Evelyn Abbott,2015-06-16 Excerpt from Hellenica a Collection of Essays on Greek Poetry Philosophy History and Religion
The second edition of Hellenica is for the most part a reprint of the first A few verbal changes have been made in the Essays by Mr E Myers and Mr Strachan Davidson in my own I have omitted one or two paragraphs More changes have been made in Mr Dakyns Essay on Xenophon but it still remains in all important points the same Essay as before The authors are aware that much has been written on their subjects at least in some cases in the last sixteen years but even if they had been able to go over the ground again they could not have worked in the new material without a good deal of alteration in their work It seemed better therefore to re issue the book with as little change as possible About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works      Hellenica to be influencing living men When the dead are alleged to exercise a similar power we have to suppose that some consciousness survives the grave and manifests itself by causing hallucinations among the living Instances of this have already been given in The Ghost and the Portrait The Bright Scar and Riding Home after Mess These were adduced as examples of veracity in hallucinations Each appearance gave information to the seer which he did not previously possess In the first case the lady who saw the soldier and the suppliant did not know of their previous existence and melancholy adventure In the second the brother did not know that his dead sister's face had been scratched In the third the observer did not know that Lieutenant B had grown a beard and acquired a bay pony with black mane and tail But though the appearances were veracious they were purposeless and again as in each case the information existed in living minds it may have been wired on from them
