European Drug Policies And Enforcements:

European Drug Policies and Enforcement Nicholas Dorn, Jorgen Jepsen, Ernesto Savona, A.P. Thirlwall, 1996-06-12 Drug problems present sharp challenges for policing and democracy in the European Union Harmonisation of anti trafficking measures contrasts with diversity of local policies on drug users Open drug scenes trigger innovative but often volatile responses This collection presents vivid experiences of drug policy making at city regional and higher levels For the future beyond 1996 EU confederal and intergovernmental scenarios have distinct implications for drugs Finally international dimensions are explored drug control through money laundering countermeasures trade and development policies security and EU enlargement

European Drug Policies Renaud Colson, Henri Bergeron, 2017-01-27 The drug control regime established by the international community has not succeeded in curbing either the demand for or the offer of narcotics But despite a series of developments in the Americas including the legalisation of cannabis in Uruguay and in several states in the United States of America there is still little support in Europe for repealing drug prohibition laws Nevertheless a gradual policy convergence reveals the emergence of a European model favouring public health strategies over a strictly penal approach to combatting drugs while growing transnational support for legalisation indicates the persistence of an alternative paradigm for drug policy This book examines the various influences on drug policies in Europe as grassroots movements NGO networks private foundations and academic research centres increasingly confront the prevailing discourses of drug prohibition Pursuing an interdisciplinary approach and bringing together legal scholars social scientists and practitioners it provides a comprehensive and critical assessment of drug policy reform in Europe

Policies and Strategies to Combat Drugs in Europe Georges Estievenart, 2023-08-28 This volume arose from a European Scientific Seminar on Strategies and Policies to Combat Drugs which was organized by the Commission of the European Communities at the European University Institute in Florence in December 1993 The significance of the seminar lay in the manner in which it sought to address the full range of issues associated with the drug problem at international national and local level Equally important was its success in attracting participants from a number of different disciplines scientific experts national and EU administrators working in the drugs field and members of the European Parliament That provided for a lively and wide ranging exchange of views and ideas which is reflected in the contributions and conclusions contained in this publication which comprises varied contributions and approaches to drug policies at international European national and local level It also focuses on the possibilities of a comprehensive Drug Strategy within the framework of the European Union

Anti-Drugs Policies of the European Union M. Elvins, 2003-08-06 Martin Elvins book is the first to trace the evolution of anti drugs policies at European Union level from the late 1960s to the present Phases of drug policy development key policy actors and institutions are described with particular reference to the influence of transnational networks of expertise Policy development is placed in the context of both European integration and a broad harmonization of international policies against drug trafficking

Concerns are also raised about secretive and anti democratic features on intergovernmental EU decision making

Drugs and Drug Policy Mark A.R. Kleiman, Jonathan P. Caulkins, Angela Hawken, 2011-07-13 While there have always been norms and customs around the use of drugs explicit public policies regulations taxes and prohibitions designed to control drug abuse are a more recent phenomenon Those policies sometimes have terrible side effects most prominently the development of criminal enterprises dealing in forbidden or untaxed drugs and the use of the profits of drug dealing to finance insurgency and terrorism Neither a drug free world nor a world of free drugs seems to be on offer leaving citizens and officials to face the age old problem What are we going to do about drugs In Drugs and Drug Policy three noted authorities survey the subject with exceptional clarity in this addition to the acclaimed series What Everyone Needs to Know They begin by defining drugs examining how they work in the brain discussing the nature of addiction and exploring the damage they do to users The book moves on to policy answering questions about legalization the role of criminal prohibitions and the relative legal tolerance for alcohol and tobacco The authors then dissect the illicit trade from street dealers to the flow of money to the effect of catching kingpins and show the precise nature of the relationship between drugs and crime They examine treatment both its effectiveness and the role of public policy and discuss the beneficial effects of some abusable substances Finally they move outward to look at the role of drugs in our foreign policy their relationship to terrorism and the ugly politics that surround the issue Crisp clear and comprehensive this is a handy and up to date overview of one of the most pressing topics in today s world What Everyone Needs to Know is a registered trademark of Oxford University Press

Addiction Types of Drugs Drug Law Enforcement, Policing and Harm Reduction Matthew Bacon, Jack Spicer, 2022-12-30

