Jan Knight,2011-10-21 The author has written parenting columns for over 16 years for a local newspaper in the fastest growing county in the South She has also written for and hosted a parenting radio show Parents and grandparents have requested a book of her columns for years Now rather than cutting them out and putting them on the refrigerator you can carry it with you Since she has written a weekly column for 16 years more books will follow

Help! I'm a Foster Parent: Experiences from Real People. Hope from a Real God. Nikki Hertzler,2023-05-02 Foster families are unsung heroes willing to stand on the front lines for children who can't stand up for themselves But fostering can also be a lonely journey as friends and family members pull away from the fear of the unknown We all have a job to do and it starts by stepping forward and wrapping around those who are sacrificing so much In Help I m a Foster Parent Experiences From Real People Hope From a Real God Nikki Hertzler has compiled the stories of foster families and others who are in the trenches loving advocating and fighting for children who have found themselves displaced from their biological families Their poignant transparent stories will help you get a glimpse into the true realities of fostering discuss ways to support these families and encourage others on their own foster journey through a daily prayer Scripture and reflection Endorsements These stories from foster and adoptive moms will be an encouragement to other foster and adoptive moms This is hard hard work These stories remind us of our humanity God's greatness that we are not alone and how desperately we all need Him Trisha Porter Backyard Orphans Anyone who steps into the fostering system sooner or later realizes how broken and dark it is For fostering families the road is often frustrating and lonely For the children in foster care the emotions are so much more than that That is why we need a book like this Discouragement is always close by and the emotions and feelings run deep But families are not alone We all need to be encouraged to persevere in the messiness to love the children who didn't ask for this to encourage biological parents about whom few care to be a light in the darkness Pastor Derek Parker Lead Pastor Starkey Road Baptist Church Seminole Florida As someone who has never fostered I found the stories in Help I m a Foster Parent powerful The genuine emotion of each devotion is heartfelt Honestly the experiences provoked in me a deeper empathy and support for the brave parents who choose to open their homes But the book provides so much more It honestly relates to the foster parents many challenges and offers understanding camaraderie encouragement and hope This book is a must read for those desiring a deeper understanding of God's command to care for the needy and the orphans Lauren Crews Author of Strength of a Woman Why You Are Proverbs 31
