogh or maybe it's government support for the arts or the excellent photo museums and galleries something must explain the explosion of Dutch photography over the past 20 years Besides the rise of Rineke Dijkstra to art stardom other vital Dutch photographers working in a range of styles have been making strong marks on the medium This catalogue from an exhibition sponsored by the LaSalle Bank that appeared at The Art Institute of Chicago features established and emerging photographers including Rinkeke Dijkstra Bertien van Manen Hans van der Meer Wijnanda Deroo Celine van Balen Koos Breukel Juul Hondius Hellen van Meene Elspeth Diederix and Marnix Goossens The British Journal of Photography, 2007 New York, 2009-07 American Photography 22, 2006 American Photography 22 ISBN 1 886212 26 0 978 1 886212 26 8 Clothbound 9 25 x 12 25 in 368 pgs 300 color U S 60 00 CDN 72 00 December Design Flash Art, 2007 Art in America Frank Jewett Mather, Frederic Fairchild Sherman, 2003-07 Hellen Van Meene Hellen van Meene, Karel Schampers, 2002 Dutch photographer Hellen van Meene was herself barely out of girlhood when she began to photograph adolescent girls in her home town in the north of Holland Invited to photograph in Japan in 2000 she found that while she could not communicate directly with her subjects her instincts regarding the universality of adolescent experience were translatable In her square format medium focal length pictures of unnamed girls van Meene strives to compose photographs of adolescent situations and attitudes which represent the type of normality we don't usually share with others Contemporary, 2007 Art ... Basel, 2010 The house of fiction Sammlung Hauser & Wirth, 2002 Betr u a The Floor 1973 1992 von Dieter Roth S 4 95 u 129 Hellen Van Meene:

The Years Shall Run Like Rabbits (Signed Edition) ,2015-08-25 Over the last 20 years Hellen van Meene has produced a complex body of work offering a contemporary take on photographic portraiture Characterized by her exquisite use of light formal elegance and palpable psychological tension her depictions of girls and boys on the cusp of adulthood demonstrate a clear aesthetic lineage to seventeenth century Dutch painting Van Meene captures the intimacy in the photographer subject relationship bringing out a sense of honesty and vulnerability from within her models and highlighting the beauty of imperfection She carefully poses her subjects in their environments to emphasize their fragility adding a palpable tension to the photographs At the same time she captures them at deeper more introspective moments masterfully moving between the staged nature of the portraits and the real experiences of her subjects The combination of van Meene s instinctive understanding of the universality of adolescent experience and the highly intimate collaboration between photographer and model makes for powerful portraits that resonate long after viewing This book brings together more than 250 images for the most comprehensive presentation of the artist s work to date Hellen van Meene born 1972 studied photography at the Gerrit Rietveld Academie Amsterdam Her work has been exhibited internationally and is in the collections of major museums around the world including the Guggenheim Museum New York The Art Institute of Chicago Brooklyn Museum Museum of Contemporary Art Los Angeles and San Francisco Museum of Modern Art This is her fifth monograph the others include Portraits Aperture 2004 Japan Series New Work and Tout va dispara tre Amsterdam City Guide ,2008 Vanity Fair ,2002-05 ELLE DECOR No.172 ,2021-09-07 4 Liverpool and Manchester Photographic Journal ,2007
