Proceedings of the Boston Area Colloquium in Ancient Philosophy John J. Cleary, Gary Gurtler, 2008-08-31

With one notable exception this volume contains papers and commentaries presented to the Boston Area Colloquium in Ancient Philosophy during the academic year 2006-7 That exception is the colloquium in which Alasdair MacIntyre offers a fresh reading of Plato's Republic Indeed most of the papers included in this volume discuss a wide range of topics related to Plato for instance the dangers of misology in the Phaedo the Socratic use of rhetoric in the Gorgias Plato's anti hedonism in the Philebus the link between mythical and logical thinking in the Symposium and Heidegger's interpretation of Plato's concept of truth But apart from this obsession with Plato there are two colloquia devoted to the Epicurean notion of preconception and to the Stoic conception of the good respectively Creative Understanding Roberto Torretti, 2010-12-15 A pleasure to read Gracefully written by a scholar well grounded in the relevant philosophical historical and technical background a helpfully clarifying review and analysis of some issues of importance to recent philosophy of science and a source of some illuminating insights Burke Townsend Philosophy of Science

The Prologue of the Fourth Gospel Peter

Phillips, 2006-02-16 Phillips undertakes a sequential reading of the Prologue of John's Gospel By using the reading strategies of Iser Emmott and Eco the book establishes a reading strategy termed sequential disclosure which is then applied to the text

In order to arrive at the reading preliminary chapters focus both on historical interpretation of the Prologue in terms of reader response and on the role of the author the use of persuasion and the development of irony Special focus is given to the role of the dramatic prologue as well as the interaction between rhetoric irony and community As such the book discusses the role of the reading process in developing a specific community language The book focuses on the didactic role of the Prologue in teaching readers this language and so including them into the Johannine community The reading of the Prologue highlights the key aspects of the reading process ambiguity and disambiguation resemanticization antilanguage community development and intertextuality A sequential reading of the Prologue highlights the didactic and evangelistic role of this text JSNTS 294 Hellenistic Literature: Oxford Bibliographies Online Research Guide Oxford University Press,2010-05-01 This ebook is a selective guide designed to help scholars and students of the ancient world find reliable sources of information by directing them to the best available scholarly materials in whatever form or format they appear from books chapters and journal articles to online archives electronic data sets and blogs Written by a leading international authority on the subject the ebook provides bibliographic information supported by direct recommendations about which sources to consult and editorial commentary to make it clear how the cited sources are interrelated A reader will discover for instance the most reliable introductions and overviews to the topic and the most important publications on various areas of scholarly interest within this topic In classics as in other disciplines researchers at all levels are drowning in potentially useful scholarly information and this guide has been created as a tool for cutting through that material to find the exact source you need This ebook is just one of many articles from Oxford Bibliographies Online Classics a continuously updated and growing online resource designed to provide authoritative guidance through the scholarship and other materials relevant to the study of classics Oxford Bibliographies Online covers most subject disciplines within the social science and humanities for more information visit www.oxfordbibliographies.com Aëtiana \(2 vols.\) Jaap Mansfeld,Douwe (David) Runia,2009-02-28 The theme of this study is the Doxography of problems in physics from the Presocratics to the early first century BCE attributed to Aëtius Part I focuses on the argument of the compendium as a whole of its books of its sequences of chapters and of individual chapters against the background of Peripatetic and Stoic methodology Part II offers the first full reconstruction in a single unified text of Book II which deals with the cosmos and the heavenly bodies It is based on extensive analysis of the relevant witnesses and includes listings of numerous doxographical dialectical parallels in other ancient writings This new treatment of the evidence supersedes Diels still dominant source critical approach and will prove indispensable for scholars in ancient philosophy Paul and the Jewish Law Annalisa Phillips Wilson,2022-09-12 Paul's inconsistency on the Jewish law is a persistent scholarly problem He can argue vociferously against circumcision but also acknowledge its potential benefit He expresses pride in his ancestral law and practices but also describes them in terms of slavery curses and rubbish What are we to make of this In this volume Annalisa Phillips Wilson offers a fresh approach Her comparison of Paul's texts with Stoic ethical reasoning demonstrates that his discourse on Jewish practices reflects Stoic discourse patterns on neutral selections and activities discourse designed to establish one category of incommensurable worth

