comprehensive bibliography and guide to further reading Remaking the Middle Ages Andrew B.R. Elliott,2014-01-10 Proposing a fresh theoretical approach to the study of cinematic portrayals of the Middle Ages this book uses both semiotics and historiography to demonstrate how contemporary filmmakers have attempted to recreate the past in a way that while largely imagined is also logical meaningful and as truthful as possible Carrying out this critical approach the author analyzes a wide range of films depicting the Middle Ages arguing that most of these films either reflect the past through a series of visual signs a concept he has called iconic recreation or by comparing the past to a modern equivalent called paradigmatic representation Pagan Survivals, Superstitions and Popular Cultures in Early Medieval Pastoral Literature Bernadette

Filotas,2005 This comprehensive study examines early medieval popular culture as it appears in ecclesiastical and secular law sermons penitentials and other pastoral works a selective skewed but still illuminating record of the beliefs and practices of ordinary Christians Concentrating on the five centuries from c 500 to c 1000 Pagan Survivals Superstitions and Popular Cultures in Early Medieval Pastoral Literature presents the evidence for folk religious beliefs and piety attitudes to nature and death festivals magic drinking and alimentary customs As such it provides a precious glimpse of the mutual adaptation of Christianity and traditional cultures at an important period of cultural and religious transition BOOK JACKET

Ecclesiastical Landscapes in Medieval Europe: An Archaeological Perspective José Carlos Sánchez-Pardo,Emmet Marron,Maria Crîngaci Țiplic,2020-07-02 By presenting case studies from across Eastern and Western Medieval Europe this volume aims to open up a Europe wide debate on the variety of relations and contexts between ecclesiastical buildings and their surrounding landscapes between the 5th and 15th centuries AD      Early Medieval Europe 300-1050 David Rollason, 2018-03-29 Early Medieval Europe 300 1050 A Guide for Studying and Teaching empowers students by providing them with the conceptual and methodological tools to investigate the period Throughout the book major research questions and historiographical debates are identified and guidance is given on how to engage with and evaluate key documentary sources as well as artistic and archaeological evidence The book's aim is to engender confidence in creative and independent historical thought This second edition has been fully revised and expanded and now includes coverage of both Islamic and Byzantine history surveying and critically examining the often radically different scholarly interpretations relating to them Also new to this edition is an extensively updated and closely integrated companion website which has been carefully designed to provide practical guidance to teachers and students offering a wealth of reference materials and aids to mastering the period and lighting the way for further exploration of written and non written sources Accessibly written and containing over 70 carefully selected maps and images Early Medieval Europe 300 1050 is an essential resource for students studying this period for the first time as well as an invaluable aid to university teachers devising and delivering courses and modules on the period      A Companion to Late Antiquity Philip Rousseau, 2012-01-25 An accessible and authoritative overview capturing the vitality and diversity of scholarship that exists on the transformative time period known as late antiquity Provides an essential overview of current scholarship on late antiquity from between the accession of Diocletian in AD 284 and the end of Roman rule in the Mediterranean Comprises 39 essays from some of the world's foremost scholars of the era Presents this once neglected period as an age of powerful transformation that shaped the modern world Emphasizes the central importance of religion and its connection with economic social and political life Winner of the 2009 Single Volume Reference Humanities Social Sciences PROSE award granted by the Association of American Publishers      Religion in Rural Late-Antique Iberia José Carlos López Gómez, Antón Alvar Nuño, 2025-06-16 This volume examines the dynamism and complexity of religious expressions in rural settings across Late Antique Iberia Chapters demonstrate that the rural world was a dynamic space which formed an integral part of the multi directional process of religious exchange on the Iberian Peninsula in Late Antiquity thus refuting the idea that rural spaces and in turn rural religious practices were static and unchanging anchored in tradition and resistant to any process of religious change The chapters present a series of case studies that examine phenomena such as the multi locality of certain religious groups that moved periodically between the city and the countryside the strategies that local agents used to shape religious expressions in rural areas significantly marked by the permeability between the urban and rural worlds the creation of religious landscapes as spaces imbued with cultural meanings by religious authorities that conceive the rural world as a place of refuge and spiritual experience or the analysis of trans local religious networks that connected rural and urban settings facilitating the transmission of rituals and practices between these two spheres Finally both the introduction and the final chapter discuss the concept of rural religion and its applicability to the sphere of Late Antiquity This volume provides a much needed resource for students and scholars of religion in Late Antique Iberia and in the post Roman world more broadly as well as anyone working on rural religion in the ancient Late Antique and Medieval worlds Ecology and Theology in the Ancient World Ailsa Hunt,Hilary F.