The policing of drugs is an intriguing complex and contentious domain that brings into sharp focus the multifaceted nature of the police role and has farreaching consequences for health crime and justice While research on drugs policing has historically been surprisingly sparse fragmented and underdeveloped the field has recently become a burgeoning area of academic study influenced by contemporary trends in policing practices changes in drug policy and wider social movements This book makes a much needed interdisciplinary and international contribution that engages with established and emerging areas of scholarship advances cutting edge debates and sets an agenda for future directions in drugs policing Drug Law Enforcement Policing and Harm Reduction is the first edited collection to devote its attention exclusively to drugs policing It brings together a range of leading scholars to provide a deep and thorough account of the current state of knowledge In addition to academic analysis authors also include serving police officers and policymakers who have influenced how drugs policing is framed and carried out Together the contributors draw on a diverse set of empirical studies and theoretical perspectives with the thread running throughout the book being the concept of harm reduction policing With accounts from various countries localities and contexts topics covered include the in effectiveness and un intended consequences of the war on drugs attempts to reform drugs policing and the role of partnerships and policy networks The broader theme of inequality lies at the heart of this collection An accessible and compelling read this book will be of interest to academics and students of criminology public health and social policy especially those researching policing drug policy and harm reduction It also offers valuable insights and practical guidance for professionals working in the drugs field Marijuana Politics Robert M.

Hardaway, 2018-01-18 What is the big deal about cannabis This book covers everything from botany to the historical uses and common misconceptions of cannabis with a focus on the political process of prohibition and legalization of cannabis in the United States Why is marijuana to which few if any deaths can be attributed generally banned in the United States while cigarettes and liquor which unquestionably kill millions are currently legal This question can best be explained through an investigation of the historical context of cannabis in our country This book documents the long history of marijuana use the turbulent path of the prohibition of cannabis use the issues regarding present day legalization and the modern implications of both medical and recreational cannabis It provides compelling insight from multiple academic disciplines including sociology political science economics medicine and health and in particular from the history of the American experience with the criminalization of liquor gambling prostitution and cigarettes Marijuana Politics Uncovering the Troublesome History and Social Costs of Criminalization examines the current trend toward the legalization of marijuana in the context of the American experience with particular emphasis on political social and constitutional developments in the United States beginning in the 20th century It compares the trend toward marijuana legalization to Prohibition and U S laws regarding the consumption of alcohol and analyzes legal developments in comparable areas such as the regulation of other vices and hard drugs like cocaine and heroin This book is accessible to both casual readers and academic students and provides a robust understanding of the both historical and modern aspects of the drug itself and legalization regardless of the reader's individual beliefs on the use of cannabis

Illicit Drugs Adrian Barton, 2003 Illicit drugs and their use are now more than ever a dominant concern of politicians policy makers and the general public Often our understandings of the drug problem tend to be uni dimensional and based around particular areas of risk drug related crime dependency and ill health This book moves beyond this single issue approach and locates illicit drug use in its wider context with chapters on the history of illicit drug use measuring the problem legal and medical responses to illicit drug use the illicit drugs market drugs crime and trends in drug policy Drawing information from wide ranging sources Adrian Barton illuminates the complex nature and broad impact illicit drug use carries in its wake and provides an overview of the contemporary state of the drug scene This book will be essential reading for students and researchers working in the area of drugs and society

Cocaine Trafficking in Latin America Sayaka Fukumi, 2016-05-23 The post Cold War world has seen the emergence of new kinds of security threats Whilst traditionally security threats were perceived of in terms of military threats against a state non traditional security threats are those that pose a threat to various internal competencies of the state and its identity both home and abroad The European Union and the United States have identified Latin American cocaine trafficking as a security threat but their policy responses to it have differed This book examines the ways in which the EU and the US have conceptualized this threat Furthermore it explores the impact of cocaine trafficking on four state functions economic political public order and diplomatic in order to explain why it has become securitized Appealing to a variety of university courses this book is especially relevant to security studies and European and US policy analysis as well as criminology and sociology

Rethinking European Welfare Janet Fink, Gail Lewis, John Clarke, 2001-03-29 This is an important and timely book not least in considering the EU's inchoate social regime alongside established national systems that draws attention to the subtle yet often neglected ways in which welfare systems unwittingly distort the lives of their beneficiaries Political Studies

Rethinking European Welfare provides a wide ranging and innovative rethinking of the study of Europe and social policy and offers new ways of analysing European welfare and its future Whilst acknowledging the importance of research and analysis of policy making in Europe this Reader addresses a range of other challenging and provoking issues which have been marginalized or ignored in the study of European social policy It will be essential reading for students of European social policy social and public administration social work sociology politics cultural studies and European studies

