European Economy Special Report No 1 Responses To The Challenges Of Globalisation:

Responses to the Challenges of Globalisation European Commission, 2002 These and other questions are at the forefront of international and national discussions and are closely linked to the broader debate about global governance and effective development policy This report focuses on two main themes the reform of the international financial architecture as a response to global financial crises and how to finance and promote development as a means of reducing global inequality It reviews the major proposals brought forward to address these challenges by academics policy makers and non governmental groups In doing so it provides a basis for informed policy discussion at both the European and global level The starting point is an analysis of current globalisation trends its driving forces benefits and challenges Editor European Economy, 2006 The November issue of 1978 contains the Commission's Annual economic report and its Annual economic review for 1978 79

The 2005 Projections of Age-related Expenditure (2004-50) for the EU-25 Member States European Commission. Directorate-General for Economic and Financial Affairs, 2006 In 2003 the ECOFIN Council gave the Economic Policy Committee EPC a mandate to produce a new set of long run budgetary projections for all twenty five Member States covering pensions health care long term care education unemployment transfers and if possible contributions to pensions social security systems This follows the projection exercises of 2001 and 2003 The age related expenditure projections feed into a variety of policy debates at EU level In particular they are used in the annual assessment of the sustainability of public finances carried out as part of the Stability and Growth Pact in the context of the Open Method of Co ordination on pensions and the analysis on the impact of ageing populations on the labour market and potential growth which will be relevant for the Lisbon strategy and Broad Economic Policy Guidelines This report provides a description of underlying assumptions projection methodologies and background analysis of the age related expenditure projections Final results will be calculated on the basis the described methodology and will be presented to the Ecofin Council in February 2006 Labour Market and Wage Developments in 2005, with Special Focus on Labour Market Adjustment in the Euro Area European Commission.

Directorate-General for Economic and Financial Affairs, 2006 Includes statistics International Journal of Sustainable Development, 2005 Quality and Efficiency in Education European Commission. Directorate-General for Economic and Financial Affairs, 2005 Education and training policies in Europe have aroused growing interest in recent years at both national and EU levels and from economists and labour market specialists as well as from educationalists Several reasons for this led EU leaders to call in March 2000 for a substantial annual increase in per capita investment in human resources This is a key strand of the Lisbon strategy by which the EU aims to become the most competitive and dynamic knowledge based economy in the world capable of sustaining economic growth with more and better jobs and greater social cohesion

Labour Market and Wage Developments in 2004 European Commission. Directorate-General for Economic and Financial Affairs, 2005 This report examines recent labour market developments from a macroeconomic perspective with the aim of shedding light on the interaction of employment trends with others macroeconomic developments such as GDP and productivity growth in 2004 It presents in a comprehensive way the main findings related to recent trends and prospects on both the quantity side employment participation unemployment and labour cost side wage and unit labour cost developments The special focus of the report takes a detailed look at one of the pressing problems facing policy makers as regards labour markets It asks whether the EU in the event of an upturn of economic activity faces the same risk of a job loss or a jobless recovery or may continue to be job rich as in 1995 2000 This question clearly has important ramifications for the future growth prospects of the EU and the possibility of achieving the Lisbon goals By combining macroeconomic and microeconomic aspects the report provides the necessary depth and analysis that can fulfil a variety of policy needs such as multilateral surveillance of Member States economies by the Economic Policy Committee a better understanding of the contribution of employment to growth in the context of the Lisbon strategy the necessary information on wages and labour costs for the macroeconomic dialogue European Access, 2002 Globalisation Cécile Denis, Kieran McMorrough, Werner Röger, 2006 EMU After Five Years, 2005 This major report highlights the positive contribution that the euro has made to macroeconomic stability over the past five years as well as its key role in accelerating economic integration in Europe

European Responses to Globalization and Financial Market Integration A. Verdun, 2000-02-17 This book investigates the perceptions of political actors towards the creation of Economic and Monetary Union EMU in Europe The research is largely based on personal interviews conducted with key informants in central banks finance ministries employers organizations and trade unions in Britain France and Germany It examines why actors perceived EMU to serve or frustrate their interests It concludes that actors favoured EMU for a variety of reasons The book contributes to the literature of European integration and incorporates economic political and historical facts Indicators and Policies to Make Work Pay Giuseppe Carone, Aino Salomäki, 2005 The Commission's Directorate General for Economic and Financial Affairs hosted a workshop on making work pay policies and indicators in March 2005 a particularly opportune moment to discuss these issues since it coincided with the new start for the Lisbon strategy with its increased focus on growth and jobs The purpose of the workshop was to contribute to the debate on reforms of tax and benefit systems It took stock of the most recent studies by academic researchers in this area and brought some recently developed indicators on work incentives to the attention of the participants It also provided an opportunity for discussion between academic researchers and labour market experts in national administrations and EU institutions The papers presented in the workshop demonstrate that there are tangible benefits in bringing together academic researchers and national policy makers to exploit research findings compare experiences and exchange best practices to shape further reforms This volume brings those contributions together They shed light on highly topical issues such as indicators on incentives the role of incentives eligibility rules and enforcement the responsiveness of labour supply and the lessons that can be learnt from national labour market reforms Globalization and EU Trade Policy at the Time of Crises: governance and sustainability challenges Francisco Torres, Annette Bongardt, 2023-04-03 Este livro fornece uma análise política e econômica aos novos desafios da globalização e da política comercial da União Europeia numa altura em que esta enfrenta múltiplas crises e uma ordem comercial multilateral enfraquecida Rich with cutting edge insights into the complex intersections between globalization and EU trade policy this book helps us see how the EU leverages but also wrestles with the new generation of trade agreements to advance its ambitions in an ever challenging global environment Francesco Duina Charles A Dana Professor of Sociology and European Studies and Chair of the Social Sciences Division at Bates College Trade policy is currently at a crossroads and EU leadership at the global level is arguably more important now than ever This book tackles the challenges ahead via insightful multidisciplinary analysis by top scholars working at the intersection of trade and globalization Michael G Plummer Director SAIS Europe and Eni Professor of International Economics Johns Hopkins University