Marlow,2019-03-21 This multi disciplinary volume brings together the voices of biblical scholars classicists philosophers theologians and political theorists to explore how ecology and theology intersected in ancient thinking both pagan Jewish and Christian Ecological awareness is by no means purely a modern phenomenon Of course melting icecaps and plastic bag charges were of no concern in antiquity frequently what made examining your relationship with the natural world urgent was the light this shed on human relationships with the divine For in the ancient world to think about ecology was also to think about theology This ancient eco theological thinking whilst in many ways worlds apart from our own environmental concerns has also had a surprisingly rich impact on modern responses to our ecological crisis As such the voices gathered in this volume also reflect on whether and how these ancient ideas could inform modern responses to our environment and its pressing challenges Through multi disciplinary conversation this volume offers a new and dynamic exploration of the intersection of ecology and theology in ancient thinking and its living legacy Contesting Orthodoxy in Medieval and Early Modern Europe Louise Nyholm Kallestrup,Raisa Maria Toivo,2017-02-04 This book breaks with three common scholarly barriers of periodization discipline and geography in its exploration of the related themes of heresy magic and witchcraft It sets aside constructed chronological boundaries and in doing so aims to achieve a clearer picture of what went before as well as what came after Thus the volume demonstrates continuity as well as change in the concepts and understandings of magic heresy and witchcraft In addition the geographical pattern of similarities and diversities suggests a comparative approach transcending confessional as well as national borders Throughout the medieval and early modern period the orthodoxy of the Christian Church was continuously contested The challenge of heterodoxy especially as expressed in various kinds of heresy magic and witchcraft was constantly present during the period 1200 1650 Neither contesters nor followers of orthodoxy were homogeneous groups or fractions They themselves and their ideas changed from one century to the next from region to region even from city to city but within a common framework of interpretation This collection of essays focuses on this complex A Sociological History of Christian Worship Martin D. Stringer,2005-07-14 In this book the 2000 year history of Christian worship is viewed from a sociological perspective Martin Stringer develops the idea of discourse as a way of understanding the place of Christian worship within its many and diverse social contexts Beginning with the Biblical material the author provides a broad survey of changes over 2000 years of the Christian church together with a series of case studies that highlight particular elements of the worship or specific theoretical applications Stringer does not simply examine the mainstream traditions of Christian worship in Europe and Byzantium but also gives space to lesser known traditions in Armenia India Ethiopia and elsewhere Offering a contribution to the ongoing debate that breaks away from a purely textual or theological study of Christian worship this book provides a greater understanding of the place of worship in its social and cultural context Recultivating the Vineyard Scott H. Hendrix, 2004-01-01 Scott Hendrix argues in this book that the sixteenth century reformers all shared the same goal to Christianize Christendom that is to replant authentic Christianity in the vineyard of the Lord in the same European Christendom which they believed had been devastated by the medieval church He believes it is more accurate and useful to speak of one Reformation and to locate its diversity in the various theological and practical agendas that were developed to realize the goal of Christianization Holy Wells of Ireland Celeste Ray, Finbar McCormick, 2023-09-19 The storied landscapes of Ireland are dotted with holy wells hallowed springs pools ponds and lakes credited with curative powers and often associated with Catholic and indigenous saints While many of these sites have been recently lost to development others are visited daily for devotions and remain the focus of annual community gatherings Encouraging both their use and protection Holy Wells of Ireland delves into these irreplaceable resources of spiritual archaeological and historical significance Reserves of localized spiritual practices holy wells are also ecosystems in themselves and provide habitats for rare and culturally meaningful flora and fauna The shift toward a post Catholic Ireland has prompted renewed interest in holy wells as popular domains with organic faith traditions Of the roughly 3 000 holy wells documented across Ireland some attract international pilgrims and others are stewarded by a single family Featuring 140 color images this remarkable volume shares the transdisciplinary work of contributors who study these wells through the overlapping lenses of anthropology archaeology art history biomedicine folklore geography history and hydrology Braiding community perspectives with those of scholars across academia Holy Wells of Ireland considers Irish holy wells as a resilient feature of ever evolving Irish Christianity as inspiration to other faith traditions as places of pilgrimage and healing and as threatened biocultural resources Illustrated Lexicon of Germanic Deities Gunivortus Goos, 2022 Romanising Oriental Gods Jaime Alvar Ezquerro, 2008 The traditional grand narrative correlating the decline of Graeco Roman religion with the rise of Christianity has been under pressure for three decades This book argues that the alternative accounts now emerging significantly underestimate the role of three major cults of Cybele and Attis Isis and Serapis and Mithras Although their differences are plain these cults present sufficient common features to justify their being taken typologically as a group All were selective adaptations of much older cults of the Fertile Crescent It was their