European Intellectual History Since Seventeen Eighty Nine:

European Intellectual History Since 1789 Roland N. Stromberg, 1994 For courses in European Intellectual History An exploration of the major issues in thought from the French Revolution to Structuralism and beyond Books in Print Supplement, 1994 Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1993 Paperbound Books in Print, 1982 Under the Shadow of Napoleon Michael Bonura, 2012-05-07 The way an army thinks about and understands warfare has a tremendous impact on its organization training and operations The central ideas of that understanding form a nation's way of warfare that influences decisions on and off the battlefield From the disasters of the War of 1812 Winfield Scott ensured that America adopted a series of ideas formed in the crucible of the Wars of the French Revolution and epitomized by Napoleon Reflecting American cultural changes these French ideas dominated American warfare on the battlefields of the Mexican American War the American Civil War the Spanish American War and World War I America remained committed to these ideas until cultural pressures and the successes of German Blitzkrieg from 1939 1940 led George C Marshall to orchestrate the adoption of a different understanding of warfare Michael A Bonura examines concrete battlefield tactics army regulations and theoretical works on war as they were presented in American army education manuals professional journals and the popular press to demonstrate that as a cultural construction warfare and ways of warfare can be transnational and influence other nations

A History of the Intellectual Development of Europe John William Draper, 1863 Islam, Orientalism and Intellectual History Mohammad R. Salama, 2011-03-30 Debates on the relationship between Islam and the West rage on from talk of clashing civilizations to political pacification from ethical and historical perspectives to distrust xenophobia and fear Here Mohammad Salama argues that the events of 9 11 force us to engage ourselves fully without preconditions in understanding not just the history of Islam as a religion but of Islam as a historical condition that has existed in relationship to the West since the seventh century Salama compares the Arab Islamic and European traditions of historical thought since the early modern period focusing on the watershed moments that informed the two traditions ideas of intellectual history and perceptions of one another He draws attention to European intellectual history's entangled links with the Islamic philosophy of history especially the complexities of orientalism and modernity Recent critical reflections on the work of Ibn Khaldun confirm this intertwined and troubled relationship reflecting major disparities and contradictions At the same time recent Arab writings on Europe's intellectual history reveal a struggle against erasure and intellectual superiority Calling for a new understanding of the relationship between Islam and the West Salama argues that Islam has played a major role in enabling and positioning various paths of Western historiography at crucial moments of its development leaving palpable imprints on Islamic historiography in the process He proposes an answer to a fundamental question how to make sense of the mechanics of production in Arab Islamic and Western historiographies or how to identify the ways in which they have both failed to make sense of themselves and of each other in an increasingly disenchanted postnationalist world Spanning an impressive array of recent writings on these themes as well as older foundational texts in both traditions including al Tabar Ibn Khald n Hegel al Jabart Toynbee Foucault Edward Said and Hourani this book is both timely and crucial for all those interested in Islamic and Middle Eastern studies Western and Islamic philosophies of history modernity and the relationship between Islam and the West

Domingos Álvares, African Healing, and the Intellectual History of the Atlantic World James H. Sweet, 2011-02-28 Between 1730 and 1750 powerful healer and vodun priest Domingos Alvares traversed the colonial Atlantic world like few Africans of his time from Africa to South America to Europe addressing the profound alienation of warfare capitalism and the African slave trade through the language of health and healing In Domingos Alvares African Healing and the Intellectual History of the Atlantic World James H Sweet finds dramatic means for unfolding a history of the eighteenth century Atlantic world in which healing religion kinship and political subversion were intimately connected

History of the Intellectual Development of Europe John William Draper, 1865 History of the Intellectual Development of Europe John William Draper, 1864 An Intellectual History of Cannibalism Ctlin Avramescu, 2011-08-28 Annotation Based on the research he undertook in rare book collections housed in Scotland the United States Finland Iceland Holland Germany and Austria the author presents a systematic history of cannibalism as reflected in the mirror of philosophy Fascism: The nature of fascism Roger Griffin, Matthew Feldman, 2004 The nature of fascism has been hotly contested by scholars since the term was first coined by Mussolini in 1919 However for the first time since Italian fascism appeared there is now a significant degree of consensus amongst scholars about how to approach the generic term namely as a revolutionary form of ultra nationalism Seen from this perspective all forms of fascism have three common features anticonservatism a myth of ethnic or national renewal and a conception of a nation in crisis This collection includes articles that show this new consensus which is inevitably contested as well as making available material which relates to aspects of fascism independently of any sort of consensus and also covering fascism of the inter and post war periods This is a comprehensive selection of texts reflecting both the extreme multi faceted nature of fascism as a phenomenon and the extraordinary divergence of interpretations of fascism Books in Print , 1994 Nationalism in Modern Europe Derek Hastings, 2023-01-12 Derek Hastings s Nationalism in Modern Europe is the essential guide to a potent political and cultural phenomenon that featured prominently across the modern era With firm grounding in transnational and global contexts the book traces the story of nationalism in Europe from the French Revolution to the present Hastings reflects on various nationalist ideas and movements across Europe and always with a keen appreciation of other prevalent signifiers of belonging such as religion race class and gender which helps to inform and strengthen the analysis The text shines a light on key historiographical trends and debates and includes 20 images 14 maps and a range of primary source excerpts which can serve to sharpen vital analytical skills which are crucial to the subject New content and features for the second edition include A chapter examining region religion class and gender as alternative markers of identity throughout the 19th century An enhanced global dimension that covers transnational fascism and non European comparatives Additional primary source excerpts and figures Historiographical updates throughout which account for recent research in the field Fascism Walter Laqueur,1978 Re-Figuring Hayden White Frank Ankersmit,Ewa Domańska,Hans Kellner,2009-06-24 Produced in honor of White s eightieth birthday Re Figuring Hayden White testifies to the lasting importance of White s innovative work which firmly reintegrates historical studies with literature and the humanities The book is a major reconsideration of the historian s contributions and influence by an international group of leading scholars from a variety of disciplines Individual essays address the key concepts of White s intellectual career including tropes narrative figuralism and the historical sublime while exploring the place of White s work in the philosophy of history postmodernism and ethics They also discuss his role as historian and teacher and apply his ideas to specific historical events

Postmodernism: Disciplinary texts : humanities and social sciences Victor E. Taylor,Charles E. Winquist,1998 V 1 Foundational essays V 2 Critical Texts V 3 Disciplinary texts Humanities and social sciences V 4 Legal studies psychoanalytic studies visual arts and architecture The Greening of London, 1920-2000 Matti O. Hannikainen,2017-05-15 The long term development of public green spaces such as parks public gardens and recreation grounds in London during the twentieth century is a curiously neglected subject despite the fact that various kinds of green spaces cover huge areas in cities in the UK today This book explores how and why public green spaces have been created and used in London and what actors have been involved in their evolution during the course of the twentieth century Building on case studies of the contemporary boroughs of Camden and Southwark and making use of a wealth of archival material the author takes us through the planning and creation stages to the intended and actual uses and ongoing management of the spaces By highlighting the rise and fall of municipal authorities and the impact of neo liberalism after the 1970s the book also deepens our understanding of how London has been governed planned and ruled during the twentieth century It makes a crucial contribution to academic as well as political discourse on the history and present role of green space in sustainable cities