Facetten der Globalisierung Johannes Kessler, Christian Steiner, 2009-07-15 Globalisierung ist in der öffentlichen Debatte häufig negativ konnotiert Das verbreitete Unbehagen gegen die Globalisierung bezieht sich in der Regel auf die wirtschaftliche Dimension auf die das Phänomen auch in der Mehrzahl der wissenschaftlichen Analysen beschränkt bleibt Die multidisziplinären Beiträge dieses Bandes zielen im Gegenzug zum einen darauf ab den Facettenreichtum des Phänomens Globalisierung sowie der zugehörigen wissenschaftlichen Diskussion aufzuzeigen Zum anderen wird die negative Bewertung von Globalisierungsprozessen in Bezug auf verschiedene Teilaspekte kritisch hinterfragt bergeordnet geht dieser Band der Frage nach ob die Globalisierung mit einer Homogenisierung oder einer Fragmentierung unserer Lebenswelt einhergeht

Supplying Compliance with Trade Rules Alasdair R. Young, 2021-09-28 Trade agreements have become politicized in part because of public concerns that trade rules constrain regulatory decisions How much international obligations constrain state behaviour however is contested in the International Relations literature This book seeks to explain whether why and how jurisdictions comply with inconvenient international obligations It does so through detailed process tracing of European Union EU policies found incompatible with World Trade Organization WTO rules its ban on hormone treated beef its banana trade regime its moratorium on the approval of genetically modified crops its sugar export subsidies and its anti dumping duties on bed linen from India It uses the adverse rulings as the treatment in a natural experiment contrasting the policy relevant politics before and after each ruling The case studies are supplemented by a qualitative comparative analysis of all EU policies found to contravene WTO rules that had to be changed by the end of 2019 The book contributes to debates on the impact of international institutions on the effectiveness of the WTO and on the nature of the EU as an international actor It argues that the preferences of policy makers the supply of policy change matter more than demands from societal actors in determining whether compliance occurs It also argues that while policy change in response to adverse WTO rulings is the norm good news for trade WTO members do resist obligations that would compromise cherished policy objectives good news for legitimacy This volume contends that the EU's compliance performance is like that of most WTO members it is not a unique international actor

Monetary Stability as a Common Concern in International Law Lucía Satragno, 2022-02-28 The open access publication of this book has been published with the support of the Swiss National Science Foundation In Monetary Stability as a Common Concern in International Law Lucía Satragno argues that monetary stability is a global public good that must be promoted and protected at all levels of governance In doing so the book accomplishes two tasks On one hand it provides an up to date analysis of the role of law and institutions in the international monetary field since the collapse of the Bretton Woods system On the other hand it applies the methodological approach proposed by the novel doctrine of Common Concern of Humankind to monetary stability as a case study Accordingly the book examines not only the status quo of the international monetary system but also looks at the new and different realism that would be envisaged in monetary affairs in the case of a fully fledged principle of Common Concern Globalization, Hegemony and the Future of the City of London L.

Talani, 2011-10-27 This book gives a detailed account of the primacy of the City of London both as a domestic actor and as a global financial centre It focuses on whether the hegemonic position of the City of London can be threatened by the globalization process and how this relates to its role as an international money laundering centre Rethinking European

Social Democracy and Socialism Alan Granadino, Stefan Nygård, Peter Stadius, 2022-03-21 With a combined focus on social democrats in Northern and Southern Europe this book crucially broadens our understanding of the transformation of European social democracy from the mid 1970s to the early 1990s In doing so it revisits the transformation of this ideological family at the end of the Cold War and before the launch of Third Way politics and examines the dynamics and power relations at play among European social democratic parties in a context of nascent globalisation The chronological methodological and geographical approaches adopted allow for a more nuanced narrative of change for European social democracy than the hitherto dominant centric perspective This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of social democracy the European Centre left political parties ideologies and more broadly to comparative politics and European politics and history The Introduction chapter of this book is available for free in PDF format as Open Access from the individual product page at www.routledge.com It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license European Welfare States and Globalization Ali Hajighasemi, 2019 This timely book assesses how Europe's welfare states have dealt with the challenges of globalisation and the financial crisis It asks whether the European Union has adopted a general strategy for dealing with four major threats to the sustainable development of European societies the employability of a growing number of redundant workers an aging population low birth rates and the persistent problem of gender inequality The book will be an important read for social policy scholars particularly those focusing on European welfare states how they differ and lessons to be learnt from them It also highlights key lessons from a broad range of case studies to help policymakers in understanding how and where improvements may be made in the future Civil Society Organizations and the Global Response to HIV/AIDS Julia Smith, 2016-11-03 Why has the response to HIV AIDS been unique How did civil society organizations gain access to global decision making forums to demand exceptional attention and resources for HIV AIDS This book seeks to answer these questions among others through a critical international relations approach that enquires into the role of civil society in global health governance It documents how civil society forged the initial response to HIV AIDS within a rights based paradigm and built international networks It analyses why civil society was able to gain the right to participate in global health institutions and assesses what influence civil society representatives have within these institutions particularly focusing on outcomes related to institutional legitimacy and downward accountability It then discusses changes in the broader political economy of global health and how HIV AIDS organizations have or have not adapted to these shifts Finally the book tells the story of the many struggles civil society organizations have engaged in to advance a rights based response to HIV AIDS the transformations achieved and the resistance experienced
