celebration of food and life itself Festivals of Western Europe Dorothy Gladys Spicer,1958-01-01 Organized by country and then chronologically this volume presents information on the festivals of Belgium Denmark France Germany Italy Luxembourg the Netherlands Norway Portugal Spain Sweden and Switzerland Architectures of Festival in Early Modern Europe J.R. Mulryne,Krista De Jonge,Pieter Martens,R.L.M. Morris,2017-10-25 This fourth volume in the European Festival Studies 1450 1700 series breaks with precedent in stemming from a joint conference Venice 2013 between the Society for European Festivals Research and the PALATIUM project supported by the European Science Foundation The volume draws on up to date research by a Europe wide group of academic scholars and museum and gallery curators to provide a unique intellectually stimulating and beautifully illustrated account of temporary architecture created for festivals of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries together with permanent architecture pressed into service for festival occasions across major European locations including Italian French Austrian Scottish and German Appealing and vigorous in style the essays look towards classical sources while evoking political and practical circumstances and intellectual concerns from re shaping and re conceptualizing early sixteenth century Rome through providing for the well being and political allegiance of Medici era Florentines and exploring the teasing aesthetics of performance at Versailles to accommodating players and spectators in seventeenth century Paris and at royal and ducal events for the Habsburg French and English crowns The volume is unique in its field in the diversity of its topics and the range of its scholarship and fascinating in its account of the intellectual and political life of Early Modern Europe The Golden Bough: Balder the beautiful. The fire-festivals of Europe and the doctrine of the external soul Sir James George Frazer,1913 Festivals and Values Waldemar Kuligowski,Marcin Poprawski,2023-11-27 This is an original book covering all the past areas of research anyone would need to know about festivals and event based culture It is based on academic research but written in a way relevant for cultural professionals uniquely explaining the cultural power of festivals and with original empirical research the realities of organisation and management and social and economic value Dr Jonathan Vickery Reader in Cultural Policy Studies and Director Centre for Cultural and Media Policy Studies Univeristy of Warwick This book discusses music festivals in the context of the specific values they convey Today music festivals are a permanent feature of national regional and local cultural policies a valuable asset in the tourism industry and a significant source of income for an industry that has been adversely affected by the steady decline in physical sales of music For the audience on the other hand it is an opportunity to escape from everyday life multi sensory contact with art an activity that stands for full body participation a cultural phenomenon that drags people out of their homes like no other There is one common denominator linking the above mentioned features of contemporary music festivals namely the world of values This is evident from the non accidental locations festivals spaces design planning and the line ups created consciously with great care The organisers missions logos and other symbolic organisational artefacts communicate specific values These values are explicitly mentioned by artists and audiences they can be easily identified in online forums and media reports participant behaviour festival rituals and additional festival programs are shaped on the basis of values and cooperation is built between the festival and the local community As the reader will quickly realize numbers and statistics sit alongside descriptions and quotations in this book and the organisers statements are accompanied by the opinions of academics but above all the festival audience is given a voice both through quotations and their drawings This voice is by no means uniform as it turned out that research into values was often transformed into a pretext for spinning tales about one s life situation one s political preferences and one s understanding of freedom and responsibility Memories were mixed with declarations joy with regret curses with dreams prose with poetry Thomas Pettitt was not wrong in noting that Social history has learnt to appreciate festival as a valuable window on society and its structures The authors have tried to open all the windows available Students and researchers in the fields of cultural anthropology social psychology folklore studies comparative religion sociology of culture cultural policy cultural history and cultural management will find this book highly interesting

The Pusan International Film Festival, South Korean Cinema and Globalization SooJeong Ahn □□
□,2011-11-01 This book provides a political and cultural exploration of the Pusan International Film Festival in South Korea since its inception in 1996 By paying a particular attention to the organizers use of an Asian regionalization strategy SooJeong Ahn reveals how the festival staked out a unique and influential position within a rapidly changing global landscape Very little primary empirical research has been conducted to date on non Western film festivals though PIFF and Tokyo and Hong Kong have swiftly grown more exciting and influential as testing grounds for global cinema innovations The initiation development and growth of PIFF should be understood as resulting from productive tensions in the festival s efforts to serve local regional and national constituencies The book also reflects the complexities of rapid transformation in the South Korean film industry as it has reached out to the global market since the late 1990s SooJeong Ahn worked for the Pusan International Film Festival between 1998 and 2002 and has completed a Ph D on film festivals at the University of Nottingham Her recent publications include Re imagining the Past Programming South Korean Retrospectives at PIFF in Film International Vol 6 2008 Placing South Korean Cinema into Pusan International Film Festival Programming Strategy in the Global Local Context in What a Difference a Region Makes Cultural Studies and Cultural Industries in North East Asia 2009 Re mapping Asian Cinema The Tenth Anniversary of PIFF in 2005 in Cinemas Identities and Beyond 2010
