The Mystic Path C Lee Cooke, 2019-12-17

Have you ever felt the standard fantasy RPG of Camelot with lots of magic was missing something? Were the monk, ninja, and samurai classes not quite enough for you? Get ready to expand your 3rd edition d20 tabletop roleplaying game like never before. The Mystic Path emulates the cinematic action and themes influenced by the Eastern martial arts, bringing all new options to the Middle Ages standard of d20 fantasy RPG. It was inspired by shows like Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon and Forbidden Kingdom, as well as The Matrix and even Scott Pilgrim versus the World. It was also influenced by video games like Street Fighter and Soul Calibur, and intense anime such as Sword Art Online, Dragon Ball Z, and especially Bleach and Ninja Scroll. So if amazing martial arts style combat is what you've desired in your games, if you've wanted more kung fu than Camelot, then The Mystic Path is what you've been missing. Using the mystical martial arts, your characters can now enhance their abilities with Ki Focus and fuel their combat assaults with the power of Spirit Energy instead of just making the same old standard attacks. Your mystic character has many options when utilizing Spirit Energy. It is possible for you to perform rapid assaults with a single action or just make one powerful strike that sends your foes flying through walls. You can also enhance your acrobatic skills to swiftly tumble about the battlefield or learn to teleport, envelop your weapons in elemental energy, and even launch blasts of pure ki at your foes. The Mystic Path is for use with the d20 3.5 SR5 OGL rules. Within this tome, you'll find five all-new classes: the budoka, jeunsa, kagedoka, ki disciple, and xuanzang. Each of these unique classes, known as martial mystics, gains ki powers and stances, special combat abilities, and martial art styles that are fueled by Spirit Energy, allowing each class to be even more customizable and able to fill a role in any campaign. Archetype options for the standard barbarian, bard, cleric, paladin, and ranger classes. The all-new Spirit Energy System: these complete rules contain all you need to run a campaign featuring the mystical martial arts. Over a hundred new feats: amazing feats to help make your Mystic Path character anything from a powerfully focused martial artist to an adaptable wanderer or mystical sage. Along with feats and options that allow standard classes to learn how to gain Ki Focus and even use ki powers and stances. Featuring nine different schools of the Mystic Arts with over five hundred ki powers and stances to choose from. Your character may be a master of the Empty Hand Path, focusing on unarmed combat combined with amazing acrobatic maneuvers, or perhaps a holy warrior of The Way of the Devoted, using her tie to the Spirit World and the gods to heal her allies as she also smites her enemies. However you need not focus on just one path for each mystic class gains access to the Dragon Spirit path and is also able to pick from multiple schools so the combinations are nigh endless Hundreds of spirit items including unique weapons mystic scripts and artifacts advice for running mystic campaigns with conversion rules to use the psionics system as The Spirit Path This book has everything a Game Master needs for a fully immersed mystic themed campaign The Taverner's Trusty Tome (d20 System) David Woodrum, Neal Levin, 2003-09-01 This book is where d20 gets drunk packed with dozens of drinks both mundane and fantastic from beers wines and spirits to exotic fantasy concoctions with strange side effects The book has extensive d20 drinking rules plus guides to taverns and inns and rules for running them Eat drink and be merry an invaluable sourcebook for any campaign which features taverns inns or drinks Rowdy rustic taverns hot meals and strong drink while popular elements in role playing fantasy the lack of variety and detail often make this part of the urban crawl somewhat repetitive and dull Sick of hearing of your players say that they will order an ale for the ten thousandth time The Tome is your solution to add variety Packed with dozens of drinks both mundane and fantastic The Taverner's Tome provides much more than the simple offerings of brew wine and spirits From table wines to the more exotic fruit beers and flavored rum this book is a great resource for spicing up that otherwise plain bar menu Mixed drinks in the height of fantasy flair are also covered as well as the curious fantastical beverages that offer special bonuses or dreadful side effects to those who consume these special concoctions In addition drinking rules are provided along with the different types of drunken personalities that your characters might run into or become Have a character who is more at home behind the bar than within the stone walls of a fortress The player of that character will find a resource of information regarding the success management and expenses of running or owning a tavern or inn Perhaps an individual in your party with a few ranks in brewing or wine making The book also provides information on establishing and maintaining a winery or brewery All this and much much more are available for your hearthside reading pleasure This supplement builds on the popular Drinking Rules first introduced in the bestselling Tournaments Fairs Taverns The Black Company Campaign Setting Robert J.
