children's books, home decor and cute tchotchkes, contemporary visual art and artificially intelligent robots function as repositories of seemingly positive feelings and attachment to Asianness. At the same time, Bow demonstrates that these Asianized proxies reveal how fetishistic attraction and pleasure serve as a source of anti-Asian bias and violence. By outlining how attraction to popular representations of Asianness cloaks racial resentment and fears of globalization, Bow provides a new means of understanding the ambivalence surrounding Asians in the United States while offering a theory of the psychological, affective and symbolic dynamics of racist love in contemporary America.

Menus that Made History Alex Johnson, Vincent Franklin, 2019-09-05. An absolutely riveting book reading it makes you intelligent, full of brilliant anecdotes and very hungry indeed. Richard Curtis: This brilliantly conceived and well researched book is a source of real delight. Dr Annie Gray, BBC Radio 4's The Kitchen Cabinet: Superbly written, a complete joy to read and just about the perfect present for anyone even vaguely interested in food. Mark Diacono: A gastronomic delight. You can savour it a course at a time or you may consume the whole banquet in one sitting. It's delicious either way, utterly scrumptious in fact. Mike Leigh: This fascinating miscellany of menus from around the world will educate as well as entertain, delighting both avid foodies and the general reader. Each menu provides an insight into its particular historical moment, from the typical food on offer in a nineteenth century workhouse to the opulence of George IV's gargantuan coronation dinner. Some menus are linked with a specific and unforgettable event, such as The Hindenburg's last flight menu or the variety of meals on offer for First, Second and Third Class passengers on board RMS Titanic, while others give an insight into sport, such as the 1963 FA Cup Final Dinner or transport and travel with the luxury lunch on board the Orient Express. Also included are literary occasions like Charles Dickens' 1868 dinner at Delmonico's in New York as well as the purely fictional and fantastical fare of Ratty's picnic in The Wind in the Willows.

Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress, Copyright Office, 1959. Harper's Monthly Magazine, 1904. Exhibitors Daily Review, 1926. Vitaphone Films Roy Liebman, 2015-05-20. The headline of the Variety extra on October 27, 1926 proclaimed Vitaphone: Thrills! L. A. Vitaphone, a subsidiary of Warner Bros. formed in association with Western Electric, was one of the major producers of talkies, even though its sound-on-disc technology barely lasted four years. The Vitaphone features and shorts that have survived intact or that have been so carefully restored preserve much of the show business history that might otherwise have been lost with the industry's fast-paced advances in movie making. This book is a catalogue of Vitaphone features and shorts. The first section lists the features and shorts by release number. The New York productions, 1926-1940, are listed first, followed by the West Coast productions, 1927-1970. For shorts, the following particulars, if known and if applicable, are given: title, alternate titles, instrumental and vocal selections performed on screen, composer's and performer's names, release date and synopsis of the film, names of major cast members and directors, set information if two or fewer sets were used, and the amount paid to early performers. For features, entries list release dates, genre and major cast members. The section on performers includes only those who appeared in shorts listing dates and places of birth when known