The Logic of Gilles Deleuze Corry Shores, 2020-10-15 French philosopher Gilles Deleuze wrote two logic books Francis Bacon The Logic of Sensation and The Logic of Sense However in neither of these books nor in any other works does Deleuze articulate in a formal way the features of the logic he employs He certainly does not use classical logic And the best options for the non classical logic that he may be implementing are fuzzy intuitionist and many valued These are applicable to his concepts of heterogeneous composition and becoming affirmative synthetic disjunction and powers of the false In The Logic of Gilles Deleuze Basic Principles Corry Shores examines the applicability of three non classical logics to Deleuze s philosophy by building from the philosophical and logical writings of Graham Priest the world s leading proponent of dialetheism Through so doing Shores argues that Deleuze s logic is best understood as a dialethic paraconsistent many valued logic and philosophical criticism Stoic Warriors Nancy Sherman,2007-03-19 Stoic Warriors explores the relationship between soldiers and Stoic philosophy exploring what Stoicism actually is the role it plays in the character of the military both ancient and modern and its powerful value as a philosophy of life Marshalling anecdotes from military history ranging from ancient Greek wars to World War II Vietnam and Iraq Sherman illuminates the military mind and uses it as a window on the virtues of the Stoic philosophy Indeed this is a perceptive investigation of what makes Stoicism so compelling not only as a guiding principle for the military but as a philosophy for anyone facing the hardships of life Worshipping a Crucified Man Jeremy Hudson,2021-01-01 By the mid second century Christian writers were engaging in debates with educated audiences from non Jewish Graeco Roman cultural backgrounds A remarkable feature of some of these texts is how extensively they refer to the Jewish scriptures even though those scriptures were unfamiliar to non Jewish Graeco Romans In Worshipping a Crucified Man Jeremy Hudson explores for the first time why this should have been so As the basis for his argument Hudson examines three works by Christian converts originally educated in Graeco Roman traditions Justin Martyr s First Apology Tatian s Oratio and Theophilus of Antioch s Ad Autolycum He considers their literary strategies their use of quotations and allusions and how they present the Jewish scriptures all against the background of the Graeco Roman literary culture familiar to both authors and audiences The scriptures are presented as a critically defining feature of Christianity instrumental in shaping the way the new religion presented itself as it strove to engage with and challenge the cultural traditions of the Graeco Roman world This book will engage scholars interested in the very earliest centuries of Christianity and in the central role the Jewish scriptures played in the new religion s self presentation Lucan's Imperial World Laura Zientek,Mark Thorne,2020-02-06 These new essays comprise the first collective study of Lucan and his epic poem that focuses specifically on points of contact between his text and the cultural literary and historical environments in which he lived and wrote The Bellum Civile Lucan s poetic narrative of the monumental civil war between Julius Caesar and Pompey Magnus explores the violent foundations of the Roman principate and the Julio Claudian dynasty The poem composed more than a century later during the reign of Nero thus recalls the past while being very much a product of its time This volume offers innovative readings that seek to interpret Lucan s epic in terms of the contemporary politics philosophy literature rhetoric geography and cultural memory of the author s lifetime In doing so these studies illuminate how approaching Lucan and his text in light of their contemporary environments enriches our understanding of author text and context individually and in conversation with each other , Forms and Concepts Christoph Helmig,2012-12-19 Forms and Concepts is the first comprehensive study of the central role of concepts and concept acquisition in the Platonic tradition It sets up a stimulating dialogue between Plato s innatist approach and Aristotle s much more empirical response The primary aim is to analyze and assess the strategies with which Platonists responded to Aristotle s and Alexander of Aphrodisias rival theory The monograph culminates in a careful reconstruction of the elaborate attempt undertaken by the Neoplatonist Proclus 6th century AD to devise a systematic Platonic theory of concept acquisition Colossians: An Earth Bible Commentary Victoria S. Balabanski, 2020-01-23 Vicky Balabanski analyses Colossians as a co authored letter written during Paul's Roman imprisonment by Timothy with the input of Epaphras and sent with Paul's introductory and concluding greetings Balabanski sees remarkable resonances between the cosmology of this letter and that of Stoic thought the most widely held philosophy in first century Asia Minor Drawing upon the way Stoic thinkers saw the divine Spirit permeating reality and sought to attune their lives to the Logos divine reason she argues that the Logos of Christ the Gospel was welcomed by small groups of people shaped by Stoic thought and they experienced Christ as the visible expression of the One God who permeates reality The Letter to the Colossians has the highest view of Christ of any of the New Testament writings and its theology of divine permeation invites us to notice the ecological potential of this letter This Eco Stoic reading brings contemporary ecological questions into dialogue with the distinctive Christology and cosmology of the letter The Blackwell Companion to Philosophy Nicholas Bunnin, Eric Tsui-James, 2003 An introduction to philosophy looks at key issues figures and movements in the field Holism in Ancient Medicine and Its Reception Chiara Thumiger, 2020-11-30 This volume aims at exploring the ancient roots of holistic approaches in the specific field of medicine and the life sciences without however overlooking the larger theoretical implications of these discussions Therefore the project plans to broaden the perspective to include larger cultural discussions and in a comparative spirit reach out to some examples from non Graeco Roman medical cultures As such it constitutes a fundamental contribution to history of medicine philosophy of medicine cultural studies and ancient studies more broadly The wide ranging selection of chapters offers a comprehensive view of an exciting new field the interrogation of ancient sources in the light of modern concepts in philosophy of medicine as justification of the claim for their enduring relevance as object of study and at the same time as means to a more adequate contextualisation of modern debates within a long historical process Contributors are Hynek Barto Sean Coughlin Elizabeth Craik Brooke Holmes Helen King Giouli Korobili David Leith Vivian Nutton Julius Rocca William Michael Short P N Singer Konstantinos Stefou Chiara Thumiger Laurence Totelin Claire Trenery John Wee Francis Zimmermann