relative sophistication their combination of the imaginative power of unfamiliar myth with distinctive ritual performance and ethical seriousness that enabled them both to focus and to articulate a sense of the autonomy of religion from the socio political order a sense they shared with Early Christianity The notion of mystery was central to their ability to navigate the Weberian shift from ritualist to ethical salvation Romanising Oriental Gods Jaime Alvar, 2008-07-31 The traditional grand narrative correlating the decline of Graeco Roman religion with the rise of Christianity has been under pressure for three decades This book argues that the alternative accounts now emerging significantly underestimate the role of three major cults of Cybele and Attis Isis and Serapis and Mithras Although their differences are plain these cults present sufficient common features to justify their being taken typologically as a group All were selective adaptations of much older cults of the Fertile Crescent It was their relative sophistication their combination of the imaginative power of unfamiliar myth with distinctive ritual performance and ethical seriousness that enabled them both to focus and to articulate a sense of the autonomy of religion from the socio political order a sense they shared with Early Christianity The notion of mystery was central to their ability to navigate the Weberian shift from ritualist to ethical salvation      Sacred Waters Celeste Ray,2020-02-18 Describing sacred waters and their associated traditions in over thirty countries and across multiple time periods this book identifies patterns in panhuman hydrolatry Supplying life s most basic daily need freshwater sources were likely the earliest sacred sites and the first protected and contested resource Guarded by taboos rites and supermundane forces freshwater sources have also been considered thresholds to otherworlds Often associated also with venerated stones trees and healing flora sacred water sources are sites of biocultural diversity Addressing themes that will shape future water research this volume examines cultural perceptions of water s sacrality that can be employed to foster resilient human environmental relationships in the growing water crises of the twenty first century The work combines perspectives from anthropology archaeology classics folklore geography geology history literature and religious studies      Sacred Groves, Cultural Ecosystems and Conservation Rena Laisram,2023-04-03 Sacred Groves Cultural Ecosystems and Conservation addresses the increasing contemporary relevance of ecosystems being depleted at an alarming rate worldwide The purpose of this collection of essays is to bring together different perspectives on sacred groves in the context of the cultural and spiritual dimensions of biodiversity conservation In offering an experience of sacred natural sites in varied cultural contexts of Africa and Asia it raises a common concern for natural resource management Based on the long term research of the contributing authors the nine chapters reflect a continuous process of redefining sacred spaces within an interdisciplinary framework grounded on existing literature and ethnographic field research The highlight of the discourse is the complex interactions and negotiations between the sacred and the secular which brings center stage the subject of sacred status that communities have given to nature This book will be of interest to researchers and general audience alike interested and concerned with earth ecosystems and the spiritual world creating a space for critical enquiry and future hopes in the face of threatening habitat loss      Twilight of the Godlings Francis Young,2023-03-30 A bold and field defining exploration of the cultural and religious origins of Britain s small gods fairies and other supernatural beings      Community and Identity at the Edges of the Classical World Aaron W. Irvin,2020-09-28 A timely and academically significant contribution to scholarship on community identity and globalization in the Roman and Hellenistic worlds Community and Identity at the Edges of the Classical World examines the construction of personal and communal identities in the ancient world exploring how globalism multi culturalism and other macro events influenced micro identities throughout the Hellenistic and Roman empires This innovative volume discusses where contact and the sharing of ideas was occurring in the time period and applies modern theories based on networks and communication to historical and archaeological data A new generation of international scholars challenge traditional views of Classical history and offer original perspectives on the impact globalizing trends had on localized areas insights that resonate with similar issues today This singular resource presents a broad multi national view rarely found in western collected volumes including Serbian Macedonian and Russian scholarship on the Roman Empire as well as on Roman and Hellenistic archaeological sites in Eastern Europe Topics include Egyptian identity in the Hellenistic world cultural identity in Roman Greece Romanization in Slovenia Balkan Latin the provincial organization of cults in Roman Britain and Soviet studies of Roman Empire and imperialism Serving as a synthesis of contemporary scholarship on the wider topic of identity and community this volume Provides an expansive materialist approach to the topic of globalization in the Roman world Examines ethnicity in the Roman empire from the viewpoint of minority populations Offers several views of metascholarship a growing sub discipline that compares ancient material to modern scholarship Covers a range of themes time periods and geographic areas not included in most western publications Community and Identity at the Edges of the Classical World is a valuable resource for academics researchers and graduate students examining identity and ethnicity in the ancient world as well as for those working in multiple fields of study from Classical Hellenistic and Roman historians to the study of ethnicity identity and globalizing trends in time
