Tomusk, 2004-04-23 This book is about higher education reforms in the post socialist states of Central and Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union seen through the eyes of somebody who has spent the last decade analyzing these reforms as well as negotiating and supervising reform projects in countries from Serbia and Montenegro to Mongolia Analyzing the reforms in a broader political economic and social context and relating these to global higher education developments the book addresses the complexity of the processes and contradictions among the demands on higher education systems which in many instances impede positive changes Place-based Economic Development and the New EU Cohesion Policy Philip McCann, Attila Varga, 2018-02-02 The new EU Cohesion Policy is one of the largest integrated development policies in the Western world and one of the largest of such programmes anywhere in the world The reforms to the EU Cohesion Policy contain many different elements each of which interlink in order to provide a cohesive overall framework Some of the key elements in the reforms however relate to the conditionalities employed and their effects on policy governance and the control mechanism the smart specialization approach to policy prioritization and resource allocation the underlying place based logic of the policy and the overall results orientation and evaluation emphasis of the policy In each of the areas of the EU Cohesion Policy reforms many different scholars from the fields of regional studies regional science and economic geography have played important roles in shaping the new policy and the chapters here highlight these increasing interactions between the policy and academic spheres of debate The collection of essays in this book each deal with specific aspects of these critical elements of the Cohesion Policy reforms In particular they examine some of the strengths and weaknesses of these individual elements and allowing for a better understanding of the origins and backgrounds of many of the ideas underpinning these reforms This book was previously published as a special issue of Regional Studies

The Celtic Tiger in Distress P. Kirby, 2016-01-22 Ireland's Celtic Tiger economy has been held up as a model of successful development in a globalized world offering lessons for other late developing countries It interrogates the principal theoretical approaches which have been used to analyze the Celtic Tiger particularly neo classical economics and finds them inadequate to capture its ambiguities or address its developmental deficit Elaborating an alternative approach drawing particularly on the work of Karl Polanyi the book offers an interpretation which captures more fully the ways in which the Irish State has made itself subservient to market forces The options now facing Irish society are mapped out through a critical examination of globalization identifying possibilities for development and social action

Sustainable Transport Rodney Tolley, 2003-09-10 With a wide range of contributions from America Australia Europe as well as the UK Creating Sustainable Transport sums up many of the lessons learned and how they can be applied in improved planning Non motorized transport planning depends on combining improvements to infrastructure with education The book examines both national strategies and local initiatives in cities around the world including such topics as changes to existing road infrastructure and the integration of cycling and walking with public transport The contributors consider topics such as developing healthier travel habits and ways of promoting cycling and walking as alternatives to the car