Carceral Recovery Sanaullah Khan, 2023-10-03 The book explores the interrelation between carceral conditions and substance use by considering the intersections between drug markets sidewalks households and prisons in Baltimore Sanaullah Khan argues that while housing medicalization and incarceration fundamentally create the conditions for substance use individuals are increasingly experiencing the paradoxes of care and punishment by being propelled into a new regime of recovery which creates new pharmaceuticalized identities By shedding light on how addiction and the impetus for healing moves through families and institutions of the state Khan provides an account of the different competing forces that shape substance use recovery and relapse Through a combination of archival research and ethnography the book makes a case for disentangling punishment from recovery Redefining Transatlantic Security Relations Dieter Mahncke, Wyn Rees, Wayne Thompson, 2004-06-19 The transatlantic security relationship has been at the heart of cooperation since the onset of the Cold War and has been the foundation on which the stability of Europe has been built But the post Cold War period has raised major challenges for transatlantic relations as well as new security threats such as terrorism organized crime and drug trafficking These are fresh concerns in the sense that they have not been previously regarded as matters for US European cooperation Recent events such as the 1999 war in Kosovo the European Union's decision to create a Rapid Reaction Force and the US policy of proceeding with a ballistic missile defence capability have all contributed to tensions in transatlantic relations The transatlantic relationship has entered a new and highly uncertain period This book looks at the three main facets of the transatlantic security relationship the defense of Europe global challenges and new security threats

Handbook of Policing Tim Newburn, 2012-08-21 This new edition of the Handbook of Policing updates and expands the highly successful first edition and now includes a completely new chapter on policing and forensics It provides a comprehensive but highly readable overview of policing in the UK and is an essential reference point combining the expertise of leading academic experts on policing and policing practitioners themselves Drugs Nigel South, 1998-12-23 This authoritative overview of drugs and society today examines whether a process of normalization of drugs and drug use is under way the debate over prohibition versus legislation drugs and users as other or dangerous drugs and dance cultures drug use among young women images of race and drugs medical responses to drugs policing strategies and controlling drug users drug control and sport and the question of prohibition versus liberalization Environmental Criminal Liability and Enforcement in European and International Law Ricardo Pereira, 2015-09-29 The drive for harmonisation of environmental criminal standards at both the international and European level emerges from the increasing recognition of the scale and seriousness of environmental crime the need to strengthen mechanisms of police and judicial interstate cooperation to combat cross border crime and the objective to ensure fair competition in a global economy and an integrated EU common market The harmonisation of environmental criminal law requires a competent institutional framework able to convey the need for criminalisation of environmental harm while not overriding national aspirations to sovereignty in criminal matters The book Environmental Criminal Liability and Enforcement in European and International Law assesses legal theoretical and practical questions of harmonisation of national environmental criminal law and the mechanisms for cooperation by sovereign states under European and International Law with a particular emphasis on legislative developments in the European Union the Council of Europe and other international institutions assessing the case for an extension of the jurisdiction of the International Criminal Court over international environmental crimes The Routledge Handbook of European Criminology Sophie Body-Gendrot, Mike Hough, Klara Kerezsi, René Lévy, Sonja Snacken, 2013-08-15 This new book brings together some of the leading criminologists across Europe to showcase the best of European criminology This Handbook aims to reflect the range and depth of current work in Europe and to counterbalance the impact of the sometimes insular and ethnocentric Anglo American criminological tradition The end product is a collection of twenty eight chapters illustrating a truly comparative and interdisciplinary European criminology The editors have assembled a cast of leading voices to reflect on differences and commonalities elaborate on theoretically grounded comparisons and reflect on emerging themes in criminology in Europe After the editors introduction the book is organised in three parts five chapters offering historical theoretical and policy oriented overviews of European issues in crime and crime control seven chapters looking at different dimensions of crime in Europe including crime trends state crime gender and crime and urban safety fifteen chapters examining the variety of institutional responses exploring issues such as policing juvenile justice punishment green crime and the role of the victim This book gives some indication of the richness and scope of the emerging comparative European criminology and will be required reading for anyone who wants to understand trends in crime and its control across Europe It will also be a valuable teaching resource especially at postgraduate level as well as an important reference point for researchers and scholars of criminology across Europe Policing Drugs Karim Murji, 2019-01-04 First published in 1998 this influential volume develops previous research by the author and explores issues and solutions regarding the roles of law enforcement drug referral and official and media reactions Section one analyzes the rationale for drug enforcement and evaluates the strengths and weaknesses of four main approaches It looks at the pressure on the police to take action in local drugs markets particularly within a context where the police emphasize their responsiveness to public demands in a more consumerist age Section two examines welfarist policies directed towards drug users and minor drug offenders Section 3 focuses on the media and coverage of crack cocaine and ecstasy in the 1990s particularly where these have been based upon police briefings and reports International Police Cooperation Frederic Lemieux, 2013-01-11 This book sets out to analyse the key emerging issues and theory and practice of international police cooperation Contributors explore emerging initiatives and new challenges in several contexts at both national and international levels
